Cuts All Trade and Other Relations.

(Map on page 7.)

CAIRO, Egypt, June 4 (AP).—Soon after the Egyptian cabinet resigned today, Egypt listed Syria as "German occupied territory" and broke off all trade and other relations with that uneasy French mandate. The order did not apply to adjoining French Lebanon.

Premier Hussein Sirry Pasha.

[British government sources in London said they were puzzled over the Egyptian declaration that Syria is "German occupied territory." Egypt still is a nonbelligerent ally of Great Britain, but when the war broke, she severed diplomatic relations with Germany. The declaration on Syria was interpreted by some in London as an amplification of that action, especially since a large part of Egyptian trade is with Syria.]

The cabinet resignation, forced by demands for a government of wider base "in view of the present grave circumstances," came apparently as an urgent measure forced by the approach of axis forces from across the Mediterranean.

Same Premier to Return.

It was understood that a new government would be formed tomorrow under the same premier, Hussein Sirry Pasha, probably bringing in the Saadist party [dissidents from the nationalist Wafd party]. Efforts to form such a government failed three weeks ago when the Wafdists insisted that the chamber of deputies be dissolved first. The Wafdists have only a small representation there.

The Egyptian government took a series of measures improving the air raid precaution service, especially in Cairo, and took steps against possible fifth column activities, including the closing down by military order of 18 small printing presses.

The British royal air force reported today, without elaboration, that "a petrol [gasoline] dump at Beirut, Lebanon, was bombed and machine gunned by our aircraft on Tuesday."

British Occupy Mosul.

British air-borne troops have occupied Mosul, thus assuring them control of the vitally important Mosul oil fields in northern Iraq, according to information released here. Iraqi Petroleum company employés are resuming their normal posts and oil is expected to be flowing soon thru the Kirkuk-Haifa [Palestine] pipe line. Informed sources said the pipe line suffered only minor damage at the hands of Iraqi insurgents.

The British used air transport as the most feasible means of moving troops northward to the Mosul region but did not execute attacks similar to those of the Germans in Crete.

The Iraqi government declared martial law on Tuesday after riots in Bagdad on Monday which were regarded as the final efforts of the supporters of Rashid Ali al Gailani, the pro-axis premier who fled to Iran [Persia].

[The German radio in a broadcast heard in America last night said fighting has broken out between British troops and the civilian population in Bagdad. The Bagdad population must remain indoors between 4 p. m. and 7 a. m. during the martial law, the German radio said.]

Nazis Pour Into Syria.

LONDON, June 4 (AP).—By land, sea, and air a Nazi vanguard in French mandated Syria is being steadily reinforced, British press dispatches said tonight, while in London British quarters declared the "necessary precautions" have been taken to deal with this middle east threat.

Announcement by the middle east command that the Mosul oil fields in northern Iraq once again are in British hands was welcomed here as improving the British position at the rear if and when trouble breaks out in Syria.

A Reuters [British] news agency dispatch from the Syrian frontier said

PUBLIC'S STAND HELD DISTORTED BY PROPAGANDA

Action Termed Blow to National Body.

The Cook County council of the American Legion, which is composed of representatives of 250 posts with a total membership of more than 45,000 veterans, voted approval last night of a resolution urging a referendum in Illinois to determine the extent of American involvement in the European war.

In a companion move, the group voted to decline an invitation to take part in the massmeeting tomorrow in Chicago Stadium, at which Wendell L. Willkie, 1940 Republican nominee for the Presidency, will expound his interventionist views. There was no debate and no opposition to either action.

The referendum resolution was presented to the 400 Legionnaire delegates, meeting in the council chambers of the city hall, by T. W. Merryman, chairman of the Americanism committee of the Legion council, which had formulated it.

Legion Custom Cited.

The resolution began by citing the custom of Legionnaires to open their meetings with the recital of the preamble to the Legion constitution, and singled out the quotation: "to foster and perpetuate a 100 per cent Americanism." Continuing, the resolution said:

"Un-American and subversive organizations are benefiting by the surge of propaganda that is reaching the eye and ear of loyal Americans via the air lanes, newspaper columns, and news reels, with the result that facts pertaining to public sentiment often are distorted and misrepresented.

State Election Urged.

"The constitution of the state of Illinois provides the machinery for determining public sentiment in an American way on any given question.

"Therefore, be it resolved by the 1st division of the American Legion, department of Illinois, that we favor the use of this machinery, known as the Public Policy act, to give the people of this great state opportunity to express themselves upon the greatest issue that has ever faced them—the extent of American involvement in the European war; and that the American Legion encourage the citizens of Illinois to initiate a referendum to determine said sentiment."

It was explained that in the normal course of events the resolution would go to the Legion state department for consideration and that the wording of the proposed referendum proposition would have to be worked out after that.

Viewed as Rebuke.

This action of the Cook county Legionnaires was regarded as a rebuke to the national Legion management, which recently has been veering to the interventionist side.

The question of the Willkie meeting was brought up by Francis Phelan, commander of the Cook County council. He read a telegram he had received from Clifford W. Barnes, chairman of the Willkie gathering, and asked that the membership decide on the answer.

Two speakers from the floor, one of them Edward Clamage, past state commander, said it was contrary to Legion policy to participate in such meetings and the vote instructed Phelan to reply to that effect.

Urge Safe and Sane July 4th.

The meeting indorsed a resolution calling for a safe and sane patriotic celebration of Independence day. As in past years the Legion will hold its own Fourth of July spectacle, including a display of fireworks, in Soldiers' field.

Col. A. A. Sprague will be honorary chairman of the Fourth of July celebration committee. Phelan will be general chairman and Russell W. Root executive vice chairman. A capacity crowd is expected at the program.

WARTIME EMOTIONS ARE SUBJECT TO CHANGE

LONG DISTANCE PHONE RATES ORDERED CUT 14 MILLIONS A YEAR

Washington, D. C., June 4 (AP).—Long distance telephone users will save approximately 14 million dollars a year—equal to 14 per cent of their bills — the Federal Communications commission said today in announcing rate reductions effective July 10.

Chairman James L. Fly of the FCC said the reductions were reached by mutual agreement. The commission estimated that 12½ million dollars of the reductions would apply to long distance rates of the American Telephone and Telegraph company, and the remainder to the rates of the 21 associated companies in the Bell system.

Reductions will be made on most day calls of 144 to 1,530 miles, while reductions will be made over the same mileage range for some calls during nights and Sundays.

SAVINGS TO CHICAGOANS.

Everett E. Friganza, general news service manager of the Illinois Bell Telephone company, estimated last night that the reduction on long distance calls for Chicago users might reach $1,000,000 a year.

FEAR 1,000 ARMY HOMING PIGEONS LOST IN STORM

New York, June 4 (AP).—About 1,000 valuable homing pigeons, which had been registered for service with the United States army signal corps, are long overdue and apparently lost on a racing flight from Spartanburg, S. C., to their home cotes in Brooklyn and Long Island.

The birds, many of them of championship breed and valued up to $200 each, were released from Spartanburg last Saturday and thus far not one has reached its home cote. It normally requires from one to two days for a bird to cover the 600 mile course.

John Boshler of Hempstead, Long Island, secretary of the International Pigeon Fanciers' association expressed fear that the birds had been caught in a storm and blown out to sea.

A Lady with a Bay Window Gets Out of Step with Life

Floyd S. Young, director of the Lincoln park zoo, discovered yesterday that the bay window on Princess Spearmint, the zoo's two ton hippopotamus, has grown so large that she can't get up the steps to her swimming pool. So he ordered the steps replaced with a ramp.

Reveal Coast Guard Ship at Hood Sinking

BY WALTER TROHAN.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., June 4.—A United States coast guard cutter had a ringside seat at the sea battle between the British cruiser Hood, the largest battleship in the world, and the Bismarck, ill-fated pride of the German navy, it was learned authoritatively here tonight.

The coast guard craft did not participate in the fighting in any way, but witnessed the battle of the sea titans, which ended when the 42,100 ton Hood was blown to bits. Five days later the Bismarck was sunk at the end of a pursuit which enlisted planes and all available British naval vessels in the North Atlantic.

The name of the coast guard vessel could not be learned, but it is believed to be of the George W. Campbell class, which is being transferred to the navy.

Carry Two 5-Inch Guns.

There are seven vessels of this class. They are 327 foot cruising cutters, carrying two 5-inch guns, two six-pounders, and eight machine guns. Provision has been made for mounting two additional 5-inch guns. The craft have a top speed in excess of 20 knots.

The naval engagement took place in the chill waters between Greenland and Iceland, which are within the war zone as determined by Germany and actual hostilities.

When Admiral Harold R. Stark, chief of naval operations, reported in a recent speech that the patrol was operating 3,000 miles out to sea, he precipitated a tempest in the capital at a time when it was being charged that the administration secretly had begun convoying supplies to Britain.

Admiral Changes Figures.

At that time Mr. Roosevelt said the admiral did not mean anything when he said the patrol was operating 2,000 miles off the United States, because no one had prescribed any definite patrol zone since he himself had announced American vessels were operating 1,500 miles off Chesapeake bay.

The White House has disclosed that the patrol vessels make their reports in plain English, rather than employing naval code. Thus the British are notified any time the patrol spots a Nazi U-boat or surface raider,

BRITISH WILL REVISE AIR FIELD DEFENSE AFTER CRETE DEFEAT

LONDON, June 4 (AP).—It was disclosed tonight that an air vice marshal has been appointed to work with the war office in supervising ground defenses of Britain's air fields. It was believed that a complete overhauling of the protection of these vital centers has been ordered as a result of the successful German invasion of Crete.

At present defense of British air fields is shared by the RAF and the army, but there have been many demands for centralization of responsibility.

More Criticism of Crete Defeat.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, June 4.—There was little letup today in press criticism of the British defeat in Crete. The Daily Mail repeated its denunciation of "soothing" official commentaries and radio talks. It attacked all three political parties—Conservative, Liberal, and Labor—and charged that "complacency and smugness are deadening our activities."

The Daily Mail warned that "unless this country pulls itself together now, Germany will win the war."

The nation is awaiting the parliamentary debate on the Crete defeat. In addition to Prime Minister Churchill, Foreign Minister Anthony Eden may be severely criticized.

GENERAL CALLS ARMY'S LACK OF ARMS 'PITIFUL'

Topeka, Kas., June 4 (AP).—After viewing a parade of 1,500 mechanized troops, Topekans heard Brig. Gen. R. C. Rodgers, Fort Riley commandant, call it "one of the most pitiful things I ever have seen."

Gen. Rodgers addressed a business men's banquet after the parade yesterday and said: "Those trucks which paraded up your main street were as helpless as a fleet of vegetable trucks. Each of them should have had three machine guns, an anti-aircraft gun, side arms, and rifles, but there was not a gun in the lot. The reason is that we simply haven't got them."

Big Ben Silent 12 Hours; Hammer Sits on Hour Hand

New York, June 4 (AP).—Big Ben, London's world known clock, was silent for 12 hours because a workman left his hammer on the hour hand bracket last night. The trouble was discovered just in time for the quarter-hour to strike at 10:15 a. m., the British Broadcasting corporation reported in an announcement picked up here.

ARMY OF 2,800,000 MEN INDICATED BY CAMP PLAN

Rush Order Is Given for New Building Costing Billion.

Washington, D. C., June 4 (AP).—Brig. Gen. Brehon Somervell, the army's construction quartermaster, revealed today that he had received instructions in the last 24 hours to rush the awarding of construction contracts amounting to a billion dollars. Gen. Somervell declined to give further details to a house military affairs subcommittee before which he was testifying.

Brig. Gen. Somervell.

Gen. Somervell's revelation stirred members of congress tonight to the conjecture that the war department is planning to increase the army to 2,800,000 men, double the existing goal of 1,418,000.

May Keep Guardsmen.

The general's remarks were interpreted by some legislators as indicating that the army would accomplish part of the increase by holding the National Guard in federal service beyond the originally scheduled year.

The war department emphasized to corps area commanders today the desirability of enlisting selective service draftees, where possible, for full three year terms of service with the army.

Draftees under the law are inducted for a one year training period. War department officials said that a few already have been enlisted for regular terms of service.

Survey 28 New Sites.

It has been known for some time that in order to plan effectively for the housing of any additional troops, the army has been surveying possible sites for 28 new cantonments. Congress already provided 15 million dollars for such preliminary work in an attempt to avoid the high costs and mistakes encountered in the original program which cost in the neighborhood of 800 millions.

Informed sources said selection of 11 of the new sites has been made and officials have said that if the proposed 28 new camps were constructed, they would accommodate an army double the present size, or approximately 3 million men.

In that connection, Gen. George C. Marshall, chief of staff, told congress early in March that the first augmentation of the army, if it became necessary, would be to 2,800,000 men.

'COPPERHEADS' BACK LINDY ON ANTI-WAR STAND

Los Angeles, Cal., June 4 [Special].—In rebuke of President Roosevelt's slur on Charles A. Lindbergh by calling him a "copperhead" because of his anti-war views, undergraduates at the University of Southern California have formed the "Campus Copperheads."

The members, who call their chapter a "coil," claim to have the shortest constitution and by-laws on record. Both are comprised of the three words, "We're for Lindy." Members show their colors by wearing a sizable lapel button bearing the inscription, "I'm a Copperhead."

The "Campus Copperheads" are affiliated with the National Copperheads, which was launched here immediately following the President's attack on Lindbergh. Also affiliated are the Copperhead clubs, formed and forming among the pilots of aviation centers.

MUSIC BY THE WPA WILL GIVE SENDOFF TO CITY'S DRAFTEES

Beginning today men who are called to army service in the selected draft will march thru the induction station at 2653 Madison street to music furnished by the Works Progress administration. Capt. Leigh Johnson, in charge of the station, announced that the first concert would last two hours and that others will follow at intervals. The WPA musicians, he said, will play principally swing and the lighter rhythms, with the idea of putting the men off for training in a cheerful frame of mind.

Vessel Owners Told to Get Ready for English Service.

Washington, D. C., June 4 [Special].—Half the ship tonnage of 14 Atlantic and Gulf of Mexico coastline shipping operators was ordered by the United States Maritime commission tonight to be made available to Great Britain for transporting American made supplies and arms to England.

It was estimated that the order will affect between 60 and 70 merchant vessels and will provide about 375,000 tons of shipping. Most of these ships are in general cargo service.

The order was issued at the close of the day's conference with the operators called by the commission to determine the amount of Atlantic and gulf coast shipping which could be directed into the 2 million ton shipping pool President Roosevelt has decreed shall be provided for the British.

Requisitioned Vessels Listed.

The commission also tonight for the first time announced a complete list of 28 other merchant vessels, among them some of the finest in the American merchant marine, which have been requisitioned for the United States army and navy. The list included the $17,500,000 luxury liner America and the liners Washington and Manhattan, regarded as the best in the American merchant service, and seven President liners.

Recently 50 oil tankers, aggregating 500,000 tons and operating in the coastwise trade, were placed in the pool for aid to Britain. The administration also has under guard a considerable number of foreign ships, chiefly German and Italian, which it may add to the pool. With other ships obtained from various sources, it is estimated that the total will be approximately 1,750,000 tons, 250,000 tons short of the President's 2 million ton goal.

Expect Draftees for Navy.

It also was reported in naval circles tonight that manpower for the navy will be drawn from the ranks of draftees under a new plan approved by naval and selective service officials. Opportunity will be given new draftees to volunteer for their one year service with the navy.

Details of the plan have not been completed, but it is expected the program will start in two weeks, with local draft boards acting as naval recruiting centers. A present quota of 3,500 naval recruits a month is said to have been set, with plans to increase it to 7,000 a month.

In addition President Roosevelt today issued an executive order directing that an unspecified number of coast guard officers and enlisted men be transferred to help operate certain naval vessels. The number to be transferred will be agreed upon by the chief of naval operations and the commandant of the coast guard. Some coast guardsmen from the Great Lakes have arrived in New York.

Naval Needs Estimated.

Naval experts have estimated that the growing seapower of this country will require an enlisted complement of 692,000 men and 138,400 officers by 1945. The entire personnel of the navy on May 1 consisted of 198,453 enlisted men, 543 retired men called back to active duty, and 27,860 reserves on active duty. This would mean that about 500,000 more enlisted men would be needed by 1945.

It was not explained whether all of the naval recruits would be used by the navy itself or whether some would be assigned to operate ships obtained from the merchant marine. This matter disturbed Joseph Curran, head of the CIO National Maritime union, who has been fearful that seamen on merchant ships transferred to the navy as auxiliary vessels will be replaced by enlisted personnel. He has suggested to President Roosevelt that all such seamen be kept on under prevailing union conditions.

Transport Activities Intermingled.

The prospective transport activities of the army and navy in recent weeks have become so intermingled that it is difficult to distinguish between them. Shipping operators as well as navy men have expressed the opinion that the navy soon would

SAFARI'S SO FAR FROM FACT JURY FINDS IT'S FANCY

Fraud Suspect Admits Travels Were Dreams.

BY CLAYTON KIRKPATRICK.

Leonard Balter's 10 years of prospecting thru the jungles of Ecuador and on the headwaters of the Amazon were all a dream—a dream so vivid that half a dozen other would-be explorers were ready to pay $300 each to share it. That was what a jury in the federal District courtroom of Judge William J. Campbell learned yesterday from the dreamer himself.

Balter is being tried on charges of using the mails to defraud prospective fellow explorers of the money they put up for the expenses of a semiscientific safari. Edward J. Ryan, assistant United States attorney, contends Balter's projected expedition was merely a pretext to obtain money.

Spirits Defied Jail Bars.

The dream involved a pair of inquisitive and adventurous spirits that haunted the villages of the Jivaro Indians and the streams of Brazil and Ecuador thruout the last decade. One of the spirits was that of Balter; the other was that of a Jerry Bliss.

While the spirits were trekking thru the steamy jungles the bodies they left behind languished under lock and key in the Waupun, Wis., state penitentiary. For during that decade Bliss and Balter were convicts in a cell. The jurors weren't told this. [It might be prejudicial.] They heard all about the journeys of the spirits, however.

The story came out when Ryan picked up a prospectus sent to candidates for membership in the Balter expedition.

Theme Song: Up a Lazy River!

"There are thousands of unexplored rivers and as many rumors of gold, diamonds, and hidden treasures coming out of those rivers," Ryan read. "You'll be going up some of those rivers just as I did for 10 years and as I expect to do for at least two more."

"Now isn't it a fact," Ryan asked Balter, "that you had never gone up any such rivers?"

"Yes, your body," replied Ryan.

"Well, no it didn't, but . . ."

"Do you usually travel around without your body?" Ryan asked.

Balter didn't reply.

Turning a page Ryan read another passage from the prospectus: "I have been roaming and searching for golden slop buckets [Incas, of course] during the last 10 years; returned to the States with my longtime pal, Jerry Bliss, weary and sick of the jungle, but promptly lost my pants among the civilized Indians and am going back to pick up another stake!"

"Did you ever actually do any roaming thru the jungles with Jerry Bliss?" Ryan asked.

"Well, in plans, yes," said Balter.

"I suppose you mean you were there in spirit," Ryan remarked. "Just what practical experience did your spirit get that would qualify you to lead this semiscientific expedition you were planning?"

"I have read a lot of books; I studied those things," Balter said.

"But you never did actually travel thru those jungles, as your letter says, did you?" insisted Ryan.

Balter was equally vague about his qualifications as a mining engineer. He did not have a college degree, he admitted, and he wasn't a mining engineer by occupation.

Mines Own Mining Degree.

"I spent 500 hours studying between 300 and 400 books on minerology," he said. "I call myself a mining engineer by training."

"Has any other mining engineer ever called you a mining engineer?" Ryan asked.

"I can't recall," Balter answered. "According to my best recollection I would venture to say no."

Four of the five members of his intrepid crew were in court to hear his story. They bowed their heads and shared his sorrow as he told how the expedition ended on April 11 when M. L. Goldsmith and Thomas Prindiville, postal inspectors, arrested him in a bus depot.

BRIDGES' ATTORNEYS REST DEFENSE CASE; HEARING NEARS END

San Francisco, Cal., June 4 [Special]. — Attorneys defending Harry Bridges in deportation proceedings rested their case today. The government, which seeks to send the alien CIO director back to his native Australia, immediately began rebuttal testimony. It was indicated the hearing would be completed next week.

Bomb Damages Office of CIO Auto Workers

Damage estimated at $1,500 was done early today to the new Melrose Park office of the United Automobile Workers, Local 762 [CIO], by a black powder bomb thrown into the doorway of the building at 2110 West Lake street in the suburb. The front of the one story building was blown out and windows shattered in nearby buildings. The office was opened recently after the CIO succeeded in organizing a Melrose Park steel and iron plant.

PUNCHED IN NOSE BY CAPT. GILBERT, ASSERTS WITNESS

Testifies at Trial of Libel Charges.

The Rev. Elmer Williams, who testified that he was ordained a Methodist minister in 1907, took the witness stand yesterday before a jury in the Criminal court of Judge Walter La-Buy to defend himself against a charge of criminal libel. A legal argument about the rules of evidence interrupted his testimony after he had finished describing his career as a minister and crusader. He will resume his testimony today.

The Rev. Mr. Williams is accused of libeling Capt. Daniel A. Gilbert, chief investigator for the state's attorney's office, and M. L. Zuckerman and Barney Novak, furriers at 17 North State street, thru an article in the October, 1940, issue of Williams' magazine Lightnin'. The article accused Capt. Gilbert and the furriers of being in league in a stolen fur racket.

The chief defense witness yesterday was Attorney T. J. McCormick, who testified he had provided Williams with the information for the article. McCormick also told how Capt. Gilbert had punched him on the nose.

Attorney for Furrier.

McCormick is attorney for Theodore Dalpe, a furrier at 4155 Broadway, whose store was raided in 1938 by state's attorney's police. Dalpe was convicted of receiving furs stolen in a Champaign, Ill., robbery, but the conviction was reversed by the Supreme court because police who raided his store had done so without a search warrant. Dalpe charged that police did not return all the seized articles, and, thru Attorney McCormick, filed a damage suit against Capt. Gilbert and his police.

McCormick said the nose punching occurred when he went to Capt. Gilbert's office to inquire about the return of Dalpe's furs. He said Gilbert was reading a copy of Lightnin' containing the article which resulted in the libel charge. McCormick said Gilbert was enraged and accused him of giving Williams the information on which the article was based.

"Gilbert told me he was an Irishman and I was an Irishman," McCormick testified. "He demanded to know what kind of Irishman I was to give information to Williams. He said Williams was an A. P. A. [American Protective association, a secret anti-Catholic society.] He said Irishmen should get along."

Tells of Accusing Police.

McCormick testified that he told Capt. Gilbert his policemen were robbers and that if he acquiesced in their actions he was as bad as they.

"Capt. Gilbert said we should get along, and that I got as many favors as other attorneys," McCormick continued. "I said I did not want favors from thieving policemen. The captain then punched me in the nose."

On cross examination by Leslie Curtis, assistant state's attorney, McCormick denied having fled from Gilbert's office shouting: "Mr. Courtney! Mr. Courtney!" He did admit, however, that he has been providing Williams with information for his magazine for six or seven years.

BACKACHE, LEG PAINS MAY BE DANGER SIGN

Of Tired Kidneys

If backache and leg pains are making you miserable, don't just complain and do nothing about them. Nature may be warning you that your kidneys need attention.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking excess acids and poisonous waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.

If the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters don't work well, poisonous waste matter stays in the blood. These poisons may start nagging backaches, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from the blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Olive Tablets, being purely vegetable, are wonderful! They not only gently yet thoroughly cleanse the bowels but ALSO assist liver bile flow to help digest fatty foods. Test their goodness TONIGHT without fail! 15¢, 30¢, 60¢.

TRUCK SHORTAGE FELT BY TROOPS IN TRAINING TEST

BY CAPT. M. M. CORPENING.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Manchester, Tenn., June 4.—Further shortages in equipment of troops taking part in the 2d army's tactical exercises became apparent here today. The 102d engineers, a unit of the 27th [New York National Guard] division, one of the organizations participating in the battle of the Cumberland valley, is greatly lacking in transportation equipment.

Tables of organization provide that a combat engineer regiment in a square division have 77 1½-ton dump trucks. The regiment has 29. Of the various size cargo trucks the tables call for 14, but the 102d has only 2. Instead of 40 1-ton trailers it has 15. It has only 3 of the 12 specified ½-ton command trucks. It should have 23 motorcycles, but only has 9.

Have Only Old Rifles.

The regiment is equipped with 730 world war Springfield rifles. There is not a Garand semi-automatic in the unit.

Corps officials conducting the maneuvers have indicated a shortage of blank small arms ammunition for use in the exercises. Troops have been ordered to conserve this ammunition for the major maneuvers late in the summer. A circular has been issued informing commanders that umpires will recognize smoke bombs set off under proper conditions as simulated small arms fire. Tear gas sometimes is added to these bombs which forces tank crews and others to don gas masks.

The 102d engineers also have found that the draftee classification system is not proving satisfactory. Theoretically draftees would be assigned to jobs for which their civilian experience would best prepare them. But in practice this has not always worked out and commanding officers are making many shifts in assignments.

Rule Attack Stopped.

The first phase of the present tactical exercises closed this afternoon after the umpires had decided that the 7th corps had stopped the counterattacks of a mythical force supposed to be invading the Cumberland valley from the north. The 7th corps had delivered its frontal attack on the invader earlier in the day.

After the 30th division [Tennessee, Georgia, and Carolinas] and the 27th had attacked the enemy and were counterattacked, the 5th [regulars] made a quick motorized movement to flank the enemy from the left. With the success of this maneuver, the umpires halted the exercises for the day.

The troops will remain in the field and start on a new problem tomorrow.

Wife Takes Over

[TRIBUNE Photo.]

Mrs. Minnie Solk went into the filling station business yesterday by virtue of a court order issued by Circuit Judge Cornelius J. Harrington in her separation suit against her husband, Louis Solk.

The station, which is at 1140 Wabash avenue, had been operated by Solk, but he agreed to turn it over to his wife and to pay her $10 weekly for support for herself and two children. Mrs. Solk, who charged desertion, was represented by Attorneys Joseph H. Becker and Norman Becker. She is 27 years old and lives at 6975 Greenview avenue.

Solk, who is 33, has been living in a trailer in a parking lot behind the filling station. After she had taken possession of the station Mrs. Solk said he didn't know where he is going to live now. She said she's going to take over the parking lot, too.

Alien Sent to Canadian Jail for Possessing British Map

VANCOUVER, B. C., June 4 (AP).—Gottfried Sohar, 22 years old, an alien, was sentenced to six months in jail here today for possessing a detailed plan of a British harbor. He was arrested in Esquimalt, B. C., in April.

REFUSE TO CUT SHIP BUILDING FOR AIRPLANES

Cling to Surface Craft Despite War Lesson.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., June 4.—There is no disposition in congress or in the navy department to retard the construction of huge battleships despite the war developments which have shown such craft to be vulnerable to torpedo planes, it was learned today.

Naval officials and congressmen united in agreeing that German air successes and the British accomplishment in sinking the German battleship Bismarck have shown the military value of planes launching torpedoes against warcraft. They refused to concede that more attention should be paid by the United States to the building up of a great torpedo plane force than to the present program calling for construction of 361 ships, including 17 great battleships.

Pilot Training Important.

David I. Walsh [D., Mass.], chairman of the senate naval affairs committee, altho denying that air successes in the war have decreased the importance of naval power, said the major lesson of the conflict is the supreme importance of the 16,000 man naval pilot training program.

Representative Melvin J. Maas [R., Minn.], ranking minority member of the house naval affairs committee, also insisted that battleship construction was all important. Known as the most aviation-minded of the committee members, Maas said the United States fleet needed at least 300 or 400 torpedo planes. "But I still don't believe that the battleship is obsolete," he said.

Informed that the United States is reliably reported to have only 72 torpedo planes and torpedo bombers, Maas expressed surprise. He said that many planes of this type must have been transferred to the British because he knew that the navy recently had more than 100.

The torpedo plane strength of the navy is supposed to be composed of four squadrons of 18 planes each. Each aircraft carrier is supposed to have one squadron of torpedo planes or torpedo bombers. The torpedo bomber is used extensively because it can carry either one 1,800 pound torpedo or three 500 pound bombs.

The Words of the President

"And while I am talking to you mothers and fathers I give you one more assurance.

"I have said this before, but I shall say it again and again. Your boys are not going to be sent into any foreign wars.

"They are going into training to form a force so strong, that by its very existence, it will keep the threat of war far away from our shores.

HOUSE APPROVES 1 A.M. CLOSING FOR LIQUOR DEALERS

Springfield, Ill., June 4 (AP).—Taverns and liquor stores thruout Illinois would be compelled to close at 1 a. m. under legislation which today passed the house overwhelmingly and was sent to the senate.

Approved but not sponsored by the state liquor control commission, the bill would prohibit all establishments selling alcoholic liquors from being open between the hours of 1 a. m. and 7 a. m. daily and 1 a. m. and 1 p. m. on Sundays.

The vote on house passage of the bill was 112 to 10 after Representative John C. Klyczynski [D., Chicago], declared it was supported by tavern keepers as well as the Illinois Anti-Saloon league. There was little debate.

HOUSE MEMBER DIES ON FLOOR IN VIOLENT DEBATE

BY WILLARD EDWARDS.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., June 4.—A long standing, bitter feud in the house, in which the issue of anti-Semitism was paramount, came to a tragic climax today.

Representative Edelstein.

Representative M. Michael Edelstein, New York Democrat, fell dead after he had made a fiery reply on the floor to a charge by Representative John E. Rankin, Mississippi Democrat, that "Wall street and a little group of our international Jewish brethren still are attempting to plunge us into the European war, unprepared."

Edelstein became ill while talking in the chamber and staggered to the speaker's lobby, where he fell to the floor. He was dead when examined by the house physician, Dr. George W. Calver. The cause of death was diagnosed as coronary thrombosis.

Jews Called Interventionists.

For several months, speakers in the house have been denouncing and defending American Jews, the attackers characterizing them as interventionists who wish to put this nation into the war, and the defenders vigorously proclaiming the patriotism of American Jewry, asserting it seeks only the best interests of the United States.

The house immediately adjourned as a token of respect to Edelstein after several speakers had lauded him.

Rankin, whose speech led to Edelstein's reply, sat silent, one hand shielding his face. Later he told reporters his remarks "had no reference whatever" to Edelstein. "I regret extremely his passing," the Mississippian said. "He was a good man, a good citizen, and a worthy representative of his district."

Rankin Demands Floor.

The house was conducting business in routine fashion when Rankin demanded the floor.

"Mr. Speaker," he said, "Wall street and a little group of our international Jewish brethren still are attempting to harass the President of the United States and the congress into plunging us into the European war, unprepared; and at the same time the communistic element thruout the country is fomenting strikes, harassing industry and slowing down our defense program.

"These international bankers are so afraid this peace movement now going on in England, this peace movement now going on behind the lines, might take root and this catastrophe be brought to a close before they can get us into it, that on yesterday they held a rally in Wall street and Wall street bankers made a plea to that effect.

"If Great Britain can get terms of peace that will leave her empire and her navy intact, we ought not to stand in her way. We ought to let the world know now, we ought to let the British people know now, that we are not going to plunge into this war and send an army to fight on European soil."

There was applause and Edelstein jumped to his feet, demanding to be heard. He walked to the well.

"Mr. Speaker," he said in a voice choked with emotion, "Hitler started out by speaking about 'Jewish brethren.' It is becoming the play and the work of those people who want to 'demagog' to speak about 'Jewish brethren' and 'international bankers.'

"The last speaker talking about international bankers coupled them with our Jewish brethren. The fact of the matter is that the number of Jewish bankers in the United States is infinitesimal.

"It is also a fact that the meeting which took place yesterday on the steps of the subtreasury was controled entirely by persons other than Jewish bankers.

[The meeting referred to was a rally held on the steps of the subtreasury building in New York City under the auspices of Fight for Freedom, Inc., an interventionist organization, at which 3,000 persons cheered four speakers who urged immediate entry of the United States into the war.]

"I deplore the idea that any time anything happens, whether it be for a war policy or against a war policy, that men in this house and outside this house attempt to use the Jews as their scapegoat. I say it is unfair and I say it is un-American."

Speaker Sam Rayburn, obviously perturbed both by Rankin's speech and by Edelstein's reply, rapped the gavel sharply. The time of the gentleman from New York, he barked, had expired. But Edelstein went on:

"As a member of this house, I deplore such allegations because we are living in a democracy. All men are created equal, regardless of race, creed or color; and whether a man be a Jew or Gentile, he may think what he deems fit."

The applause which greeted Edelstein was long and hearty. The New York congressman walked up the aisle, then suddenly swayed. He was helped from the chamber, but collapsed outside the door. Death, the house physician said, followed almost immediately.

BELIEVE OIL AND GAS RATIONING IN EASTERN CANADA IS IMMINENT

TORONTO, Ont., June 4 (AP).—Eastern Canada faces imminent rationing of oil and gasoline, J. L. Stewart of Toronto, deputy oil controller, said in a statement today.

An oil and gasoline shortage in eastern Canada was ascribed to the fact that 50 of the 250 tanker fleet of the United States have been loaned to Britain.

"When I talk of rationing, I naturally speak generally, but at this stage I am not prepared to go into details," said Stewart when asked how rationing measures would affect private homes using fuel oil for heat, and automobiles.

G. R. Cottrelle, oil controller, is in Washington, D. C., discussing the oil and gasoline problem with the United States shipping board.

GERMANS BOMB FIVE TOWNS IN WEST MIDLANDS

LONDON, June 5 [Thursday] (AP).—German planes scattered bombs over five towns and country districts of the west Midlands early today. Some property was destroyed and there were a few casualties, but incendiary fires which started were speedily extinguished. The raiders also were reported over the northwest, east Anglia, and the northeast, but no bombs were dropped in London for the 24th night in a row. The German raid followed a heavy British attack on Boulogne, France, across the channel.

6 ARMY PILOTS TAKE LOCKPORT GLIDER COURSE

Six army air corps pilots are taking a three week course in flying gliders and soaring planes at the Frankfort-Lewis School of Soaring at Lockport, it was disclosed here yesterday. This special training is being given them as part of the air corps' program of investigating possibilities for using large troop and supply-carrying gliders in the American army.

The officers have been receiving primary instruction in glider flight since Sunday but the war department refused to release the story until yesterday when it was learned that another group of six army flyers is training at an Elmira, N. Y. gliding school. Those at Lockport wore no uniforms during the first three days of their schooling.

Major Heads Group.

Ranking officer in the group is Maj. John K. Gerhart, operations officer at Wright field, Dayton, O., the air corps' experimental center. With him are Lieuts. Bruce D. Price, also from Wright; Donald O. Dodd and F. H. Highley from Duncan Field, Tex.; and Thomas F. Collins and Richard B. Dixon from McClellan field, California.

"We are to take a course that involves 30 hours of flying for each of us," Maj. Gerhart said. "We will investigate automobile and winch towing launching methods, thermal soaring, and aircraft towing. We are to wind up with cross country soaring. Each man puts in at least two hours a day on the course."

Army Heeds Crete Lesson.

Observers here pointed out that glider training for American army officers follows the German army demonstration of the practicability of gliders in its successful assault on the Island of Crete, and in a smaller way, in the Polish, Belgium, and French campaigns. The United States army, it was recalled, has asked a number of airplane manufacturers to bid on the construction of a quantity of troop-carrying gliders capable of being towed by large military transports.

By last evening each of the six officers flying at Lockport had accumulated three hours in the air, Chief Instructor John Wilson reported. Each has been released solo for winch tows and Maj. Gerhart has made the first soaring flight, managing to remain aloft 10 minutes 40 seconds when he "hooked" a weak rising column of air near the field.

Divorced

MRS. MORTON DOWNEY.

Bridgeport, Conn., June 4 (AP). — Morton Downey, the silver voiced tenor who introduced a song called "I'll Always Be in Love with You" in one of his early pictures, won an uncontested divorce today from screen actress Barbara Bennett. Downey charged intolerable cruelty at the hearing held in chambers before Judge Robert L. Munger. He received custody of their five children, Michael, 11, an adopted son; Sean Morton, 3; Lorelle Ann, 7; Anthony Patrick, 6, and Kevin, 3.

NAZIS SEIZE 1,496 WHO LISTEN TO FOREIGN RADIOS

BERLIN, June 4.—An indication of the number of Germans who in disobeyance of law listened to foreign broadcasts was given today when DNB, the official news agency, reported the number of persons who had been arrested on such a charge.

Between April, 1940, and March, 1941, DNB declared, 1,496 persons were arrested and 1,231 of them were convicted. Twenty-six persons received jail sentences up to four months and fines were imposed upon 1,200.

One man was sentenced to death. He, however, not only listened to foreign broadcasts but distributed the reports he heard on mimeographed sheets.

Broadcast Bismarck Dead.

New York, June 4 (AP).—The British sought tonight, by announcing a few names of survivors from the destroyed battleship Bismarck, to entice the German public into listening to foreign broadcasts from the list of about 100 saved, the radio is broadcasting 15 names a day in German language announcements from London. Such broadcasts are beamed to the reich on the theory that Germans will be willing to violate the law to learn what happened to their sons at war.

REVEALS BOMBS' BIG DAMAGE TO LONDON HOMES

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, June 4.—More than twice as much damage has been done to private houses in London as to dwellings in the rest of the country combined, Ernest Brown, minister of health, declared in London today after a tour of the country's bombed areas.

He said more than 80 per cent of the repairable houses already had been made wind and watertight. Thirty-two thousand houses were repaired in London last week, and 40,000 in the provinces.

How London homes have suffered from bombs was indicated by Brown's figures on certain boroughs. They follow:

First, of 56,000, 17,573 damaged, 2,573 beyond repair; second, of 49,000, 22,423 damaged, 3,423 beyond repair; third, 2,800 of 24,000 houses destroyed; fourth, of 16,500, 13,049 damaged, 375 beyond fixing.

DAKAR DEFENDER ARRIVES IN VICHY TO JOIN PARLEYS

Hear Hitler Plans League of Europe and Africa.

VICHY, France, June 4.—Pierre Boisson, the "defender of Dakar," arrived in Vichy tonight presumably to join in conferences of high import to the defense of the French empire. Gen. Maxime Weygand, generalissimo of North Africa, is still here.

Pierre Boisson.

It was Boisson, governor general of French West Africa, who declared, "France has confided Dakar to me. I will defend it to the end," when "Free French" forces of Gen. Charles De Gaulle, supported by British warships, appeared before the port last year and demanded its surrender. For his successful defense Boisson won a personal citation from Chief of State Petain.

Boisson's arrival was as unexpected as was that of Gen. Weygand by plane last Monday. The visit of the two important personages from Africa coincided with a steady decline in relations with Britain.

A Europe-Africa League.

Increasingly persistent reports in diplomatic circles in Vichy said Adolf Hitler is planning a European-African league of nations as his next phase of the war.

The authoritative French news agency, Telemondial, said France "can play an important rôle in this organization, because of the African situation."

Neutral diplomatic circles asserted that any proposed economic and diplomatic organization of a German dominated Europe and its African appendages would involve completion of the conquest of Africa by the axis.

In this connection it was recalled that the official French information office issued a statement on May 20 declaring it was time for France to reconquer her African territories lost to the "Free French" of Gen. De Gaulle.

Organization of an "Eurafrican autarchy" excluding Great Britain was reported planned as a result of Monday's Brenner pass meeting of Hitler and Premier Mussolini.

A "Self-Sufficient" Europe.

"Eurafrican autarchy [self-sufficiency] does not necessarily mean isolation of the two continents, since intercontinental exchanges will be useful for every one. For the moment, however, Europe must be self-sufficient herself," the Telemondial agency said.

BRITISH COMPARE CLOTHES RATIONS WITH GERMANY'S

Find They Have Edge in Overcoats.

BY LARRY RUE.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, June 4.—The British continued today to compare their clothes rationing system with that of the Germans.

An official in the economic ministry, discovering one encouraging factor in the situation for the British, said "when it comes to protective outer garments, we are better off than the Germans."

He acknowledged, however, that the Germans get more underwear and hosiery than the British. But, he insisted, "it is of poorer quality."

Speaking of Overcoats.

Of overcoats, the official declared "an Englishman must sacrifice 29.1 per cent of the coupons set aside for clothes, while a German gives up from 37.3 to 80 per cent, according to the quality of the garment."

[Clothes rationing was instituted in Great Britain only last Sunday. Germany, however, introduced it as soon as the war started in September, 1939. France began clothes rationing early this spring. Switzerland likewise limits such purchases.]

The following items of a man's wardrobe were found to represent these percentages of the total allowed in Britain and Germany:

Item.	British percent.	German percent.
3 piece suit	47.3	55.3
Woolen shirt	14.5	16.
Shirts of other mater'ls	9.1	9.3
Vest	7.3	4.7
Socks	5.5	2.7 to 4.

Figures on Women's Clothes.

Item.	British percent.	German percent.
Overcoat	25.5	26.7 to 50.
Dress	20.	15.3 to 28.
Lingerie	7.3	4.7 to 9.3
Stockings	3.6	2.7

Reports that London shops would get a six months' supply of rationed goods such as lipsticks and razor blades today resulted in long lines of men and women at many stores. In most cases the shops limited their sales to one lipstick or one jar of cream or three razor blades to each customer.

With introduction of rationing, the courts are imposing heavy sentences on clothes stealers. At one London court three men charged with receiving 15 rolls of cloth believed to have been stolen were fined 80 pounds [about $320] each.

N. Y. REDS ADMIT RUINING RECORDS TO THWART QUIZ

New York, June 4 [Special].—The communist party in New York state, on orders of its national committee, has destroyed all its membership and dues payment records to foil national and state investigators, the state legislative committee investigating subversive activities in the New York schools was told today by four party officials who appeared as witnesses.

The witnesses were Israel Amter, state chairman; David Leeds, treasurer of the state organization; Peter V. Cacchione, Brooklyn party chairman, and Paul Crosbie, chairman of Queens county.

Amter said there are about 1,000 branches [basic units] and 40 to 50 sections [the next larger units] of the communist party in the state, with a membership of 25,000. The last time the party ran candidates in an election it polled 106,000 votes in the state.

Amster disclosed that the gross income of the party had risen from about $60,000 in 1932 to between $400,000 and $500,000 in 1940. The net, however, for that year, he said, was $140,000.

EGYPT BREAKS WITH SYRIA AS CABINET FALLS

Cairo Cuts All Trade and Other Relations.

The dispatch added that it was believed 400 so-called wounded men who recently landed at Beirut in Lebanon from a hospital ship are members of a Nazi tank detachment which now has taken control of French armored cars and tanks which have been idle for many months.

[A Turkish radio broadcast said the Germans were believed to have accumulated one division [up to 15,000 men] in Syria already.]

Disguised as Refugees.

Three times weekly the Taurus express unloads at Syrian depots batches of about 50 Nazis who have crossed Turkey with false Balkan passports, the Reuters agency said it was informed. These forces are disguised as Jewish refugees.

Under cover of darkness other Germans who have commandeered small ships and fishing vessels slip in to shore, it was said. Altho most of the Germans arriving in Syria disappear into the interior immediately, it was said three of the leading hotels at Beirut have been reserved for German use only.

Senegalese [French colonial] troops were reported manning the French side of the border opposite Palestine. They are mostly pro-British and the French have been forced to increase the number of pro-Vichy officers to the proportions of 10 officers to 100 men, the dispatch said.

AXIS SHIP BLOWN UP; PIECES DOWN BRITISH BOMBER

Damage Other Craft in Convoy.

CAIRO, Egypt, June 4 (AP).—British bombers made a "highly successful" attack on an axis convoy off Tunisia yesterday, blowing up one 8,000 ton ship, the royal air force's middle east command announced tonight.

The convoy was spotted by American made Maryland reconnaissance craft, the name the British apply to the Martin.

A communique said: "One ship of about 8,000 tons blew up with such tremendous force that flying débris hit and damaged other ships in the convoy.

"Unfortunately, débris also struck one of our bombers, which crashed into the sea.

"Direct hits also were registered on another ship in the convoy, of about 5,000 tons, and it was left ablaze, with volumes of smoke pouring from amidship. Other vessels were damaged."

In Ethiopia troops led by British officers have captured the village of Debarech for the third time after bitter fighting, military headquarters announced.

Nazis Sink Transport at Tobruk.

BERLIN, June 4 (AP).—Germany's high command today said a transport had been sunk at Tobruk, Libya, where a British garrison is besieged, and German sources said two merchantmen headed for that port also were hit by air bombs.

Wreckage of the 3,471 ton British steamer Helka, former Dutch vessel, was said to have washed ashore at Sollum, Egypt.

A German plane was credited with having set fire to a British transport en route to Alexandria, Egypt, and Germans said their bombers also made another "successful" raid on Malta.

JUNE 15 RALLY TO PAY TRIBUTE TO AMERICANISM

Americanism day will be observed Sunday, June 15, in Soldiers' field, with Gov. Green, Mayor Kelly, Father Flanagan of Boys' Town, Gladys Swarthout, opera singer, and other prominent persons appearing in tribute to the United States of America.

The event is sponsored by the Chicago Flat Janitors' union and the School, Municipal Janitors' and Employes' union, AFL, and was suggested by William L. McFetridge, president of the Building Service Employes' International union.

Dean William F. Clarke, president of the Non-Sectarian League for Americanism, and Victor A. Olander, secretary-treasurer of the Illinois Federation of Labor, also will appear, as will stars of stage, screen, and radio, the Boys' Town band, Legion and ROTC bands, and professional animal, aerial, and vaudeville acts. Net proceeds will go to charity.

BRITISH LIBEL FRENCH LINER FOR OLD DEBT

New York, June 4 [Special].—The Due d'Aumale of the French Line's New York-Martinique service, which was due to sail from here today with a cargo of foodstuffs and supplies reported to be badly needed in Martinique, was held up for an indefinite period, line officials said, because of a libel action against the French Line brought by British officials.

Henri Morin de Linclays, director of the French Line here, said that the action was not an individual libel against the Duc d'Aumale, but an extension of a libel action against the French Line for $1,250,000, which the British claim still is due to shipyards for the construction of six cargo ships built about 1929.

The United States government has not placed the Duc d'Aumale in protective custody, as it has the other five French vessels in port, including the giant liner Normandie. No coast guardsmen have been placed on board the ship, which is berthed in the Hudson opposite the Normandie.

F. D. R.-WINANT PARLEYS SHAPE VITAL DECISIONS

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., June 4.—Decisions of the greatest moment on the participation of the United States in the wars raging in Europe and Asia are awaiting conclusion of conferences between President Roosevelt and John G. Winant, American ambassador to Great Britain.

Whether the United States is to go into the war as a full fledged belligerent is a question the decision of which hinges upon the President's reaction to the information and the views of the British government brought to Washington by Winant. The information and the views are known to be of a sensational character.

Other events also have a bearing upon the development of the President's program for taking the country into an undeclared war for the ostensible purpose of defending the United States from attack by Germany, Italy, and Japan.

Course Outlined in Address.

Mr. Roosevelt in his radio address to the world outlined a course of action which includes seizure by American armed forces of the Portuguese Azores and Cape Verde Islands and French Dakar on the western bulge of Africa, if necessary to forestall occupation of these outposts by the Nazis. Such occupation by Germany of these strategic points Mr. Roosevelt suggested he would regard as an attack upon the United States.

Dispatches from London indicate Adolf Hitler has beaten Mr. Roosevelt to the draw. According to this information, the Nazis already have established a submarine base at Dakar and are blockading the Cape Verde islands. It is evident an American expeditionary force, such as Mr. Roosevelt contemplates, would meet with resistance in any effort to seize these territories across the Atlantic. The French forces at Dakar defeated the attempt of the British and Free French forces to take that stronghold several months ago.

Hull Calls Report Grave.

Secretary of State Cordell Hull confirmed the reports that Ambassador Winant had brought sensational information. He said that the ambassador had returned with a grave report on the dangers to the United States presented by the present world situation. He said he had had one conference so far with Winant, going over foreign policy generally as it relates to the international naval and military situation and the character of the international danger to the United States.

Hull declined to reveal the nature of Winant's report. Asked whether the ambassador had brought a request from Prime Minister Winston Churchill of Great Britain for United States entry into the war, the secretary said Winant had submitted no such proposition to him. It is understood, however, that Winant painted the plight of the British in such black colors as to suggest they are doomed to defeat unless the United States sends its armed forces into action at once to save them.

Fear of Danger Explained.

Hull's reference to the danger to the United States was based on the consideration that the British are falling back before the advance of the Nazis in the Mediterranean, are unsuccessfully endeavoring to stem the destruction of their shipping in the Atlantic, and altogether are facing the loss of the war. The defeat of Great Britain would expose the United States to the danger of attack by the Germans, according to Hull's thesis.

According to Winant's report, the British are now more fearful of a successful invasion of the British Isles by Hitler's air forces than at any time since the beginning of the war. The successful German occupation of Crete by an air borne army is regarded as an ominous dress rehearsal for an invasion of Britain from the air.

The President's conference with Winant scheduled for today was postponed until tomorrow to enable the ambassador to go to New York on an undisclosed errand. Mr. Roosevelt turned to consideration of the situation in the far east in conferences with Associate Justice Frank Murphy of the Supreme court, former Philippines high commissioner, and Dr. E. N. Van Kleffens, Netherlands foreign minister who is en route to London from the Dutch East Indies.

JIMMY'S GOT 'EM AND HE CAN KEEP 'EM, NAVY RULES

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., June 4.—Jimmy not only has them but he can keep them, the navy department ruled today in replying to criticism by Representative Robert W. Kean [R., N. J.], of the medal bespangled chest of Capt. James Roosevelt of the marine corps, eldest son of the President.

Jimmy has three medals—the rank of commander of the National Order of the Southern Cross of Brazil, the Order of Military Merit, first class, of the Dominican Republic, and the Order of the Crown of Belgium.

Congress in 1937 voted Jimmy an exemption from the constitutional bar against foreign decorations so that he could wear his Brazilian medal. In 1939 he received similar exemption for the other medals.

OPPONENTS WIN FIGHT TO REVISE DICTATOR BILL

Southern Democrats Join in Denouncing Terms.

BY CHESLY MANLY.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., June 4.—Rising opposition in both houses of congress made it apparent today that the Roosevelt administration's dictatorial property seizure bill will have to be modified drastically before it can pass.

The new opposition came largely from the war-minded southern Democrats, who were inclined at first to support the proposed legislation because of the sugar coating with which it was presented to congress as a measure intended to break strikes.

Altho many southern Democrats had advocated government seizure and operation of munitions plants if necessary to put an end to strikes, their innate distrust of New Deal purposes asserted itself after further study of the bill's breath-taking provisions.

Denounced by Interventionist.

Representative Eugene E. Cox [D., Ga.], who controls the house rules committee and yields not even to the octogenarian Senator Carter Glass [D., Va.] as a war interventionist, was applauded by both Republican and Democratic members of the house today when he denounced the dictatorship bill.

"I would like to say to my colleagues that if they haven't read the bill they should do so, and weep over what will be done to their country," Cox said. "It presupposes that the people have neither the capacity nor the right to rule themselves. It is the most astounding bill for dictatorial powers that has arisen since the signing of the declaration of independence. If you pass this bill you give the final kiss of death to free government in America."

Demands Judiciary Review.

Other southern Democrats who described the property seizure bill as "far too drastic" included Senator Tom Connally of Texas and Senator Harry F. Byrd of Virginia, both advocates of a firm government policy to put an end to strikes in armaments industries. Senator Byrd suggested compulsory arbitration of industrial disputes as an effective method of putting a stop to strikes. Senator Connally demanded that the bill be referred to the judiciary committee after the military affairs committee is thru with it.

Senator Robert R. Reynolds [D., N. C.], chairman of the senate military affairs committee, introduced the bill at the request of the war department, but refused to commit himself to support it. Representative Andrew J. May [D., Ky.], chairman of the house military affairs committee, did likewise.

"Dictatorship," Says Clark.

Typical of the comment by noninterventionists was that of Senator Bennett Champ Clark [D., Mo.], who described the bill as "dictatorship, raw and unashamed."

The surge of opposition in both houses of congress brought offers of concessions from administration leaders. Privately they said the bill will be "toned down" in committee and advised their colleagues not to worry about it.

Among the concessions under discussion by administration leaders are amendments to: [1] limit operation of the act to periods of national emergency declared by congress; [2] require the restoration of requisitioned property to its owners after the emergency; [3] limit the kind of property that may be seized to plants and facilities readily adaptable to national defense purposes; [4] prescribe standards for the payment of just compensation.

COLLECT 2 MILLIONS IN U. S. FOR RELIEF FUNDS IN GERMANY

Washington, D. C., June 4 (AP).—The state department disclosed today that in the first 20 months of the European war almost 2 million dollars was raised in the United States for relief in Germany or for the benefit of German soldiers held as prisoners of war.

German relief organizations registered with Secretary of State Cordell Hull reported they had collected $1,913,000 from September, 1939, to April 30, this year. Of that total, $1,513,000 has been spent for relief purposes and a balance of $96,000 remains on hand.

The organizations are among 332 war aid organizations required under neutrality act provisions to register with the state department before they may solicit and collect contributions for relief in belligerent countries.

The largest organization to report was Fortra, Inc., New York City, which reported $1,144,798 collected, $927,880 actually spent in Germany and Poland, and $82,206 on hand.

50 YOUTHS OF RAF IN CALIFORNIA TO TRAIN AS FLYERS

Los Angeles, Cal., June 4 (AP).—Fifty English schoolboys, the advance guard of 7,000 rayol air force cadets who soon will be training in six United States air schools, arrived today and wanted to know how soon they could see some of the movie stars.

Greeting the youths, whose ages range from 17 to 23, were Capt. L. J. Douglas-Martin of the British Air commission at Washington, and Squadron Leaders T. G. Whitlock and R. S. Mills. They will begin training at once at the Polaris Flight academy, Glendale, under supervision of Maj. C. C. Mosley, whose Cal-Aero school is training flyers for the United States army air corps.

The English youths will get in 150 hours of combat flying on Vultee and North American training planes, then return to England to receive 40 hours of instruction in gunnery before being assigned to RAF squadrons.

Niagara Diversion Pact Approved by Committee

Washington, D. C., June 4 (AP).—The senate foreign relations committee approved unanimously today a new treaty with Canada permitting an additional diversion of water for power purposes from the Niagara river above the falls. Under the agreement, which will be effective only until Oct. 1, 1942, the United States could divert an additional 5,000 cubic feet a second, and Canada, an additional 3,000 cubic feet a second.

AMERICA FIRST WARNS OF DEATH IN F. D. R.'S PATROL

Norman E. Saunders, member of the America First committee speakers' bureau, charged last night that "the blood of any American youth lost on so-called neutrality patrols will be a direct result of broken promises to the parents of America." He spoke at a meeting of the Near North Side chapter at 33 East Oak street.

"If the American people suffer a military defeat," said Saunders, "that defeat will be chargeable to the fact that the President defended foreign investments of banking interests in preference to the physical welfare of the American people."

Two meetings have been scheduled by the America First committee for the Chicago area tonight. The Rev. John A. O'Brien, professor of law at Notre Dame university, will speak in Gary church, Gary, Ind., at 8 o'clock. Dr. Howard S. Swann, University of Chicago psychologist, will speak at the Park Ridge University club in the Pickwick building, Park Ridge at the same hour.

CCC CAMP TO BE MOVED.

Erie, Ill., June 4 [Special].—The Mount Carroll CCC camp will be moved this month to the Mervin Waite farm, east of Erie. About 200 Negroes will be stationed at the camp, which is to supply labor to improve the six drainage districts within 20 miles of Erie. Work will be done in Whiteside, Rock Island, and Henry counties.

OUTLAWED BUND AUXILIARY GIVES UP JERSEY CAMP

Trenton, N. J., June 4 (AP).—Its charter outlawed by the legislature, the American-German bund auxiliary disclosed today thru counsel that it had turned over its Camp Nordland at Andover, N. J., to 400 mortgagees and surrendered its charter.

Wilbur V. Keegan said the auxiliary informed him it surrendered the charter yesterday and filed a deed of sale to the mortgagees Monday.

This announcement came on the heels of passage last night by the legislature of a law repealing the auxiliary's charter and incorporation.

Camp Nordland was raided Memorial day by deputies led by Sheriff Denton J. Quick on a warrant charging the bund auxiliary was operating a nuisance.

DEFENSE MASKS SOCIALIST COUP, DECLARES TAFT

Senator Warns Against Collectivist Rule.

The Roosevelt administration is moving toward creation of a socialistic system in the United States under the guise of defense measures, it was charged yesterday by Senator Robert A. Taft [R., O.], a leader among senate anti-interventionists. Taft visited Chicago on a business trip.

"The administration is lumping everything these days under the general heading of defense," Taft said. "We need a strong defense. We don't need—and the American people don't want—a collectivist system or pure socialism. Americans don't want to go to war to beat a totalitarian system in Europe if they're going to get socialism here when it's all over."

Senator Taft cited the bill presented by the war department to congress last week which would give the President, during any national emergency proclaimed by him, power to commandeer property of all kinds.

Terms of Bill Called Vague.

"This confiscation bill is so vague that it doesn't state the necessity for giving the President these powers," Taft said. "The people don't know what he wants them for, and the bill sets no time limits. It's a step toward a socialistic setup."

Taft said other recent administration acts all have followed this line. He enumerated the far reaching powers of the Reconstruction Finance corporation to enter into every class of industry and business, bills for governmental control of railroads and public utilities, the plan of Interior Secretary Ickes to control oil, and the appointment of Leon Henderson to a key post in the armament program.

"Henderson believes in price fixing and wage fixing to stall inflation," he said. "I, too, think that prices should not be allowed to soar.

Appeals Program Urged.

"But I decry the creation of an office for him, an office established by the President without confirmation of the senate. Steps to prevent inflation should be taken not by a single man but under an organized system, with appeals boards and methods by which those who think they have a right to object may present their arguments."

Taft said he did not believe any one's mind was changed by President Roosevelt's speech in which an unlimited national emergency was proclaimed.

"The President certainly showed his desire to get into the war, but didn't come out and say so," the senator said.

Disclosure that an American coast guard cutter witnessed the battle between the British battle cruiser Hood and the German battleship Bismarck in the zone outlined as a combat area by Germany, brought new evidence yesterday that the American neutrality patrol is operating outside previously designated limits. President Roosevelt himself has admitted that the patrol is operating 1,500 miles off Chesapeake bay (black line at left). Admiral Harold R. Stark said in a recent speech that American ships were going as far out as 3,000 miles (black line at right), then revised this estimate to 2,000 miles (black line in center). Crosses show approximate area where the Hood was sunk, and where four British ships were reported torpedoed 700 miles from the American continent.

REPORT U-BOATS RAID SHIPS 700 MI. OFF AMERICA

New York, June 4 (AP).—Maritime sources, disclosing the recent torpedoing of eight British ships totaling 54,268 tons, revealed today that axis submarines had extended their work of destruction two-thirds of the way across the Atlantic to within 700 miles of the American continent.

They said four British ships were torpedoed in one day in positions roughly 700 miles east of Labrador and about 350 miles south of the tip of Greenland, an area presumably covered by the United States neutrality patrol.

This would place the axis submarines 1,400 miles west of Ireland, indicating powerful, long range vessels were in use.

The eight ships reported torpedoed were the San Felix, Rothermere, British Security, Darlington Court, Ramillies, Starcross, Silveryew, and Clan MacDougall.

This move would follow American military custom of the army transport service operating as a "booking and arrangements" agency and the navy taking over details of manning and operating ships.

LATIN AMERICA HIT

Washington, D. C., June 4 [Special]. —Maintenance of current shipping service between the United States and Latin American ports, threatened by the continued requisitioning of ships for the military services, was urged today in cables received here from the Inter-American Business conference at Montevideo, Uruguay.

One cable was made public by the United States Chamber of Commerce, which announced that identical ones had been dispatched to President Roosevelt and Admiral Emory S. Land, chairman of the maritime commission.

The message said that the "interdependence of the countries of the western hemisphere and the increasing interest in and support of hemispheric solidarity testify to the importance of adequate shipping facilities."

Jap Bomber Falls Amid 50 Planes; Blast Rips Many

HONGKONG, June 5 [Thursday] (AP).—The Chinese Central news agency today reported a Japanese bomber taking off Friday from Sinsiang, in northern Honan province, crashed amid 50 planes on the ground, destroying most of them when the bombs exploded.

Hotel Built for 1893 Fair Damaged by Fire

The long unoccupied Calumet hotel, originally built for the World's Columbian exposition of 1893, was swept by fire early today. The building, a three story frame structure, is at 1237-43 East 75th street, and now houses only the Phillips Printing company plant. Half of the hotel was torn down some years ago, and the last noncommercial tenant moved out about two years ago. A 3-11 alarm was turned in for fear the blaze would spread to business houses across the street.

ASK DISBARMENT OF ATTORNEY FOR 'SCANDALOUS' FEE

Bar Committee Reports to Supreme Court.

The Chicago Bar association recommended yesterday that the state Supreme court disbar Isaac K. Goodman, Chicago attorney, after hearing charges that he obtained more than $26,000 in fees for the foreclosure of an $18,982 mortgage, and then sought an additional $22,000 from his client.

The board of managers and committee on grievances of the bar association, acting as commissioners of the Supreme court, declared "that the extortion, the fraud, and the continued attempts at further extortion practiced by the respondent on a trusting client over 70 years of age are so scandalous as to shock the conscience."

Tells of Hiring Lawyer.

The complainant against Goodman, Francis S. Kosmerl, told the bar association that the case started with his purchase of a $50,000 mortgage. Litigation surrounding the foreclosure was taken into the Circuit court, Kosmerl said, and in May, 1934, it was decided that only $18,692 was due him. At this time, evidence showed, Kosmerl retained Goodman to collect the money.

Kosmerl said that despite the Circuit court order Goodman led him to believe that the amount involved in the litigation was still $50,000. Goodman told him, Kosmerl charged, that he needed large amounts of money to combat corruption in the case.

In December, 1938, after Goodman made demand for an additional payment of $22,500, Kosmerl said he examined his records and discovered that he had already given the attorney more than $26,000. Goodman held in his answer that more than $18,982 was involved as the defendants in the action had paid $150,000 for the land in question.

Simple Issues Involved.

The lawyer said that the action took four and one-half years, that he put in 438 hours in court and 5,000 hours in office work. The commissioners held that the time sheets show padding and that the issues involved were simple and did not necessitate the time claimed.

DUTY WINS OVER LOVE AS MOTHER TURNS IN A KILLER

A mother, forced to choose between her duty as a citizen and her family affections, went to the police yesterday and furnished information that brought about the arrest of her wayward son as a murderer. The son, Peter Ziemba, 21 years old, has confessed his part in the killing of a watchman on Feb. 6.

"To turn my boy over to the police was terrible," said Mrs. Mary Ziemba, 59, of 1938 North California avenue. "But I could see no other way out."

Ziemba named Carl Helvey, 23, of 2825 North Talman avenue, as his accomplice. Helvey also confessed the killing.

The slain watchman was Bruno Biedrzycki, 57, of 3443 Pierce avenue. He was beaten to death when he discovered Ziemba and Helvey burglarizing the plant of the Herman H. Hettler Lumber company at 2601 Elston avenue. Ziemba's father, Frank, is a fireman employed at the same plant.

Ziemba's disclosure of his crime was made, police asserted, while he was quarreling with his father, who had refused to help him buy a car. His mother heard him say to his father, "I'll take care of you like I took care of the watchman."

EAST AND WEST TRAIL IN BUYING OF ARMS BONDS

Central States Ahead of Them, Survey Shows.

BY JOHN FISHER.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., June 4.—The administration's war financing campaign is bogging down because the pro-interventionist eastern and western seaboards are not backing their beliefs with cold cash. This was indicated by a survey of preliminary figures on the campaign today.

The southern states, also regarded as favoring war, are leading the way in purchasing bonds and stamps, and even the non-interventionist middle west is ahead of the east and west on a per capita basis.

Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau Jr., will take to the air tomorrow night to give a report of the armaments financing campaign, which began May 1. The sales are admittedly far below requirements.

Falls Behind Estimates.

The latest overall figure available on sales was $350,661,000 for the first 24 days of May, altho the treasury, according to unofficial estimates, had hoped for 400 millions monthly from the sale of bonds and stamps and for an even larger sum during the first month. Despite advertising, radio and movie appeals, the treasury was forced to raise 600 millions additional during the month by selling regular treasury bonds to banks and other large subscribers.

The treasury, on orders from Morgenthau, has withheld the figures breaking down by regions the bond and stamp purchases to date. But a representative report on the first 15 days progress was obtained from sales in 16,000 postoffices thruout the nation.

This survey shows that the east north central states of Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Ohio, and Wisconsin far surpassed in total subscribed any section of the country except the middle Atlantic states of New York, Pennsylvania, and New Jersey, and on a per capita basis the east north central states surpassed all but the southern states.

Survey Thru Postoffices.

	Bonds.	Stamps.
New England states [Conn., Me., Mass., N. H., R. I., Vt.]	$ 2,333,925	$213,698
Middle Atlantic states [N. J., N. Y., Pa.]	6,465,906	707,319
East no. central states [Ill., Ind., Mich., Ohio, Wisconsin.]	5,585,406	399,623
West no. cent. states [Iowa, Kas., Minn., Mo., Neb., No. and So. Dakota.]	3,389,144	148,745
South Atlantic states [Del., D. C., Fla., Ga., Md., No. and So. Carolina, Va., West Virginia.]	2,545,794	225,379
East so. central states Alabama, Ky., Miss., Tennessee.]	1,170,244	70,591
West so. cent. states [Ark., La., Okla., Texas.]	2,829,894	153,273
Mountain states [Ariz., Colo., Idaho, Mont., Nev., N. M., Utah, Wyoming.]	1,172,544	85,751
Pacific states [Cal., Ore., Wash.]	2,639,819	240,809
Totals	$28,141,676	$2,245,098

In per capita sales of both bonds and stamps by sections the following figures are shown for the same period:

New England states	$3.31
Middle Atlantic states	3.85
East North Central states	4.44
West north central states	3.82
South Atlantic staes	6.42
East south central states	8.63
West south central states	4.81
Mountain states	3.29
Pacific states	3.37

The stamps are sold in denominations of 10 cents to $5, and are exchangeable for savings bonds in denominations of $25 to $1,000, at 75 per cent of face value. The full value is realized upon maturity after 10 years.

Total Sales 259 Million.

Total sales by all agencies—postoffices, banks, savings and loan associations, etc., up to May 15 were $259,379,248, of which postoffices accounted for $30,386,774, as shown.

EVANSTON CADETS GET ROTC DECORATIONS AT AWARD NIGHT DINNER

A plea to stay clear of the European war was made last night in connection with the Award night banquet of the Evanston Township High school ROTC unit in the school. Many awards were made to outstanding cadets by patriotic and civic organizations. Present were 300 cadets, their parents, and friends.

"Our country was at peace when this award was originated," said Mrs. Ray Garrett, regent of the Fort Dearborn chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, in awarding a silver saber to Cadet Sergeant S. Trevor Barker. "Today enemies are being created."

4 CIVIC LEADERS TO HEAD SURVEY OF CITY SCHOOLS

McCahey Asks for Facts on Administration.

BY THOMAS MORROW.

Four Chicago civic leaders last night accepted the invitation of James B. McCahey, president of the board of education, to head a committee which will make a survey of the expenditures and business administration of the Chicago school system.

They are Aubrey Mellinger, president; Holman D. Pettibone, first vice president, and Oscar Mayer, former president of the Association of Commerce, and Douglas Sutherland, secretary of the Civic federation.

"In order to acquaint the public with the facts concerning the schools I have invited the Chicago Association of Commerce and the Civic federation to appoint a committee headed by these men to make a survey of the business administration of the school system," McCahey said.

Will Take Six Months.

Mellinger said a technical staff would begin the survey as soon as an organization could be perfected. He estimated that the work, which will be patterned after a similar survey conducted in the city government, would take six months.

A number of the recommendations made by the city survey committee, which also was sponsored by the Association of Commerce and the Civic federation, were included in the last budget. Acceptance of the committee members put into operation the survey plan conceived by McCahey last January.

Provision was made for the survey in the 1941 school board budget and $15,000 was set aside for this purpose. McCahey said that he believed the school board finances are in better shape than at any time during the last 10 years. He held that the present survey, when completed, will substantiate this belief and bring out possible improvements in the system.

Board Debts Reduced.

Announcement of the survey committee heads followed a report in which Howard P. Savage, business manager of the board of education, asserted that board debts have been reduced more than $8,000,000 in the last eight years. He said that current unpaid bills total $1,816,145, compared with outstanding debts of more than $10,000,000 in 1933.

In his report Savage cited a 1933 interest rate of more than 6 per cent on school board tax anticipation warrants for which there were no takers. Now, he declared, the banks willingly purchase the warrants hearing interest as low as 1½ per cent.

GOV. GREEN SIGNS BILLS TO DOUBLE TAX ON LIQUORS

Springfield, Ill., June 4 [Special].—Gov. Dwight Green tonight signed the increased liquor, beer, and wine tax bills, which are expected to produce about $9,500,000 annually. The new levies were backed by the administration to permit a reduction of the sales tax to 2 cents on July 1. Previously the governor had signed the oil and cigaret bills. The series is expected to produce 46 million dollars annually. Reduction of the sales tax is expected to cut 66 millions from the present revenues.

FORMER KAISER TO BE BURIED AT DOORN MONDAY

Hitler Sends Condolences to His Family.

BY ALEX SMALL.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

BERLIN, June 4.—The body of former Kaiser Wilhelm II. of Germany tonight lay in the same bed in which he died this morning in his house of exile at Doorn, the Netherlands. He will be buried Monday at Doorn, where he fled in 1918 after the defeat of his armies by the allies. He was 82 years old.

The hands which so many times during his life helped the kaiser strike imperious military poses are folded in death. A huge cross of forget-me-nots covers the bedspread across the feet. The room is filled with the fragrance of lilacs.

Funeral to Be Simple.

As requested in his will, the funeral service will be comparatively simple. The former kaiser's body will be dressed in a field marshal's uniform. There will be representatives of the old imperial army and navy, of Germany's present leader, Adolf Hitler, and of the country's military forces.

The aged marshal, August von Mackensen, may lead the old guard delegation to the funeral if his health permits. Arthur Seyss-Inquart, the Nazi commissioner for Holland, will represent Hitler, it was said.

Hitler today telegraphed his condolences to Princess Hermine, the former emperor's widow, and to the former crown prince, Friedrich Wilhelm. The princess was at the bedside when death came to the exile. The former crown prince was in Berlin. He had returned to the German capital from Doorn last week when it appeared his father was rallying.

The Lutheran burial rite probably will be performed by the Rev. Bruno Doehring of the Berlin Protestant cathedral. The Rev. Mr. Doehring long had served as the former kaiser's spiritual counselor.

German Press Is Cautious.

Present at the deathbed, in addition to Princess Hermine, were his daughter, the duchess of Brunswick; Prince Louis Ferdinand, a grandson, and Princess Henrietta, the wife of another grandson, Prince Franz Joseph.

The immediate cause of death was an embolism of the lungs.

The German press marked the former emperor's passing by carefully worded comments on his reign and personality. The concensus of the leading Berlin evening papers was that he was a well meaning illusionist, unaware of the designing schemes of Great Britain. Peace loving by nature, the papers contended, Wilhelm made the mistake of giving Austria too much rope and thus involved his country in the world war.

His conduct of that war, the papers declared, revealed his lack of leadership and inability to take energetic action "when he could have and should have done so."

The Ex-Kaiser at His Woodpile

Wilhelm and his first wife, in 1915, when he was the German empire's world war leader.

JAPAN'S ENVOY SEES HOPE FOR PEACE WITH U. S.

New York, June 4 [Special].—Admiral Kochisaburo Nomura, Japanese ambassador to the United States, tonight expressed his firm conviction that the war must be kept from spreading to the Pacific. Admitting that Japanese-American relations are difficult at the moment, Admiral Nomura said he was confident it still would be possible to work out a peaceful solution.

A GENUINE ROMEO PROBLEM UPSETS THE GREAT GUNNS

Tonight's episode of The Great Gunns, presented on W-G-N and Mutual at 9:30 p. m., will find the Gunns deep in romantic complications a few minutes before the curtain is to go up on their first night in "Romeo and Juliet." Chris Gunn and Veronica Gunn, portrayed by Bret Morrison and Barbara Luddy, are unable to concentrate on their rôles of Romeo and Juliet because of another crisis in their married life.

As the curtain is about to rise Veronica appears to be at the point of yielding to the pleas of Van Gordon, played by Willard Waterman, to divorce Chris and elope with Gordon. Chris, on learning of this, threatens to take his own life.

Other parts in the comedy will be taken by Bob Jellison, Donna Reade, Rita Ascot, Herb Butterfield, and Forrest Lewis.

Q. Where's the best place to choose your new car?

A. ON THE ROAD!

WE'LL MATCH the "showroom value" of the Ford with anyone . . . but if you want to know how great a car this is, take one out on the road. That's where you use a car. That's where we build the Ford to be at its best!

TEST THE PERFORMANCE . . . IN ACTION. There never was another low price engine like this 90 horsepower Ford V-8. Take it out in traffic—then step out on the open road—challenge the toughest hills. Draw your own conclusions—see why no other low-priced car has even attempted to match it.

TEST THE RIDE . . . IN ACTION. Ride on the pavement, then ride the roughest road you know. You'll find the new Ford ride is the kind of ride you like. Smooth where the going's good. Soft and steady over the bumps.

TEST THE ROOM . . . IN ACTION: Measurements show this Ford greatest in its whole field in actual passenger space: A ride will show how much this means. Take the front seat, then the back. Cross your legs this way, then the other. Bigness counts and here it is!

TEST THE VALUE . . . IN ACTION. Stop with the biggest hydraulic brakes anywhere near the price. Rest your toe on the pedal of a fine-car type of semi-centrifugal clutch. Flick through the gears with the easy, silent kind of finger-tip shift that high-priced cars use.

GET THE FACTS AND YOU'LL GET A FORD!

Ford

FORD HAS THE QUALITY FEATURES

V-8 POWER—90 smooth horsepower. There never was a low price engine like this before:

NEW BEAUTY—When you look at the smooth flowing lines you see one of the few cars with really up-to-date styling this year.

A NEW RESTFUL RIDE—On the new Ford "Slow Motion Springs." A soft, quiet ride wholly new this year.

EXTRA VALUE—New ease of control with positive mechanical, fine-car type shift—extra-big hydraulic brakes—and the famous Ford semi-centrifugal clutch.

There are more than 30 Ford "Exclusives"—some of them found only on highest priced cars—and all of them found only on the Ford in its price class.

Save Our Republic

THE EMERGING TRUTH.

The British press at last is openly critical of the conduct of the war. After Norway there was a polite flareup of opposition which reflected rather than led public opinion and resulted in the removal of Mr. Chamberlain. With some exceptions, the British press glossed over the subsequent failures and defeats. After Flanders and even after Greece, the newspapers for the most part encouraged the belief that if everything wasn't just right there still had been very substantial military achievements. Precipitate retreats and hairbreadth escapes were hailed as little less than triumphs of military genius.

It is a tradition of a large section of the British press to tell the people what is thought best for them to believe and in this endeavor the truth is frequently disregarded. Britain, as President Lowell of Harvard observed long ago, is governed largely by a caste. The proprietors of newspapers are generally taken into the ruling class if they are not born to it.

The consequences are frequently pernicious. Certainly if the full truth of the comparative fighting power of the German and British armies had been disclosed to the British public at the time of the Norwegian fiasco, the fatal advance into Belgium from the Maginot line would not have been tolerated. Likewise, if the full truth about that defeat had been told the subsequent campaigns in Jugo-Slavia and Greece would never have been undertaken against odds which would have been recognized as overwhelming. It is difficult to avoid the conclusion that if the British public had been aware of the comparative weakness of its army, Crete would never have been a pigeon on a limb for Hitler.

American war mongers have tried in their turn to deceive the American public about our present capacity to make war. A very considerable section of the American press has played the same game. Fortunately there have been some newspapers and some leading citizens to remain undeceived. Thanks to strong voices in this country which could not be corrupted or intimidated, there was no ill armed, untrained American expeditionary force on the Greek mainland and in Crete to share the bitter experience of the Australians, the New Zealanders and the others who were thrown into a fight against impossible odds.

OF COURSE THERE IS SABOTAGE.

A four motor bomber plane on its initial flight at the plant of the Consolidated Aircraft corporation in San Diego took off in an erratic manner and quickly crashed, causing the death of five highly trained technicians who were testing it. Officials of the Consolidated company suspect sabotage, saying that even on a test flight a plane does not act as did the one that crashed unless its controls have been tampered with.

This is a logical conclusion, but it should not have taken the loss of five lives and a bomber worth hundreds of thousands of dollars to bring home to the country the danger of sabotage in the aircraft industry.

The CIO United Automobile Workers union has most of the California airplane plants organized, and has members in all those plants where it is not formally recognized. This union has placed in charge of its aviation activities in the west Wyndham Mortimer, who has a long and well authenticated record of activity in the communist party. Mortimer's real boss, Josef Stalin, has no wish to see American airplane production prosper. The picture could not be clearer if it were reduced to blueprints for the benefit of Madam Perkins and the other fellow travelers in Washington.

INGRATITUDE.

The refusal of the New Deal Supreme court to authorize increased diversion of Lake Michigan water to protect health in communities along the sanitary canal emphasized anew the complete ingratitude of the New Dealers for the important political support they have received from Mayor Kelly and the Democratic machine in Chicago.

Chicago was consistently short changed on the free money that was siphoned from the treasury into the pockets of the nation's municipalities. Such grants as it did receive were often rendered useless by the stupidity of the New Deal bureaucrats who insisted on dictating how they were to be spent. In the rearmament drive Chicago has again been short changed thru failure of the federal government to use this city's productive facilities and pool of trained labor to the maximum extent.

In an era where political support of the New Deal has been almost exclusively on a cash and carry basis, the local Democrats have been suckers. They make regular deliveries and haven't the courage to speak up when the New Dealers say, "Charge it."

FOUR ARMIES.

The four armies into which the troops in the continental United States are being molded are officially designated by number, but by geographical location three of them are designed to be defense armies. Any rational use of our armed forces dictates that we use the 1st, 3d, and 4th armies as the Army of the Atlantic, of the Gulf, and of the Pacific, to guard each of our seaboard areas.

That leaves the 2d army, drawn from the Mississippi valley, for the rôle of shock troops to reinforce whatever defensive army is attacked. A pardonable regional pride indicates that this is the appropriate arrangement, because the best troops in the United States have in past wars been drawn from the area between the Appalachians and the Rockies.

This was natural in the frontier days when fighting was an accepted chore of agriculture. The persisting character of the tradition, in the civil war and later, may best be explained by the fact that soldiering is an outdoor business and the west has remained for a century the home of the bulk of the nation's farm population, whose sons find nothing strange in the life in the open.

The continental European armies have long recognized that their best army material comes from peasant stock. Thanks to the democratic tradition and the free school, there are no American peasants, but American farm youths have the strength of that stock without its weaknesses. In the present generation they are, of all rural people in the world, the most conversant with machinery, an added advantage to the drill sergeants of a modern army.

MR. DE LEUW AND HIS AMENDMENTS.

Charles E. DeLeuw, a city hall pay roller who has spent a good part of his professional life as a political engineer, has appeared at Springfield as an active lobbyist for some dubious amendments to the bill authorizing the construction of toll superhighways in Cook county. This does not augur well for the toll highway plan, which now appears as the most feasible method of providing Chicago with the modern traffic ways needed to save the city from stagnation.

As first drafted the bill placed the county highway superintendent in charge of superhighway construction, with his plans subject to approval of the county board and state highway department, and of the city council where the routes lay within Chicago. One of the De Leuw amendments would set up a two-man highway authority, one member appointed by the mayor and the other by the Cook county board, for terms of five years. This would result in the mayor and county commissioners filling positions to be held for several years after their own terms of office expire.

Another De Leuw amendment has been denounced as a joker designed to prevent any effective supervision of the superhighway plan by the state highway department, thru permission to local authorities to make "minor changes" in plans after the state had approved them. Under existing court decisions, this phraseology would place little limitation on the superhighway authority in submitting one plan and then in the guise of making "minor changes" adopting an almost wholly new one. The superhighways, to be effective, must be coördinated with the state's road building program.

Both these amendments would weaken rather than strengthen the toll superhighway plan. Furthermore, Mr. De Leuw's activity in pushing them gives a hint that he hopes to get one of the posts which his amendment would create. Such an appointment, on his record, would be a bad one.

He was one of the authors of the fraudulent comprehensive superhighway plan for Chicago passed last year by the city council. Any alderman was privileged to pencil in a so-called superhighway route wherever he wanted it, if he would vote for the plan in return. There was no intention, and there are certainly no resources, to build all these superhighways. They were simply bait to get votes for the thoroly discredited Congress street real estate fraud.

Mr. De Leuw has also been the subject of questions, as yet largely unanswered, put forward by aldermen who want to know where all the traction fund money is going. The only records made public to date show that he has been on the subway pay roll for three years, at a present salary of $12,500 a year, and that in addition he runs an engineering company which has charged the city $116,710 for its services. A man being paid a $12,500 salary by the city should not have any spare time in which to operate a private business, and the payment of more than $100,000 to such a business while its head is active in the department that purchases its services is a dubious transaction, at best.

Judging Mr. De Leuw solely on his public record, the less attention the legislature pays to him and his amendments the better chance it will have of passing a workable toll superhighway act.

Editorial of the Day

[On the occasion of the death of Ex-Kaiser Wilhelm this editorial is reprinted this morning. It first appeared in The Tribune on Aug. 2, 1914, when the first world war began.]

Before establishing hell on earth the pietistic kings commend their subjects to God. Seek the Lord's sanction for the devil's work.

"And now I commend you to God," said the kaiser from his balcony to the people in the street. "Go to church and kneel before God and pray for his help for our gallant army."

Pray that a farmer dragged from a Saxon field shall be speedier with a bayonet thrust than a winemaker taken from his vines in the Aube; that a Berlin lawyer shall be steadier with the rifle than a Moscow merchant; that a machine gun manned by Heidelberg students shall not jam and that one worked by Paris carpenters shall.

Pray that a Bavarian hop grower, armed in a quarrel in which he has no heart, shall outmarch a wheat grower from Poltava; that Cossacks from the Don shall be lured into barbed wire entanglements and caught by masked guns; that an innkeeper from Salzburg shall blow the head off a baker from the Loire.

"Go to church and pray for help"—that the hell shall be hotter in innocent Ardennes than it is in equally innocent Hessen; that it shall be hotter in innocent Kovno than in equally innocent Posen.

And the pietistic czar commends his subjects to God that they may have strength of arm in a quarrel they do not understand; that they may inflict more suffering than they are required to endure and the name of Romanoff be greater than the name of Hohenzollern, that it may be greater than the name of Hapsburg, that its territories shall be wider and the territories of Hohenzollern and the territories of Hapsburg less.

The pietistic emperor of Austria commends his subjects to God, to seek divine assistance to crush the peasants of Serbia, dragged from the wheat field when it was ready for the scythe and given to the scythe themselves.

This is, we think, the last call of monarchy upon divinity when Asmodeus walks in armor. The kings worship Baal and call it God, but out of the sacrifice will come, we think, a resolution firmly taken to have no more wheat growers and growers of corn, makers of wine, miners and fishers, artisans and traders, sailors and storekeepers offered up with prayer to the Almighty in a feudal slaughter, armed against each other without hate and without cause they know, or, if they know, would give a penny which way it was determined.

This is the twilight of the kings. Western Europe of the people may be caught in this debacle, but never again. Eastern Europe of the kings will be remade and the name of God shall not give grace to a hundred square miles of broken bodies.

If divinity enters here it comes with a sword to deliver the people from the sword.

It is the twilight of kings.

MEANDERING—ALL AROUND.

To Mill Road gardens, in order to keep in step with the seasonal trend toward horticultural exhibitions. [The Waukegan road to the Lake Forest hinterland; shortly after crossing 22, turn west at Mill road marker.] This was the Albert Lasker estate, given by him to the University of Chicago. It illustrates the elaborate form of country life that men of great wealth could enjoy before the depression.

We were gazing into a swimming pool that should have been festooned with Hollywood nymphs when a Boy Scout said, "Would you like to see the topiary garden? Right thru there." We had seen the word "topiary," but forgotten its meaning until we followed the lad's finger and discovered a grove of evergreens trimmed to grow in odd, artificial shapes. "Trees by Salvador Dali," we murmured.

The flower gardens and landscaping are generally in the formal style of Versailles. While exploring them we discovered a sun dial that ranks as a first class astronomical curiosity. It's a pillar upon which 45 sun dial blades have been mounted. The markings give the approximate time for every metropolis in the world. No inscription.

The manor house [Louis XV., country style] is worth the extra fee that is charged. Furnishings true to period, mostly genuine antiques. Everything as Mr. Lasker left it, down to the supply of breakfast foods in the kitchen cabinets. Excellent modern portraits of the former squire of the manor and his daughter, Frances, in the drawing room.

The entire estate is efficiently staffed for exhibition purposes. It deserves a catalog—in fact, two catalogs, one botanical and the other in the field of the decorative arts.

Note the large, ancient French barometer over a mantel, still foretelling the weather fairly well. And the sun dial over the manor's garden portal; inscription, "Sic umbrae, sic vita."

THE AUDITORIUM'S ECHOES.

Gamboling eerily, tucked away
Far in the nooks of the mammoth pile,
Sanctified echoes the livelong day
Parade themselves in their famous file.
Music that lingers with mem'ry's dreams—
They bid for a moment of ancient sway,
Murmuring meekly among the beams,
"Please go away and let us play!"

Masterly echoes in grand array,
Of Patti, De Reszkes and Calvé—yea—
Sembrich, Caruso, and Melba's smile,
Nordica, Ruffo, Maurel and Eames,
Mingle and chorus in sad dismay,
Like the sobbing song of ethereal streams,
"Please go away and let us play!"

Chords of piano masters stay,
Violin melodies still beguile;
Jan Paderewski, Hofmann—heigh!—
Kreisler, and Elman, and Heifetz's style;
This the procession that gayly gleams;
These the echoes of them who pray,
Hazily wandering, so it seems—
"Please go away and let us play!"

Into the galleries, down the aisle,
Unto the wreckers saying nay,
Moving the final majestic mile—
"Please go away and let us play!"

Sure, It's a Thing to Be Proud Of.

My grandfather, Edward P. Feely, made that monument to Col. Mulligan, the Irish brigadier, in Calvary cemetery [May 30]. His son, William P. Feely, is 83 years old and has lived in Brookfield for 50 years. My brother, Edward P. Feely, was the only Brookfield boy killed in France in the other war.

It was my aunt in the convent, a Sister of Mercy, who phoned me, after reading your article, to inform me that "'Twas me own grandfather, sure and it was, who built that monument to Mulligan," and how well she remembers him telling of it.

Mrs. James Corrigan.

"To What Base Uses?"

While strolling about town, have you ever lowered an optic upon a strange sight in the window of the Grace Steamship Line [230 North Michigan]?

A John Rogers statue of Joseph Jefferson as Bob Acres in "The Rivals" has been plastered and painted with a patch over his eye, further embellished with a mustache, and made to serve as pirate advertisment for a West Indies cruise. "O, tempora! O, morons!"

BUCKINGHAM FOUNTAIN.

There should be music in this quiet place,
A silver song and sweet to match the spell
That emanates from yonder fountain's well.
Let there be melody—the vibrant lace
Of harp strings interwoven with the grace
That wood-winds breathe, the pagan sweep and swell
Of tones which trip to sunlight while they tell
How joyous living is in life's embrace!

There is sweet music in this place. We hear
It when, receptively, the inward ear
Will listen to the spirit's deeper words
That need no help from instrumental chords.
The fountain, playing audibly to sun,
Recites a theme of freedom just begun!

"Oomph" on a Scientific Basis.

The learned men will have us know that electromotive force is the thing that gives electricity its shocking power. They also insist that there is a law of conservation of energy. Let's conserve some energy and abbreviate electromotive force to E. M. F. [a good scientific custom]. Let's conserve some more and write it: emf. And now let's pronounce it.

Shocking, isn't it!

BE FAIR TO YOUR NOSE AND MOUTH.

We have no right to look upon either the nose or the mouth as a wastebasket. Nevertheless, too many of us regard the oral cavity as a temporary resting place for all sorts of articles—pins, hairpins, tacks, bits of thread, etc. In the days of wood lath, experts filled their mouths with nails, taking them out one at a time, as the strips were fixed in place.

Now, the prime function of this space is the ingestion of food and drink, and the mixing of our edibles with saliva. Whenever we introduce foreign bodies of any character, we place a sizable burden upon the bacteria repelling forces of the system. Now and then we may add, unwittingly, a germ which may bring on a sore throat.

Children love to taste things. That is one way they learn about size and consistency. They feel them with both tongue and cheeks. Sometimes, because of this type of curiosity, an object is swallowed or breathed into the bronchial tube. In consequence, much consternation ensues until it can be extracted or passed along the digestive tract. Every mother knows the importance of keeping small items well out of reach of her little ones.

But the nasal apparatus is even more abused, with the application of countless medicines alleged to prevent or relieve colds or infections. In fact, certain individuals may develop a fetish about their airways and subject the channels to the action of some drug, liquid, or spray a dozen times daily.

Most of us realize that the nose is a self-cleaning affair. If we will use it only for breathing, the to-and-fro movement of air currents will establish a partial vacuum which has the effect of withdrawing secretions from the sinuses and forcing them outward. All too often those who have ailing nasal appendages are the victims of their own credulity. They will not leave the structures alone long enough to allow them to act as nature intended.

On the other hand, there are numerous occasions when irrigation can be utilized with good effects. But the procedure must not be rendered harmful by strong solutions either of salt or of any other chemical. It is perfectly proper to employ a gentle flushing process for the eradication of pus or dried crusts. With a mucous lining that is normal, however, no such need is apparent. Certainly, mineral oil should never be permitted. In a recent discussion on this subject, the dangers of oil pneumonia were pointed out. Any medicine that contains cocaine or a cauterizing agent [such as silver] should never be administered except by a skilled physician.

Are nasal filters of value in preventing hay fever and the entrance of irritants responsible for it? While some patients have reported satisfactory results, the great majority experience little if any benefit. Furthermore, these gadgets may increase the swelling of the surface membrane, thus interfering with the exit of mucus. A friend suffered a serious infection which was traced to one of these devices, which unfortunately had not been kept clean.

Nevertheless, workers in dusty atmospheres are advised always to wear suitable masks and even these should be removed occasionally, for drying and cleansing. In addition, brief rest intervals in fresh, pure air are advised.

We must recall that every nose cold is potentially a sinus infection—possibly pointing to ear involvement. For this reason, we must allow the outlets to remain open and free for the escape of bacteria laden mucus and pus. We can help the matter along with flushing the channels perhaps once daily with a weak solution of common salt [1 teaspoonful to the pint].

In the presence of sinus trouble, however—with the discharge of thick, yellowish material—the services of an expert may be required.

STAIR CLIMBING.

REPLY.

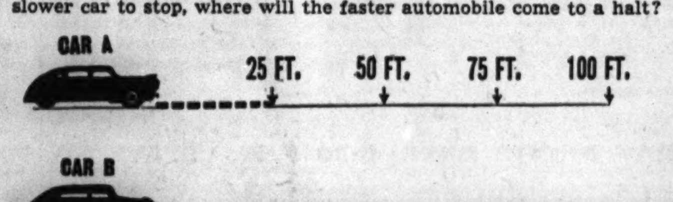
Unlikely. I am assuming that breathlessness has not been observed.

Test Your Horse Sense

BY DR. GEORGE W. CRANE.

Select the answers which you consider best. The last problem counts five points. Then look for the correct answers on page 39.

1. Lake Okeechobee should remind Americans of which one of these states? Minnesota Oregon California Florida.
2. An automobile will start more easily in sand or mud if you place the gears in Reverse High Second Low.
3. Which one of these substances is the best conductor of electricity? Water Iron Silicon Copper.
4. The first step in the treatment of shock is the application of Heat Cold Artificial Respiration Whisky.
5. The blue of the United States flag represents Perseverance Honesty Purity Justice.
6. Below are two automobiles of the same model and weight. Their brakes are perfect. Car A is going 20 miles per hour, while B is traveling at 40 mile speed, and has just drawn abreast of Car A when a child runs into the road ahead of them. Both motorists apply their brakes at the same instant. If it takes 25 feet for the slower car to stop, where will the faster automobile come to a halt?



Score yourself as follows: 0-2, poor; 3-6, average; 7-8, superior; 9-10, very superior. [Note—The last question counts five points.]

BACK TO THE STONE AGE?

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

Writers should confine themselves to 200 or 300 words. Give full names and addresses. No manuscripts can be returned. Address Voice of the People, THE TRIBUNE.

IT IS NOT OUR WAR.

Newport, R. I., June 1.—It would be one of the world's tragedies to have Britain fall—but this possibility must be faced and we must recognize it courageously and not indulge in wishful thinking.

The propaganda of intimidation, which has confused and in some instances convinced Americans that if Britain falls it means the annihilation of our republic, is based solely upon the determination of some of our politicians to involve us in active hostilities. If our 130 million citizens cannot maintain our American system without the protection of the British empire, then the blood of our forefathers was shed in vain. We established our "way of life" in spite of the British empire and if we must depend upon it or any other foreign power for its continuance it is a confession that either our citizens have degenerated or that our "way of life" is not strong or practical enough to be sustained even by 130 million people.

Those of us who have not been so self-centered that we ignored the "handwriting on the wall," have long recognized the insidiousness of the propaganda upon which our country has been fed: cautiously at first, but increasing in its presentation of alarming prophesies of woe unless we should fling our nation into the European maelstrom.

Ever since the development of the German empire there has been a struggle between it and the British empire for supremacy. Altho Europe has been a cockpit for nearly 2,000 years, its wars were comparatively minor affairs until Britain felt her supremacy endangered—first by Napoleon and then by Germany. Today both Britain and Germany are determined to control Europe and world trade—and their rival ambitions can only result in the most destructive and cruel war the world has ever experienced.

It is not our war—or was not until the New Deal was wooed by a mirage of world domination and shamelessly violated every shadow of neutrality, becoming nothing but a pawn of Britain. Our experiences of the past should have proved to us that Europe only wishes our financing and our materials, war, and otherwise. No European nation would come to our aid, even diplomatically—unless it favored their own personal objectives. Americans, by and large, paid no attention to the fact that Britain "let the United States down" shamelessly in the Manchukuo affair, only a few years ago. She has ignored her debt, which the United States citizens are still in the process of paying.

Are we so gullible that we think the British king and queen came to Washington in July, '39, merely as a "friendly gesture"? The heads of great nations, mature in diplomacy and international intrigue, do not make such "gestures" unless they expect as the result something of material value to their own country. No one knows what promises and agreements were made over the hot dogs and beer enjoyed at Hyde Park, N. Y., and many thoughtful citizens are convinced today that that village on the Hudson witnessed one of the most world shattering agreements. The politician's problem was how to create the United States national enthusiasm for a war, which was plainly not our affair.

Up to the present Germany has not made one hostile gesture toward the United States, altho she has been verbally castigated, insulted, and incited unceasingly by the New Dealers, and even the President himself.

It is inconceivable that a nation can be so deluded as to believe it is America's part to reform the whole world; and in view of the disgraceful conditions in our own country today, which is an Augean stable of crime, strikes, violence, class hatred, graft, and corruption, it is somewhat audacious for us to adopt a "holier than thou" attitude. The government turns a deaf ear to those conditions, wagging tongues in congress being the only effort to remedy a situation which is a disgrace in the eyes of the world.

The objective of the administration's gleeful enthusiasm for the war is partly revealed by the speech of the United States attorney general in Havana on March 27, 1941. If it is the ambition of the administration to be the dominating power in a world federation of nations, it will have a rude awakening. The older nations would never consent to that. To them the United States of America is only a nation to be milked for financing and supplying them with their necessities in time of emergency, but when the necessity ceases, we immediately become Uncle Shylock—and our own citizens meekly pay the bills.

Mature nations with experienced statesmen at their head do not sacrifice their own countries for sentimental "causes," and only indulge in the slaughter and devastation of war if it is to be ultimately—if victorious—to their definite advantage. Real statesmen [differentiated from politicians inexperienced in world affairs and with limited horizons such as we are afflicted with here—where they gauge Europe's problems, jealousies, and antagonisms by their own state] do not jeopardize their nations unless some very material benefit is to ensue. You may say we are guarding our own safety by being unneutral and depleting our own defenses to help Britain—that is the propaganda of the administration. Had we maintained neutrality, had we not egged on European nations with promises of aid, especially England and France before the war began, Europe would have found a way to settle her problems; neither of those nations was adequately prepared for war and from the first they have relied upon us to supply everything they found themselves deficient in. There is no "sentimentality"—and should not be—in international relations, except in our own United States where we are too young as a world power and too emotional to use ordinary common sense.

Today we are facing national bankruptcy, confiscatory taxation, and the slaughter of our citizens—for what? Because two great European nations, bitter rivals, are fighting to gain supremacy. We talk about this war being again one "to save democracy"—just as we were told in 1917. What was the outcome of that? A "peace," dictated by the so-called democracies, which thru its vindictiveness and harshness brought about the most rigid dictatorships since the days of ancient Rome. We ourselves have set up a dictator in violation of our constitution and the ideal of government upon which our nation was founded.

It is useless to talk of our keeping out of this war, now—we are already in it, except it has not reached the point of a "shooting war" as Gen. Hugh Johnson calls it. Mr. Stimson and Col. Knox openly said in their orations on April 24 that we had gone so far in aid to Britain we could not now retreat. This is the position our war mongers have been intriguing for—a position insidiously reached, where the congress and the citizens have no honorable alternative to a declaration or definite act of war. War has not come to us from Germany, nor thru any of the "window dressing" reasons dinned in our ears by the administration, but solely thru the ruthless ambition for world domination which has eaten away the souls of some of our officials. If Britain falls, we will have to cede Europe and Asia, due to our belligerent attitude toward both continents—and we will have the undying hatred of England, which will feel its defeat was due to our tardiness in fulfilling our promises.

My blood boils to know that any group of unscrupulous politicians can so delude and deceive millions of our people. Is this the way 20th century "democracy" works?

Thru the apathy and gullibility of our citizens, our elected representatives have become our masters instead of our servants. Only a handful of courageous senators and congressmen oppose the sacrifice of our nation and its citizens and they, as well as any citizens who dare to voice a warning to the country of the true situation, are insulted and defamed from high places, proving a desire to intimidate and censor free speech.

As far back as 1936 we civilians knew that war in Europe was inevitable. The President had, of course, inside information regarding the situation. What did he do to increase our utterly inadequate defenses? Nothing, except talk, until the "conversations" with the British rulers—when at last steps were taken to remedy the situation. If you feel I am unduly prejudiced, look at the statistics.

Look back on history. Every great empire has fallen sooner or later. We do not want Britain to fall—but she herself did not prepare for what many of her statesmen foresaw and warned against. Let us face the facts as they are and the possibilities which exist—let us save America first and not betray our heritage thru unreasoning sentimentalism.

Now you can understand why I and millions of others in this land of ours look upon the future with foreboding and apprehension.

SAVE THE OLD AUDITORIUM!

Chicago, June 2.—The old Auditorium hotel represents the Chicago of yesterday. Many citizens would like to see this landmark remain for posterity. Let me suggest that your paper work out some plan in which this old historic building may be held intact for the people of this community.

Many plans could be used to save this old but beautiful building, and as you have instituted so many wonderful ideas and funds for the benefit of the community, why not interest yourself in this worthy one?

As to taxes—the city and county could easily erase all past due amounts on this old building.

RUNNING AFTER WAR.

Broken Bow, Neb., May 31.—War is not running after America; instead a determined band of bloodthirsty old men and women in America, who are too decrepit ever to be in anybody's army, are running after war for America. These old men and women tell us young men that we must fight to save some one else's empire, democracy, and civilization. But we know this is the bunk. Our fathers and mothers got their fingers burnt because of the same propaganda 23 years ago, and they don't want to see us get ours burnt now!

TRAVELER'S CHECKS.

Chicago, May 30.—[Legal Friend of the People.]—1. I lost a traveler's check book two weeks ago. There were two checks for $20 each. I notified the bank immediately. They promised to pay within 10 days.

2. Today I received a letter from the bank telling me I must have a [3] bondsman sign for double the amount or $80 before a [4] notary public. Payment has been stopped and none of the checks turned up.

5. Why should I be put to the expense of getting a bondsman and a notary public? I do not know of any one here I could ask to sign a bond for me.

H. S.

1. We could advise to better advantage if the wording of the checks was before us.
2. If the checks were so worded that a purchaser from a finder might get a good title then it would be reasonable for the bank to insist upon a bond, but ordinarily traveler's checks would not be so worded.
3. You do not make clear whether they are insisting on a surety company or merely an individual bondsman.
4. This sounds as if what they mean is an affidavit rather than a bond. We could advise to better advantage if the wording of the bank's letter as well as the wording of the checks were before us.
5. Depends on the facts. See preceding answers.

STATE WILL HELP CITY IN ONE WAY TRAFFIC STUDIES

Control in Eastern Cities Proves Beneficial.

BY HAL FOUST.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Springfield, Ill., June 4—I. A. Palmer, assistant director of public works, said today the state highway department will coöperate with Chicago in planning one way traffic control to relieve congestion and to reduce accidents on Chicago's west side.

Both of two one-way proposals, pigeon holed in the council traffic committee since 1938, would be part of the state highway system. U. S. 20 markers now follow the Warren-Washington one way pavements between Garfield and Union parks, which would be extended east to Michigan avenue and west to the city limits. U. S. 34 and U. S. 66 markers follow Jackson boulevard east of Ogden avenue. It is proposed that Jackson be used for east bound traffic only and Monroe street for west bound traffic only.

Continue with Studies.

Ald. George D. Kells [28th], chairman of the council traffic committee, yesterday directed City Traffic Engineer Leslie Sorenson to bring the studies up to date.

Harry H. Harrison, traffic engineer of the state highway department, in an interview this afternoon told of favorable experiences with one way control in eastern cities as reported to the American Institute of Traffic Engineers by Thomas W. Rochester, chief engineer of the New York police department.

Report on Advantages.

Rochester reported to the national organization of traffic technicians that advantages of one way operation include the following:

1. Accident hazard is decreased.
2. Capacity of streets is increased.
3. Speed of traffic is increased.
4. Control of speed thru use of signals is more efficient.
5. Regulation by signals at complicated intersections is simplified.
6. Congestion is relieved at virtually no extra cost.

Rochester's survey reported "before and after" experiences in New York and in Philadelphia where accident statistics credit the one way control for reducing the risks from 38 to 66 per cent.

POLICE WAGE LAW REPEALERS KEPT ALIVE BY HOUSE

BY PARKE BROWN.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Springfield, Ill., June 4.—Another effort to kill the statutes which compel downstate cities to pay high minimum wages to their policemen and firemen was blocked in the house of representatives today by a vote of 63 to 44.

Downstate members voted 48 to 29 on the question. Cook county, which is not affected by this struggle over the principle of home rule, voted in a way tantamount to withdrawal from the controversy. The county delegation now includes 56 members. Of that total, 15 voted in favor of the repealers, 15 voted against them, and the other 26 were absent or did not vote.

It also has been disclosed that a Chicago police organization has had at least one representative here aiding the downstaters in their fight to hang on to their minimum wages. This fact tends to strengthen belief in a report that after downstate is taken care of it will aid Chicago policemen and possibly firemen to obtain legislation fixing their minimum wages at $300 a month.

SENATORS PUSH BILL TO PROVIDE PAY FOR MILITIA

40 Ask $1,246,116 for Coming Biennium.

BY PERCY WOOD.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Springfield, Ill., June 4.—Senator T. Mac Downing [R., Macomb] and 39 other members of the upper chamber today sponsored an appropriation bill to pay the Illinois reserve militia—officers, $250 annually; enlisted personnel, $1 per weekly drill. The measure allots $1,246,116 for the coming biennium.

Seldom does a bill have such mass sponsorship. Most Republican senators signed their names under Downing's along with several Democrats.

In proposing pay for the emergency military arm of the state, the 40 senators took a position contrary to that of Gov. Dwight Green. On several occasions the governor has said he felt the militia, for which the state furnishes uniforms and the federal government provides arms, should serve without pay as a patriotic gesture.

Only Ohio Pays.

In reply to a question, Adj. Gen. Leo M. Boyle said he had data from 16 states and that only one, Ohio, provides compensation for militiamen. The Ohio pay is $1 per weekly drill for enlisted men and one day's pay per week for officers.

The adjutant general said that on May 31 the Illinois militia had a strength of 5,083. It is authorized to muster 5,985. Weekly drills are bringing out about 80 per cent attendance, he said.

No provision for the militia has been made in the state budget other than the items for uniforms and general expenses.

Senate Votes U. of I. Funds.

By the unanimous vote of 49 to 0, the senate passed the $17,705,000 biennial appropriation bill for the University of Illinois. The figure still is $237,000 higher than Gov. Green wants it. He has told many people he will veto items to bring it down to the $17,468,000 which was earmarked for the university in the budget.

In the judiciary committee, Senators William G. Knox [R., Chicago] and Frank Ryan [D., Chicago] obtained approval of their bill to increase the number of Superior court judges in Cook county from 21 to 27. The bill was sent to the house floor with a passage recommendation. Knox said that the court is overworked to the extent that additional judges are necessary.

MEASURE TO REVISE TRAFFIC CODE SENT TO HOUSE FOR VOTE

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Springfield, Ill., June 4.—A bill to make numerous major changes in the Illinois traffic code was recommended for passage this afternoon by the house committee on traffic regulations and motor vehicles.

A number of modifications, all upward, would be made in various maximum speed limits. A prima facie of 35 miles per hour in undeveloped incorporated areas would be killed. In posting speed zones, the highway department no longer would be limited to a maximum of 45 miles per hour.

For trucks, the weight classifications for different speed limits would be changed to conform with the weight classifications for different types of license plates.

The highway department would be authorized to establish, mark and enforce "no passing zones" where it is dangerous to pass another vehicle.

EX-TRUSTEE GETS 30 MONTH TERM IN $21,232 THEFT

Harry Dubia was sentenced to 30 months in federal prison yesterday on his plea of guilty of embezzling $21,232 of the funds he administered as a federal bankruptcy trustee.

Judge Evan A. Evans of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals heard the case in the United States District court. He was invited to preside by judges of the District court because Dubia had been appointed trustee during their tenure.

Robert Eardley, assistant United States attorney, presented a statement quoting Dubia as saying he had embezzled small sums in 1938 and gradually took more to live on a scale in excess of his means. Questioned by Judge Evans, Dubia said the shortage would have been discovered earlier had bankruptcy referees examined his accounts.

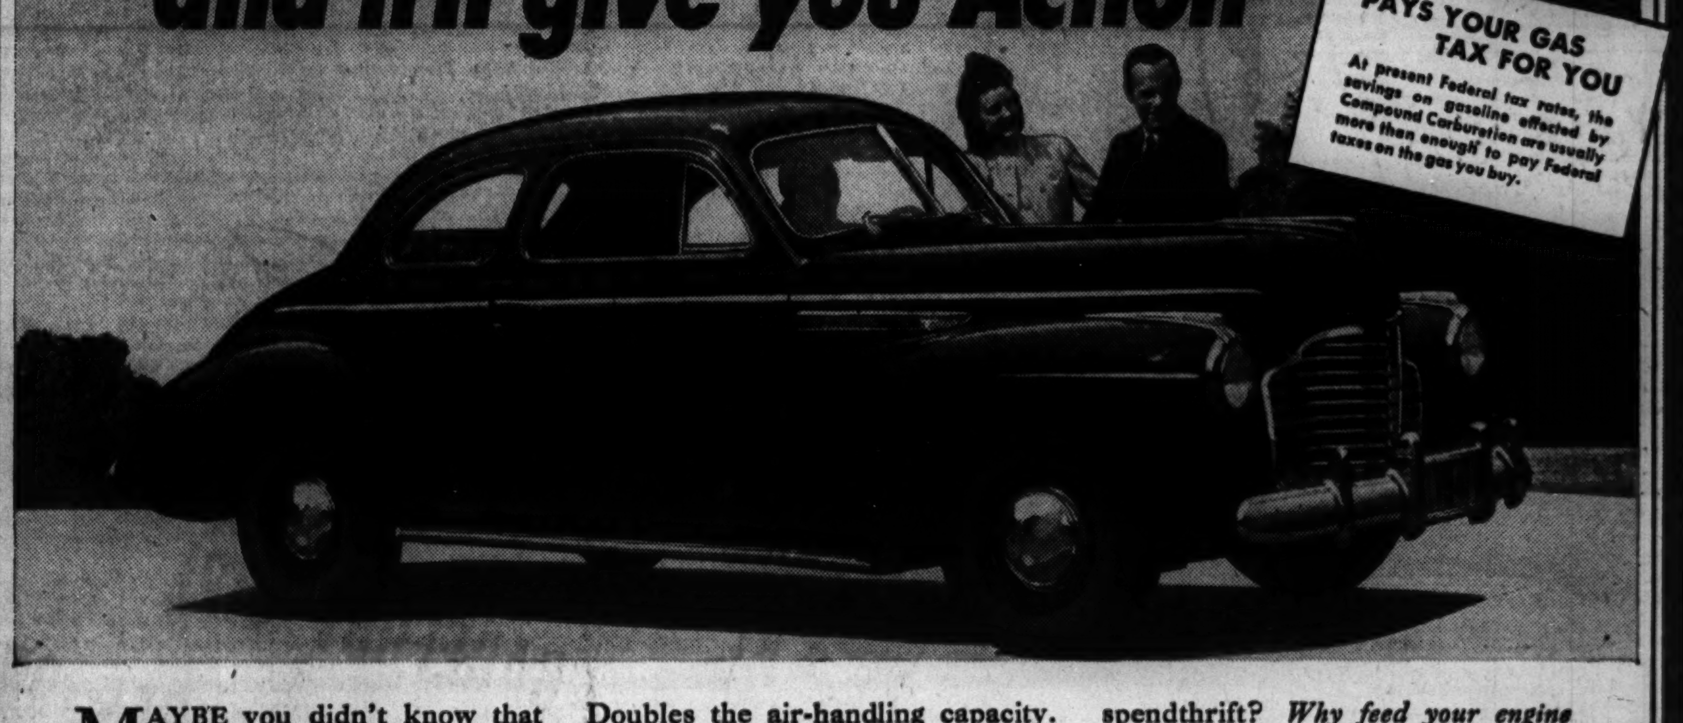
Just give it Air—and it'll give you Action

PAYS YOUR GAS TAX FOR YOU
At present Federal tax rates, the savings on gasoline effected by Compound Carburetion are usually more than enough to pay Federal taxes on the gas you buy.



MAYBE you didn't know that an efficient gas mixture for your car has about 9,000 parts of air by volume for every one part of gasoline.

That being so, you can see how important air-handling capacity is to your power plant.

That's all you need for most everyday travel at your customary easy-going pace.

But step down on the gas treadle and what happens?

Would feeding more gas accomplish the same result?

After a fashion, yes—but why be spendthrift? Why feed your engine gasoline when what it wants is air?

Why indeed—when Compound Carburetion means power as you want it and when you want it—with gas economy that owners say runs as high as 10% to 15% over last year's Buicks?

For that matter—why get less room, less style, less comfort, less value than Buick offers at such little prices?

And why NOT see your nearest Buick dealer now—and at least get the figures on the car that's admittedly the big buy of the season?

delivered at Flint, Mich. State tax, optional equipment and accessories—extra. Prices and specifications subject to change without notice.

COMBAT FLYING HARD ON PILOTS, STUDIES REVEAL

I Effects Described to A. M. A. Delegates.

Y GEORGE MORGENSTERN.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Cleveland, O., June 4.—Recent re- ou ts that a large number of German dive bomber and combat pilots are now physical and nervous wrecks were given credence today when Dr. John F. Fulton of Yale university told the convention of the American Medical association that combat flying often does irrevocable harm to the central nervous system.

Resultant impairment from lack of oxygen in the blood stream, Dr. Fulton said, often was mistakenly blamed on the emotional stresses and strains of combat flying, while in reality they were due to strictly physiological disturbances.

"The heart in normal young adults begins to be affected at altitudes of 5,000 to 7,000 feet." Dr. Fulton said. "Marksmanship of even the best shots begins to deteriorate at 7,000 to 8,000 feet, and at 12,000 feet accuracy is gravely affected if the gunner attempts to shoot without taking oxygen."

Blackout Inevitable.

Dr. Fulton said that fighter pilots, forced to make frequent close turns or overhead loops, were just as likely to "black out" as dive bomber pilots, who always lose consciousness for several seconds in pulling out of a dive. Oxygen, he said, will not stop the blackout, altho it will help to restore consciousness more speedily than if the pilot wore no mask.

Dr. Fulton said, however, that the extreme fatigue, hallucinations, and loss of tolerance to pulls in excess of gravity which many pilots show after a blackout are effects of concussion of the brain. He asserted that sharp turns and pull-outs from dives subjected the pilots to repeated minor concussions.

These concussions, Dr. Fulton said, cause fat embolism—the plugging of an artery or vein by a fatty clot—in the smaller vessels of the brain, and the embolism in turn increases the tendency toward the progressive development of more severe deficiencies in the oxygen content of the blood. The effect is to constantly lower the pilot's flying performance.

Would Label Whisky.

A recommendation that whisky and other alcoholic beverages be placed under the control of the federal food, drug and and cosmetic act was made in a paper read at the convention by Dr. Merrill Moore, well known Boston psychiatrist.

The doctors asserted in the paper that every bottle of alcoholic beverage now sold violates the law because it does not contain a label as to its contents and the consequences that may result from its use. The act determines an article to be misbranded, they said, when this information is not on the label.

They suggested that all bottles of alcoholic beverage contain labels similar to the following:

"DIRECTIONS FOR USE: Use moderately and not on successive days. Eat well while drinking and, if necessary, supplement food by vitamin tablets while drinking. WARNING: May be habit-forming; not for use by children. If this beverage is indulged in immoderately it may cause intoxication [drunkenness], later neuralgia and paralysis [neuritis] and serious mental derangement, such as delerium tremens and other curable and incurable mental diseases, as well as kidney and liver damage."

"There are many people," Dr. Moore said, "who are afraid to take two aspirins at once for a cold because of its possible effect on the heart. However, some of these people do not hesitate at all to take six highballs in a row. We think this paradoxical discrepancy in public opinion and knowledge should be corrected."

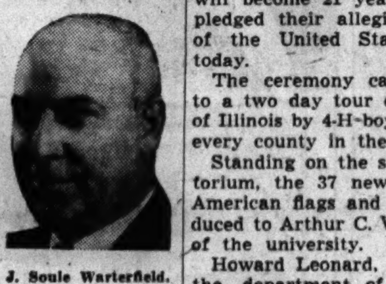
See Useful Purposes.

The doctors said they believed that whisky in moderation and under proper directions for its use is not harmful. In fact, it is their belief, they asserted, that "the drinking of alcohol beverages is firmly established in the natural customs of mankind because it fulfills useful purposes, namely, to facilitate social relationships, to ease the edge of adversity, and to act as an instrument for ceremony and social dignity."

The A. M. A. gold medal award for the most effective of the 161 scientific exhibits at the convention was awarded today to Drs. A. C. Ivey, Alvin L. Berman, and F. S. Grodins of Northwestern university medical school for their presentation of bile salt therapy.

PROPOSE CITY TAKE OVER AUDITORIUM AS CIVIC BUILDING

A plan to save the Auditorium, which the owners plan to close June 30 because of continuing financial losses, was submitted yesterday to Mayor Kelly by J. Soule Warterfield, vice president of the Chicago Building congress. A meeting of property owners to discuss rescue plans has been called for tomorrow in the Auditorium hotel.



J. Soule Warterfield.

The Warterfield plan calls for the four owners of the Auditorium property to deed it to the city and county in payment of $1,150,000 in back taxes. The owners—three estates and an insurance company—would receive revenue bonds to be issued by a civic foundation to be created to operate the property.

The golden shelled auditorium would be reserved as a civic theater.

The hotel of 330 rooms would be used principally to house city and county agencies now renting space outside of the city hall and county building.

Lower floors, with their old fashioned broad halls, would be rented to building material companies for permanent exhibits relating to home construction.

NEW 4-H VOTERS OF STATE PLEDGE LOYALTY TO FLAG

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Champaign, Ill., June 4.—In a special citizenship ceremony, never before held in the state, 37 young men and women, 4-H club members who will become 21 years old this year, pledged their allegiance to the flag of the United States of America today.

The ceremony came as a climax to a two day tour of the University of Illinois by 4-H boys and girls from every county in the state.

Standing on the stage of the auditorium, the 37 new voters received American flags and then were introduced to Arthur C. Willard, president of the university.

Howard Leonard, state director of the department of agriculture, explained the meaning of citizenship to the 4-H club members.

Birds Put on Maneuver.

June 4, 1941.

THE vineyard and berry patch on the Wheaton farm was a center of attraction this week for two reasons. The early ripening of the first strawberries was one lure to draw farm workers to the patch, and the singing of the house wrens and flight maneuvers of the beautiful goldfinches were the secondary attraction.

We stopped to investigate one of the bluebird houses on a fence east of the berry patch and found a pair of house wrens singing as tho they had designs on a rent free home and free meals for the summer. After watching these birds for a few minutes we felt sure they were taking over this house, which is one of eight not occupied by bluebirds. When we first put our field glasses on them the male was singing from the top of an osage orange hedge and its mate was answering from the grapevine supports.

Ready to Sign Lease.

Then the two moved closer and the female went into the bluebird house while the male put on a song and dance act on the top rail of the fence. They seemed reluctant to leave the commodious nesting box, so we feel pretty sure they're going to sign a lease for the vacant house.

In the same berry patch we spotted two pairs of goldfinches, which rate in class A-1 when it comes to attractive plumage. These beautiful songsters always are tardy in their nesting, usually putting off this job until early summer.

Now they may be seen in small flocks of four to eight in many Chicagoland fields. Often they are mistakenly called wild canaries because of their vivid yellow and black feathers.

Chickens and Rain.

Soon after the wrens and goldfinches had completed their matinée performance we drove into the barnyard to watch a practical test to prove whether chickens can forecast the duration of a rain. An old belief among many farmers is that if chickens go to shelter during a rainstorm it indicates a short shower, but if they stay outside when the rain starts it's a sign the downpour will continue all day.

When the rain started to pepper down in the barnyard none of the chickens went to shelter. A little bantam hen with a clutch of chicks spread her wings to cover her brood, and a White Rock hen with a family of Muscovy ducklings stayed in the yard until the flockmaster drove her and her youngsters into a house for their own protection. But none of the chickens went to shelter on their own choice, and since the rain did last almost all day it seemed to give the chickens a pretty good record as weather forecasters.

ABSURD, SAYS BAR OF PLEA MADE BY JUDGE HOLLAND

Brief Attacks Conduct in O'Hare Inquiry.

Municipal Judge Eugene J. Holland invoked his constitutional rights to avoid testifying before a grand jury investigating the slaying of Edward J. O'Hare in November, 1939. By doing so the judge took a "position as a champion for the constitution which must be regarded as grotesque and absurd," the Chicago Bar association charged in a brief filed with the Illinois Supreme court yesterday.

Judge Holland.

A committee of the bar association, sitting as commissioners of the Supreme court, recommended last March that Holland's license to practice law be suspended for two years. Holland, a business associate of the slain O'Hare, brought the judiciary into disrepute by his refusal to testify, the bar association charged.

Threatened with Contempt.

Holland, when threatened with a contempt citation at the time of his refusal to answer questions before the grand jury, pleaded his constitutional right of refusing to testify on the ground that he might incriminate himself.

"As an individual, the respondent [Holland] had the right to and did save himself from incrimination," read the brief filed by Attorney Charles Leviton, counsel for the bar association. "As a judge and as an officer of this court it is believed that the exercise of this right, as it was exercised and in the manner taken by the respondent, definitely created a stain upon the bench and bar of the state of Illinois."

Two Points in Brief.

The points upon which the brief relies are: First, was Judge Holland in good faith when he refused to answer the grand jury's questions, and, second, did he bring the courts into disrepute and contempt?

The fact that Judge Holland answered at length some 250 questions concerning O'Hare's murder in the office of the state's attorney, the brief contends, is evidence of a lack of good faith.

Of the charge that Judge Holland's action brought the court into disgrace and that he therefore should not be allowed to sit, the brief had this to say:

"The record discloses such an unprofessional and unethical attitude on the part of the respondent as cannot fail to arouse serious alarm."

Attorney Leviton said the Supreme court will hear oral arguments on the matter on June 13.

HEAD HUNTERS' GUN CARRYING EVANGELIST DIES

MANILA, P. I., June 4 (AP).—"Bishop" Sam Brown, gun-toting Negro evangelist among the head hunting tribesmen of the Philippines, is dead at the age of 61. His widow, a Filipino, and six children survive.

Brown came to the Philippines as a United States soldier in the Spanish-American war. He created what he called the Non-Christian Tribes Church of the Philippines, elected himself bishop and went forth alone to preach among the head hunters in the wilds 200 miles north of Manila.

Brown used a combination of slang and scripture on his prospective converts. He referred to women as skirts, was adept at cussing when the occasion seemed to require it, and took a nip of liquor now and then.

UNTIL RECENTLY, no motor oil—even "the best money can buy"—was made for today's extreme conditions.

Under sustained high speed, chemical changes may take place in such oil—"break down" its protection.

Shell X-100—the new super-lubricant—was created to solve this problem. Extra safety factors—the new "X" factors—resist "BREAKDOWN" and thus retard CORROSION, SLUDGE, VARNISH, RING STICKING. It was proved in the laboratory, then proved on the road through 5,000,000 miles of test driving!

IMPORTANT NOTICE

Defense production comes first—a new car will be harder to get. Take the best possible care of your present car, or the one you buy—use Shell X-100 Motor Oil for maximum protection. It is important that Shell X-100 should not be adulterated by the dregs of inferior oil—drain while the motor is "hot." Ask your Shell dealer to DRAIN AND RE-FILL NOW WITH SHELL X-100 MOTOR OIL.

FLY CHARGES NBC AND CBS DICTATE STATION POLICIES

Decide on Programs, He Tells Senate Group.

Washington, D. C., June 4 [Special]. — The National Broadcasting company and the Columbia Broadcasting system "dictate" to their affiliated stations to the extent that they decide what non-network programs are in the public interest and what rates should be charged for some non-network programs, James L. Fly, chairman of the federal communications commission, testified today.

Appearing for the third consecutive day before the senate interstate commerce committee, Fly asserted that the two networks issue contracts which bind the chains for only one year but "tie up" the affiliates for five.

Fly's testimony on "dictation" by the NBC and CBS was followed by a sharp clash with Senator Wallace H. White [R., Me.] over the FCC antimonopoly rules as they applied to NBC, which was directed to sell one of its two chains.

Seeks to Delay FCC Order.

The committee hearing, which was adjourned today until next Monday, was called on Senator White's resolution seeking to defer execution of the FCC order pending an inquiry.

Fly's revelation as to the extent of control by the two networks over their affiliates aroused more interest on the part of the committee's members than almost any other issue during the three days of hearings.

Fly said that the standard NBC contract with a station stipulated that it was up to the network to decide whether the station could cancel a commercial chain presentation for a program which the station felt was in the local public interest.

In effect, Fly added, the stations were forced "to delegate to two New York corporations" the decision as to what was of public interest in their own communities.

Defends Network Separation.

As for divorcement of the Red and Blue networks of NBC, Fly insisted that the Blue would not be jeopardized if it were sold because, he said, it would be taken over "lock, stock, and barrel by new interests."

The clash between Senator White and Fly developed when the Senator asked whether the communications commission would refuse any new licenses to NBC affiliates unless the company disposed of one of its two networks.

Fly replied that the commission contemplated no precipitate action and that no license would be held up while the issue was being resolved in the courts.

Then he went on to assert the situation might be different if the broadcasters embarked on a deliberate campaign of delay in the form of "opposing bills and debates," and he mentioned the White resolution as a measure to "obstruct" the FCC.

STUDY IS ASKED ON BANNING LEFT TURNS IN LOOP

Proposals to ban all left turns in loop traffic and to forbid right turns at some of the busier intersections were heard yesterday by the council subcommittee on parking. The subcommittee, headed by Ald. Joseph S. Gillespie [29th], asked an investigation of both proposals by Leslie J. Sorenson, city traffic engineer.

Left turns at intersections already are banned. The new proposal would prevent left turns at alleys and entrances to parking lots. Parking lot operators and others will be invited to a public hearing on the question in the next 10 days.

Ald. Frank Keenan [49th] asked the lifting of restrictions against loop parking, asserting motorists should be permitted to park in streets. The suggestion was promptly pigeonholed.

Find Lost City

TUXTLA GUTIERREZ, Chiapas, Mexico, June 4 (AP).—Discovery of the lost city of the Mayas in an area inhabited by a lost tribe was reported today by Dana Lamb and his wife Ginger, explorers from Santa Ana, Cal.

The long sought monument of an ancient civilization is on a plateau in the center of a vast unexplored area of southeastern Chiapas, Mexico's southernmost state, between Comitan, Agua Azul, and the Guatemalan border. Its approximate location is latitude 16 degrees 45 minutes, longtitude 91 degrees 33 minutes, Lamb reported.

Belief was expressed by Dr. Franz Blom of Tulane university, New Orleans, La., who is assisting the Lambs, that the tribe inhabiting the lost city area must be Mayan, and may be descendants of the builders of the lost city.

The discovery was made by airplane, which later was wrecked in the jungles near here without injury to the Lambs.

Held Huge Investments in Railroad Securities.

New York, June 4 (AP).—Arthur Curtiss James, 74 years old, one of the 12 richest men in America, died today of pneumonia in Harkness Pavilion 20 days after his wife's death May 15.

Arthur C. James.

James, who inherited copper, silver, and gold mines and railroad securities from his grandfather and father, used his wealth to purchase more railroad stock until he was reputed to hold more railroad securities than any other man in the country. His investments at one time were estimated at 350 million dollars.

Controled Railroad.

While the largest individual holder of Great Northern, Northern Pacific and Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railroad shares, James purchased control of the Western Pacific in 1926 which, with the Missouri Pacific, jointly controled the Denver and Rio Grande.

He was an ardent yachtsman and twice circled the globe in his square rigged Aloha. He was commodore of the New York Yacht club in 1909 and 1910.

Known as a staunch Republican he announced his support of Alfred E. Smith for President in 1928 and was chairman of a committee for the election of Franklin D. Roosevelt as governor of New York the same year.

Saw Carriers' Plight.

James declared in a magazine article in 1932 that the nation's railroads faced the most serious crisis since the panic of 1893 because of "archaic legislation" and added:

"Unless a solution to their problems is found and put into effect immediately, hundreds of the rail carrier systems will slide into receivership and insolvency, carrying with them thousands of public investment institutions and billions of public invested dollars."

James joined the Phelps-Dodge corporation, mining concern, upon his graduation from Amherst college in 1889. His father was D. Willis James, who was associated with James J. Hill in rail development.

James was a generous giver, and his donations to charities and campaigns were munificent.

HOT DOG TAKING RECESS AS MAIN DIET IN SCHOOLS

The hot dog is on the way out as a standard lunch for high school students.

Figures compiled by Frank O. Washam, director of the bureau of lunchrooms for the board of education, show that during the school year now ending, only 964 pounds of "weenies" were consumed daily, compared with 1,050 pounds the preceding year.

"Students are being lured away from the frankfurter with a well balanced plate lunch," Washam said. "For 10 cents they can get a moderate portion of roast beef, lamb, veal, or pork, a serving of potatoes, and a helping of green vegetables.

"Further evidence that the students are looking for balance in their meals is contained in the fact that they are drinking more milk. This year they consumed 20,395 bottles of milk a day, compared with 17,859 last year. And this year we gave them one-third of a quart in each bottle instead of a half-pint."

How to Get On Well with People

by DALE CARNEGIE

If you want to know how to win friends, remember that most psychologists agree that one of the most widespread urges found in human beings is the desire to be appreciated. Almost all of us want recognition—appreciation. That is why we want to wear the latest styles, why we want to drive the latest cars, play a good game of bridge or tennis.

So if you want to get on well with people, make the other fellow feel important! How? By the simple method used by Benjamin Franklin—one of the most brilliant men America ever produced.

Ben Franklin said: "I will speak ill of no man and speak all the good I know of everybody." Find something to praise in the other person's character or in his achievements, and give him praise unstintingly.

This doesn't mean cheap flattery. Almost everyone you meet is your superior in some way or other. Maybe he knows more about stamp collecting than you do—or gets a better score at golf, or has traveled places you have never been to. Find out the things that he himself is proud of having done and praise him for them. Praise him generously!

This is one of the Golden Rules of life. Do unto others as you would have them do unto you. Make the other fellow feel important, and you'll have acquired one of the magic arts of getting on with people.*

Dale Carnegie

*And often a simple help in getting on with people is the courteous offer of a cigarette—a new Old Gold—with an added touch of flavor from a rare imported tobacco, Latakia.

Like icing to a cake, the delicate, fine leaves of this Latakia tobacco add new zest to smoking—new goodness to the finest blend ever perfected by America's oldest tobacco merchants. And Old Gold has a plentiful supply of Latakia tobacco—brought from the Eastern Mediterranean to mellow in security—so you'll be sure of new Old Golds for years to come.

Try them soon! In the same familiar Old Gold pack—but still more pleasant now that something new has been added.

Lack of Sleep Is Devastating to the Looks

BY ANTOINETTE DONNELLY.

[Copyright: 1941: By News Syndicate Co. Inc.]

No woman has to be told the effect of sleeplessness on her pretty face. All she has to do is to take a look at herself in the mirror. Just one look will do. Let sleeplessness get you, and you won't even want to take that one look in your mirror, such is the beauty havoc of sleepless nights.

"What to do for it" is the nature of one correspondent's query, who admits she's a natural born worrier. She takes her worries to bed with her. If she hasn't immediate ones, she can, with the most remarkable skill, manufacture a few good blitz terrors for tomorrow's happening. She lies there thinking of what a wreck she'll be in the morning.

The writer continues in a vein of high good humor, possession of which ought to be worked into her slumberless state as an antidote or, rather, as a sustitute for the grim thoughts that assail her in the dead of night.

There's no use under heaven in telling a worrier to stop worrying, but there's good in advising the worrier to work overtime at substituting pleasant, humorous thoughts for the dark ones. Sustitute is the only good remedy for worry. Divert the thoughts to something pleasant. You can't stop the mind from working, so give it pleasant fare. Think about that nice thing some one said to you, about the party you went to, about that good movie you saw.

Medicinal.

A visitor to Mississippi, where in spite of anti-liquor laws there is considerable drinking among the populace, tells upon her return to Chicago of the native who said his mother was opposed to liquor except for medicinal purposes. "But, God, how she can teaspoon away a gallon," he added.

Cuff Notes.

Surrealist Painter Salvatore Dali said while he was in Chicago that automobiles looked so nude to him in their present streamlined, functional form that he was devising ornaments for them suitable for morning wear, afternoon wear, and evening wear. And if this were 1929, such an idea might be adopted, and a woman wouldn't feel she could go out in evening dress and an ermine wrap unless her limousine was in evening dress, too. Or drive out for morning shopping unless the car had properly tailored adornments. . . . After their opening in Accent on Youth at the Selwyn Tuesday evening, Luther Adler and his wife, Sylvia Sidney, wearing her new strawberry blonde hair and a gray dress with a chartreuse cowl collar, went to a friend's house where Adler demonstrated his skill at making "blackeyed susans"—the Adler preference in fried eggs. He cuts out the center of a slice of bread, places the rest of the piece in a skillet with butter, breaks an egg into the empty circlet, adds salt and paprika, turns when done.

Noah D. Fabricant, medical consultant for James T. Farrell's Studs Lonigan series, back from the east where he received a medical award for research investigations during the last year, reports that Farrell's new book, Ellen Rogers, will be published in the autumn. It does not deal with either of Farrell's famous characters, Studs Lonigan or Danny O'Neill. Ellen Rogers is a Chicagoan who is half philosopher, half scoundrel. A fellow dinner guest of Fabricant's at the home of Eugene Lyons, editor of the American Mercury, who has just completed The Incredible Revolution, the story of communist penetration in America, was Maj. A. P. de Seversky, a designer and builder of airplanes. Major de Seversky is completing a book on the twilight of sea power. After dinner he read from a manuscript written eight months ago a prediction of the conquest of Crete by air.

Drama Class.

Dorothy Day Wendell, playwright, formerly drama critic, and an actress before her retirement after her marriage to Nathan Wendell Jr. in Chicago, has started a class in playwriting, and has a dozen future O'Neills in a class that meets once a week in Western Springs, with people coming in from nearby towns to hear her lecture. She has her pupils get right on their literary horses, assigns small scenes of a given nature for them to write, applying what they have learned at the lesson. Those scenes are acted at the ensuing lesson, and in that way the pupils discover what is wrong and what is right and why. It is a six week preliminary course in drama writing technique with the idea that the pupils write something on their own during the summer, then return to classes in the autumn.

Mrs. Wendell's latest play, Bow to the Wittiest, has been accepted by Producer Arthur Hopkins and he is trying to get Rosalind Russell of the films to star in the play.

Youth's Past Is Now Haunting His Romance

BY DORIS BLAKE.

[Copyright: 1941: By News Syndicate Co. Inc.]

"I am very much in love with a young woman two years my junior. She is 26 and this love of ours, understand, is no ordinary case of love. It's more than the usual love of which one hears.

"After I had gone with her for a few months, I opened up one night and told her all the secrets of my past life, among which was a most regrettable incident of my youth which I feel I have lived down after being sufficiently punished for it.

"The girl must have told her mother what I told her, since I don't know how else my secret could have been found out. In spite of the fact that the girl has told me repeatedly that her feeling for me was as deep and as sincere as mine for her. She has let her family persuade her into not seeing me any more. We were engaged to be married and had talked marriage plans over completely, and now I am on the rocks again and deserted by the one person in the world who matters.

"What can be done to a mother like that? Can't action be taken against her? Please answer me, Miss Blake.—Sam X."

How could action be taken against the mother? She hasn't publicly defamed your character, has she? The young woman is 26 and in her adult, sane mind, isn't she? Mother's influence could hardly prevail were the girl not a bit fearful herself of marrying you. Naturally, since you have not unfolded your story to us, we can't judge what influence it may have to bear on the girl's own decision that it were better for her not to go on with you.

Flowers—When you have a four year you aren't in the mood for flowers as a rule and so you sometimes have to give up the idea of a flower garden and plant vegetables instead! The lowly pepper is one of those four plants, and onions and parsnips are in the same class. The idea is to be practical when you have a four year and it has just the least bit of suggestion of being dull, so you might not be flower-minded at all. If you are, the sweet pea is your flower. Probably it is a four flower because you have to work so hard in planting. At least your garden should be very orderly this year and kept trimmed and weeded. It would be a good year to establish a garden if you haven't laid out the plans for a real plot.

Chinese Relief Agencies Unite to Concentrate Aid Programs

All organizations working to aid China's war stricken millions were united yesterday when the American Friends Service committee joined forces with the United China Relief, Inc., it was announced by Robert J. Thorne, chairman of the Chicago unit of United China Relief.

The American Friends Service committee, with headquarters in Philadelphia, is the eighth such organization to join United Relief. The others are the American Bureau for Medical Aid to China, American Committee for Chinese War Orphans, Associated Boards for Christian Colleges in China, China Aid council, China Emergency Relief committee, Church Committee for China Relief, and the American Committee in Aid of Chinese Industrial Coöperatives.

"Each of the eight organizations now will receive a portion of the relief. Thus all waste and duplication of effort will be eliminated and every dollar made to count to the utmost," Mr. Thorne declared.

Entry of the Friends Service committee into the campaign has followed the setting up of 214 local committees of the United China Relief, Inc., similar to the Chicago committee headed by Mr. Thorne, it was explained.

"Activities now on the part of the Friends will be increased in free China, along the Burma road and in the interior provinces thru our collaboration with the other organizations under United China Relief," said Clarence E. Pickett, executive secretary of the Friends committee. "A medical unit is to be sent soon to provide surgical aid to the civilians in bombed cities."

Milles' Great Sculptures on Exhibit at Tea

The Society for Contemporary American Art, of the Art institute, is a young organization [only about two years old], but its first tea party, given yesterday, was a distinguished occasion. Several things made it so, chief among them the guest of honor, Carl Milles. His magnificent sculptures were on view in McKinlock court and Blackstone hall.

Another contributing cause to the success of the party was the perfection of the afternoon. The sculptures would have been as beautiful on Tuesday, but it is certain that no one would have ventured into the court that afternoon to view them.

Yesterday was so lovely that the guests found it hard to tear themselves away from the court to go into the Shaw gallery, where the tea table was.

In fact, the court with its stunning Triton fountain in the center—permanent fixture and the work of Milles—and the loaned sculptures around the four sides inspired Daniel Catton Rich, director of the institute, to predict yesterday that after this show closes at the end of September more of the institute's sculptured possessions will be displayed there permanently.

One of the distinguished guests was Wollmar F. Bostrom, the Swedish minister from Washington, who came to do honor to the noted sculptor who was born in Sweden.

He is professor of sculpture at the Cranbrook Academy of Art in Michigan. This is the most comprehensive exhibit of Milles' work that Chicago ever has had the opportunity of seeing. Included in it are several pieces owned by Chicagoans including a bronze torso, the Sun Singer, loaned by Charles S. Peterson; Europa and the Bull, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Brewster; and the Young Moose, loaned by Mrs. Clow Laflin.

Mr. Brewster and Mr. Peterson were among the guests yesterday, and so was Mrs. Ernest A. Hamill II., who, with Mrs. William Eisendrath Jr., poured at the attractive tea table decorated in a Swedish manner in blue, yellow and white. Later Mrs. Pauling Donnelley and Mrs. Henry S. Monroe took turns at the punch bowl and the tea service.

Others who were there included Tage Palm, who had come from New York for the occasion; Mrs. Charles B. Goodspeed, Mrs. Alfred E. Hamill, Mrs. Francis R. Dickinson, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Holabird and her mother, Mrs. Karleton Hackett:

Where There's Strife, There's Hope; Bob Hope

Hollywood, June 4 (AP).—Because they think the public likes to see Bob Hope suffer, script writers are launching an "all-out" campaign to make him squirm harder and harder.

Hope's feet hurt.

Hope, about to be shot from cannon.

"Just where the limit will be, I don't know—but I sure would like to," pleads Hope. "But so long as they keep laughing, it's okay with me. They'd better make the most of me, however, while I'm still in one piece."

To hear script writers tell it, it took them a little time to discover the comic potentialities of Hope in distress. But once they caught on, they really went to town.

In Hope's first picture he and W. C. Fields were blown up in a radio-controlled boat. In others: Alan Hale slapped his face, pushed it into a bowl of mush, poured ketchup and scrambled eggs in his hair. He has been in fights, shoved down stairs, conked on the head, and nearly strangled to death. He was shot out of a cannon, electrocuted, frozen in a slab of ice, turned into a human bat, mauled by a gorilla, and dropped from an airplane minus a parachute.

In his current picture, "Nothing But the Truth," Hope is knocked cold by Leif Erickson, his love rival. When they take away his clothes on a houseboat Hope hides in a bait box.

Castor oil—or whatever it is—makes our Bob no happier than a punch.

While he's still inside the box sailors dunk it overboard and fill it with 7,500 live anchovies for bait for the next day's fishing. Hope emerges with fish wriggling from his hair, ears, mouth and shirt front, and with a crab on his head and another biting his leg.

Something in Hair Styling

For the mature woman, hair is short, not only for comfort but for the "groomed" look that gives the illusion of more youthful contour. The hair dress (at left) is easy to maintain, but its stunning simplicity is the result of skillful cutting and expert waving.

The young girls cling to their long bobs, but the hair is brushed to a high luster and the final effect is not one of untidiness. In the coiffure (at right) for the girl graduate the front hair is brushed into a quaint pompadour held in place with flat comb by day and a flowered barrette by night.

Next to Herself, Milady Prefers Cotton Undies

BY REA SEEGER.

Clever new cotton foundations make temptingly cool collections from which to choose that important underlayer to make casual summer clothes—daytime or evening wear—fit smoothly. Comfort is stressed with material that tubs easily, silhouettes that smooth out and restrain curves, and with the airy weaves of material to allow for plenty of air conditioning no matter how sultry the heat.

Both snowy white and flesh colored voiles, cotton-lace and trick cotton are the favored materials. Sometimes the entire model is made expertly of cotton lace with side panels of airy lastex. Others feature panels of the lastex contrasted with double layered panels of voile as the alternates, with skillfully designed bra tops of matching lace. Every inch is as easily tubbed as a cotton dress or cotton lingerie.

Altogether, separate girdles, and corsets with matching bra, provide a wide choice for the exacting, but knowing summer shopper with definite ideas of what is needed to best flatter her figurelines.

Cotton also is used for some smart summer models for the very young figures. These are brief but telling controls for the active outdoor enthusiast. The beginning career girl with a summer wardrobe that must be laundered weekly also will find them valuable. Such featherweight models are the coolest lightest things imaginable! They come packed neatly, but temptingly in a slender box, handsomely decorated.

The white foundations are especially attractive to very fastidious women. They come with white shoulder straps and white dainty lace bra tops. The cotton is that effective satin stripe stuff reminiscent of one of your childhood Sunday school dresses. All this cotton specialy designed for summer needs. Bones either have been completely abolished or reduced to a mere two or three. All models are made with the same expert detail and fine design that is used in the more expensive and heavier affairs of satin or brocade.

American Hospital Group Calls Health a Defense Measure

Emphasizing that the health of American workers and their families is an important factor in national defense, the hospital service plan commission of the American Hospital association met at the Drake hotel yesterday.

"Members of the commission are meeting today to encourage the budgeting of hospital care on a non-profit basis thru the 2,000 hospitals now members of Blue Cross Hospital Service plans," explained Dr. B. W. Caldwell, executive secretary of the American Hospital association. "The plans serve an area embracing 80 per cent of the population. Leaders believe 20,000,000 persons will be protected within a few years."

Showdown Is Futile with Balky Child

By GLADYS HUNTINGTON BEVANS.
[Copyright: 1941: By News Syndicate Co. Inc.]

So, you're simply desperate about the mulishness of your little girl! You can't imagine why she should like this. It seems to have been born in her, and you can't make any headway against it.

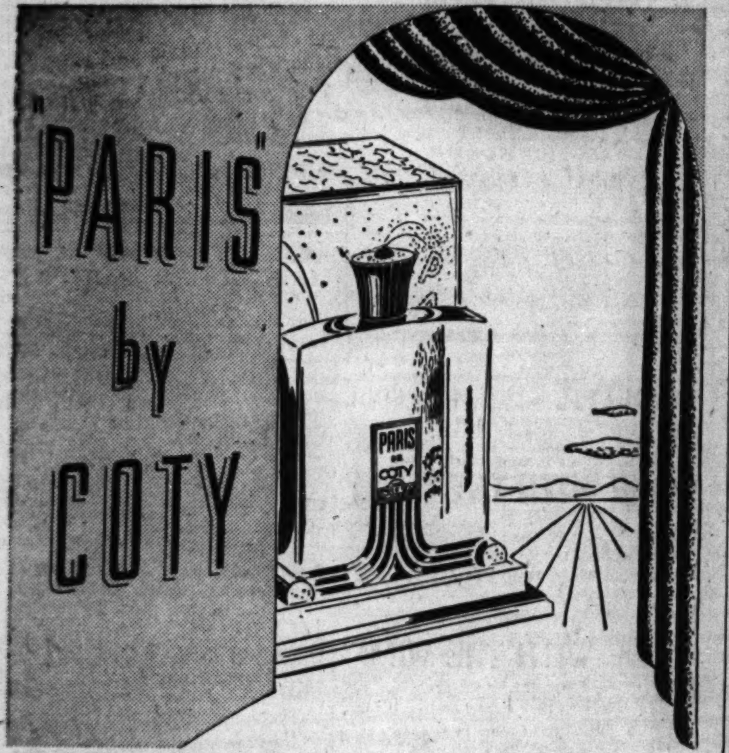
Well, since you're not getting anywhere with your own approach, suppose that you accept [just as an experiment] my theory, which is:

[a] That children aren't naturally stubborn. That they are rather either very determined or desire things very keenly.

[b] And that if they have grown to be really stubborn it is due to circumstances, or wrong handling, or both.

If you will look at your small son or daughter with this attitude, things will take on a different complexion. You will find yourself meeting your child's apparently stubborn behavior quite differently, because your interpretation of it will be different.

One of the first changes you'll make in your management will be that you'll immediately stop taking issue with your child over stubborn behavior. You'll stop having a "showdown." You'll stop seeing "whose will is the stronger" and finding out "who's master here." These methods don't work well, anyhow, so from a practical standpoint they're out. They usually result in a deadlock. You usually have to call it a draw, or there's a "scene."



Serve them piping hot—crisp, brown, dripping with sweet juices—and you'll experience a taste delight you'll never forget. Tender as butter, they are, for these 6 weeks old South Carolina squabs have never flown, never even touched the ground. Order yours now!

Average weight, 1¼ lbs. each—cleaned, ready to cook.

STOLEN LETTER.
INSTALMENT XLVI.

When the 11 o'clock stage from Sabinal rolled in, the crowds were milling in the street. Sheriff Beal and Ernie See were forming a double line of heavily armed men that stretched between the sheriff's office and the stairway to the courtroom above Badey's store.

Lacey Thornton got out of the stage and asked the first man he saw what was happening.

Lacey Thornton's bloodshot eyes gleamed with anticipation, but there was something he wanted to find out. He found Beal bawling orders to the men, and asked him to step aside. Beal, always courteous to the editor of the Sabinal Clarion, came over out of earshot of the crowd. First, Lacey asked how they had captured Coyle, and Beal explained it. Then Thornton reached in his coat and brought out a paper. "Read that," he said.

Beal did, and then grinned. "Hell, I got one, too."

"He was tryin' to sell you the deed, too, was he?" Thornton asked.

Beal nodded, and they looked at each other, faint suspicion in their eyes. Beal put the letter in his pocket. "I went out with a bunch of men, but he didn't show up."

"I didn't do anything," Thornton said. "He probably wouldn't have showed up if I did."

"Well, we got him now, anyways," Beal said. "Come on up to the courtroom and see how he takes it."

After much shouting, the lines stiffened, and Beal went into the jail. As he was going in Tate Wallace, standing by the door said, "Be damn careful, sheriff. He's dynamite."

Beal nodded and went inside. Three minutes later, he and Dave Coyle, handcuffed together, stepped out between the waiting lines.

Dave walked with an arrogant, cocky tread. His lean face was shaded by a dark beard stubble, which turned his eyes an even paler gray. The old sneer was on his face, and he looked at the crowd contemptuously. He carried his jeering arrogance like a banner. To an uninformed onlooker, it would have appeared that Dave was the confident lawman leading Beal, the prisoner, to trial. The crowd shouted and hissed, but Dave paid no attention.

They mounted the steps, and the crowd streamed in after them. The courtroom was small, containing benches for seats. In a cleared space at the rear of the room, there were two tables and some chairs in front of a raised stand on which the judge's bench sat. The prosecuting attorney, a mild-appearing, studious man, was seated at the table talking to the judge when Dave entered.

Afterward, there was a fight to get seats. Ernie and Beal sat on either side of Dave, and now his handcuffs were removed. Presently, Senator Maitland took a chair at the table behind him, the crowd was seated, and the hearing was about to start.

Dave looked at the crowd. He picked out Wallace in the front row near the window, and Lacey Thornton and Carol back in the mob.

The judge rapped the desk and called the court to order. He was an old man, kindly and frail looking, and Dave liked his looks.

Dave suddenly stood up, and strolled over to the judge's bench.

Beal came to his feet, as did Ernie, and pulled his gun. Dave turned his back to them and said, "Judge, I want to ask some questions."

"All in good time," Judge Warburton said gravely.

"No, now!" He turned to face the courtroom, which was hushed now. He said to the prosecuting attorney, "What'll I be tried for?"

"If you'll sit down," the attorney began, "We'll conduct——"

"What am I?" Dave rapped out.

"For the killing of Jim Sholto, if you want to know!"

Dave turned to Judge Warburton. "You know who killed Sholto?"

Judge Warburton said patiently, "My good man, sit——"

"I didn't kill Sholto. But the man who did is in this room. And I can prove it!"

There was utter silence.

Beal came up, and said quickly, "Let him talk, judge. We'll get it straightened out later."

"Do you want to know who he is—with proof?" Dave asked Beal.

Beal said swiftly, "I do."

"Do you want me to prove to you that McFee's been swindled, that Wallace is a crook, that the man backin' Wallace is a killer?"

There was uproar in the courtroom.

Ernie lunged for the aisle and hurried down it to the back door. Judge Warburton whacked his gavel on the bench, and slowly the room settled into silence. Some one in the crowd called, "Pin him down, Harve!"

When there was silence once more, Beal said, "If the court will let him talk, we may find out something of value."

Beal said, "Go ahead."

Dave said, "Sheriff, this whole thing hinges on one letter. That letter is in the postoffice below. It's addressed to George Bemis. There ain't any George Bemis. I wrote the letter. If you go get it, you'll learn somethin'."

Beal looked perplexedly at Warburton, who said, "This whole thing is against any known rules, so we might as well break another one. Go get the letter, sheriff."

"Get McFee, too," Dave said. "I need him."

The judge nodded at Beal again, and Beal went out with two men. Dave stood in front of the judge's bench, hands on hips, arrogantly facing the crowd.

Soon Beal returned with McFee and the letter, which he gave to Judge Warburton.

"And now what?" Judge Warburton asked. The crowd was utterly quiet.

"I'll start with the night McFee and I broke jail," Dave began, talking to the crowd. "We were bein' held for killin' Sholto, me for shootin' him, McFee for payin' me to do it. Sholto wasn't dead. You know that now, because we brought him back to town."

He looked at Warburton, and Warburton nodded.

"The night after we broke loose, we stopped at the Bib M. We gave Mrs. Sholto a note to give to Miss McFee. Is Mrs. Sholto here?"

Lily, sitting next to Carol, stood up. Dave said, "Did McFee give you a note?"

"He did," Lily said.

"Do you know what was in it?"

"No."

Dave waved her down and said, "Sheriff, you followed Miss McFee out to the Bib M with Lacey Thornton and your deputy. When you went into the house, did Miss McFee have a letter in her hand?"

Beal looked blankly at him, and then pursed his lips. "She did. I remember."

Dave saw Thornton. "Did she, Thornton?" he asked.

Thornton said, "Yes, I think so."

"Did she Ernie?" Dave called.

"I never saw it," Ernie said truthfully.

Dave turned to Maitland. "Did she, senator?"

"She did," Maitland said.

"All right," Dave went on, "Beal wanted to search the house. Miss McFee put the letter she hadn't time to read on the hall table, and helped the sheriff search the house for us. When you came downstairs, what had happened to the letter, Miss McFee?"

Carol said faintly, "It was gone, stolen."

"Now remember," Dave said. "Only five people could have stolen it. Only four, really. Lily Sholto didn't steal it, or she would never have given it to Miss McFee. That leaves Sheriff Beal, Lacey Thornton, Ernie See, and Senator Maitland." He turned to the judge and said, "Is my count right, Judge?"

planned a supper party for the night of June 14. Miss Wilson and Mrs. Mercer are giving luncheons and Mrs. Henry J. Briede will give a tea, but the dates for these parties have not been set.

The wedding is to take place at 4:30 o'clock in the Church of the Holy Spirit in Lake Forest. Miss Loeber's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul C. Loeber, will give a reception at the Knollwood club. Mr. Harrington and his bride will make their home in Highland Park.

Woodward-Mathews Wedding on June 12.

The University of Chicago is host at most of the wedding parties for Miss Jean Woodward and Robert Warren Mathews, and at the same time the university is responsible for the limitations on their prenuptial entertaining. A member of the senior class, Mr. Mathews is very much occupied with examinations and preparations for them. Free time is filled with senior class commencement activities. There's a big party on the eve of the ceremony, which is planned for June 12, and the bride's parents, vice president emeritus of the university, Frederic Woodward, and Mrs. Woodward, are therefore not giving a bridal dinner.

Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Bachmeyer have taken one free evening, next Sunday, for a buffet supper party. Mr. Mathews will receive his degree next Tuesday. He and Miss Woodward have taken an apartment in Woodlawn avenue, not far from the Woodwards', in which they will be at home right after the wedding. They will go away later.

The best man is to be Richard Adkins of Nebraska, who attends Grinnell college. Ushering will be fellow D. K. E. members at the university, Lawrence Traeger and Donald Wilson, who also will be graduated next Tuesday.

Dr. Sidney Snow will officiate at the ceremony at 5 o'clock in the Thorndike Hilton Memorial chapel. A reception will follow at the Woodward home. Mr. Mathews is the son of Mrs. Edward Mathews of Norfolk, Neb.

Bentley-Cassidy Nuptials Advanced.

Miss Joan Bentley and Ensign Herbert Arthur Cassidy Jr., U. S. N., had made plans to be married on June 21 in New York but those plans were changed this week, and the bride-to-be and her parents, the Arthur Bentleys, departed yesterday for New York, where the wedding will take place on Saturday. The ceremony will be solemnized at 4:30 o'clock in the Waldorf hotel, the bridegroom's father, the Rev. Herbert A. Cassidy of Canal Fulton, O., officiating.

Miss Bentley will have her sister, Mrs. Charles B. Kayser Jr. of Haverford, Pa., for her only attendant. It is hoped that Dr. Robert Cassidy of Columbus, O., will be able to be there to act as best man. A small reception will follow the ceremony.

Ensign Cassidy is temporarily at the Brooklyn Navy yard, but he and Miss Bentley don't know where they will be at home. A number of parties that had been planned for Miss Bentley have had to be canceled. Mrs. Kayser and her infant daughter, Karen, born Jan. 15, will return to Chicago with the Bentleys and go with them to their summer home in Minocqua, Wis. Mr. Kayser will join them for his vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Carleton Williams of Grosses Pointe, Mich., are being congratulated on the birth of a son, Anthony Carleton Williams, on May 30 in Detroit. Mrs. Williams formerly was Miss Kean Hughes of Barrington.

Secor Cunninghams to Fete Granddaughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Secor Cunningham are entertaining at the weekly buffet dinner party of the Saddle and Cycle club tonight for their granddaughter, Miss Althea Cunningham, and William B. Johnson, who are to be married next Thursday. Two other parties for Miss Cunningham are a picnic the Robert W. K. McCoys are giving on Saturday, probably at the Dunes, and a milk punch party the Robert Smiths and the Channon Blackwells are giving Sunday noon.

Mrs. Howard Linn will introduce her old friends, Mrs. Averill Dougherty, of New York, as the speaker at a luncheon meeting of the Chicago chapter of France Forever at 12:30 o'clock today at the Arts club. Mrs. Dougherty, chairman of the Free French Relief committee in New York, is speaking in the place of Mme. Denise N. Davey, founder of the committee, who is having such a successful tour in California that she could not interrupt it to return here.

The American Friends of China will hold its annual meeting at the home of the president, Mrs. Harley F. MacNair, at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

Mrs. Hollis Kirk, who spent the winter in Arizona and California, arrived in Chicago on Tuesday and is with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Hollis, in their new apartment at 1242 Lake Shore drive. Mrs. Kirk will not be here long, however, for she leaves on Sunday for two weeks in New York. When she returns she will be in and near Chicago until August, when she probably will go west again.

If you haven't had the preserving kettle out of the cupboard yet this season, you'd better dig it out and give it a soapy bath so that you can put up a few jars of your favorite fruits. Just think of the lovely red strawberry preserves, the cherry jams, raspberry, and pineapple jellies and jams you can be making! Think how proud you'll be to get them out for company next fall and winter!

If you enjoy making jams and preserves as much as do most women, you'll like my booklet, "Mary Meade's Best Jams and Jellies" [23 cents, by mail]. It's packed with fine recipes [I think they're fine!] for jams, jellies, preserves, butters, marmalades, and conserves.

Right now these are the kinds of bread spreads you can make.

QUCIK RASPBERRY OR STRAWBERRY JAM.

Wash berries, drain, crush, and measure. To each cup of crushed berries, add ¾ cup sugar. Bring to a boil and boil rapidly until thickened, not longer than 20 minutes. The jam will darken if overcooked, and will thicken more upon standing. Do not try to work with a large amount of fruit, or evaporation will be slow and you are likely to overcook the jam, or to let it scorch.

A tablespoon of lemon juice for each cup of berries may be added, if desired. The lemon is particularly good with raspberries and aids in thickening a jam.

Sweet Cherry Preserves.

4 cups pitted sweet cherries and juice
½ cup lemon juice
3 cups sugar

Add water enough to keep cherries from scorching. Add lemon juice and bring to the boiling point. Add sugar and cook as rapidly as possible until preserves are clear and sirup is thick. Let cherries stand several hours in the sirup to "plump." Skim out fruit and place in clean jars. Bring sirup to a boil and pour over cherries. Seal at once.

Handsome Luncheon Cloth

BY ELLEN BRUCE.

A combination of crocheting and embroidery creates this good looking luncheon set. It is suitable for cloths measuring 36, 45, or 54 inches square. The pattern includes detailed embroidery instructions and complete directions for crochet work. Four hot iron transfer motifs, measuring approximately 4 by 7 inches, are used for cloth corners, and six motifs, measuring 1½ by 3½ inches, are for the napkins.

For the instructions for crocheting and embroidering the luncheon cloth, No. 748, send 10 cents in stamps or coin to the Needlework Bureau, Chicago Tribune, 220 Fifth avenue, New York City.

According to CULBERTSON

[Copyright: 1941: By Ely Culbertson.]

When you consider how many millions of different hands can be dealt to a pair of players, it seems astonishing that by the exchange of a few words they can usually arrive at the best contract. Under ideal conditions, each of the partners may have only two or three opportunities to speak. It follows, therefore, that each opportunity must be used to the best advantage. If a player is deprived of his opportunity to inform his partner of his strength or weakness, his side has suffered a loss. That is the underlying principle of preëmptive bidding. Note how North's bid in today's hand "fixed" East and West.

Both sides vulnerable.

♣ K Q

The bidding:

South	West	North	East
1 spade	Pass	4 spades	Pass
Pass	Pass

West was not strong enough to make a vulnerable overcall of South's opening bid; to bid two clubs or two diamonds would risk an enormous set.

North's bid of four spades is standard in the Culbertson system for this and similar situations. The raise to four spades says, in effect: "Partner, I have excellent trump support and freakish distribution. I have less than one and one-half honor tricks and, therefore, have every reason to believe that we cannot make a slam. My hand is strong enough on offense to assure you a reasonably good play for your game contract, but defensively I have little strength of my own, and my length in your suit weakens your defensive strength. Therefore I think it highly important to rob the opponents of precious rounds of bidding."

Now, consider the plight of poor East! From the bidding of North and South, East can depend on finding no more than a singleton spade in his partner's hand, but there his information ends. North has confessed to defensive weakness, but South may be lying in ambush, ready to pounce on a bid of five diamonds. At a contract of five diamonds East might very easily win only five or six tricks. He therefore has to pass, or make a double which is extremely likely to go wrong, whether or not West leaves it in.

South easily made 10 tricks in the play, dummy's clubs affording discards for his doubtful hearts.

Now consider what would happen if North fails to raise to four spades. As a lower level East would be able to bid diamonds. Then West would raise enthusiastically, and East-West would reach a contract of five diamonds. If allowed to play there, they would make game and rubber with ease. If North and South sacrificed at five spades, East-West would collect a 200 point penalty, instead of losing game and rubber.

U. of C. Offers Fast Course to Draft Eligibles

Revised course schedules, designed to give University of Chicago students increased opportunity to obtain degrees before entering military service, were announced yesterday by Robert M. Hutchins, president.

The new program capitalizes on the university's quarter system, officials said, and allows the student to complete the course in three years by attending school during summer sessions. Loan funds have been made available to students who normally would work during summer months.

"The purpose of this 'reinforcement' of the university's year round schedule is to aid students in putting their degrees behind them when they reach 21 and are called for their year of army training," said George A. Works, dean of students at the university. "Under the program, elective courses will be opened to students in the summer as well as during the other quarters."

The curriculum acceleration, Dean Works said, is in line with the university's efforts in the field of defense, involving the training of men and women for vital defense jobs as well as new research projects.

"The average entering age of our students is 18," said Dean Works. "If they pursue normal courses their university work will be interrupted by a year of army service, and their adjustments consequently upset. Furthermore, the need for university trained men and women in defense is heavy.

"The university is prepared to make ample loan funds available to students who otherwise would have to work in the summer. Student loans, incidentally, have been one of the university's best investments. Interest on student loans has recently been reduced to 5 per cent.

BROWNS FIRE HANEY; NAME LUKE SEWELL MANAGER

ST. LOUIS SIGNS INDIANS' COACH, EX-SOX CATCHER

Change Is Made as Club Falters.

St. Louis, Mo., June 4 (AP).—President Don Barnes of the St. Louis Browns announced tonight Fred Haney was being replaced as manager of the club by Luke Sewell, Cleveland coach and former White Sox catcher.

Sewell arrived in St. Louis this morning and the deal was concluded at a late afternoon conference. Haney made no announcement of his plans.

Sewell will take charge of the team tomorrow. He was signed to a contract covering the remainder of this season and all of next year, Barnes said. Terms of the contract were not disclosed.

Altho a change of managers had been rumored for some time, the announcement — Barnes notified the press himself—came as somewhat of a surprise less than two hours after the Browns had won their second straight game from Washington to move out of the cellar into seventh place.

Off to Bad Start.

Barnes said he did not care to comment on the showing of the club thus far.

Haney became manager in 1939 and the Browns that year set a doleful record. The club won only 43 games while losing 111. That was the year also of the big trade—Buck Newsom and three players to Detroit for four pitchers, an outfielder and an infielder.

The 1940 season ended with the Browns in sixth place after they had edged into first division in midseason, by beating Cleveland and New York consistently.

Thus Haney approached the present season with the brightest prospects in years. Midwinter deals had brought in veteran pitchers Denny Galehouse, Fritz Ostermueller, Johnny Allen and George Caster. The minors delivered Bob Muncrief.

Pitching Didn't Deliver.

Pitching, said Haney, would lift the Browns to the first division. But it failed. When the pitching was good the hitting was terrible, and vice versa.

A former third baseman, Haney wound up his active playing career with Hollywood on the Pacific coast and became manager of Toledo of the American association in 1935. He came to the Browns from Toledo.

Sewell broke into organized baseball with the Indians in 1921, coming directly from the University of Alabama campus. Except for a few weeks that summer with Columbus of the American association, he has been in the major leagues since.

Coached for Oscar Vitt.

He was Cleveland's first string catcher until 1933, when he was traded to Washington for Catcher Roy Spencer. He went to the Chicago White Sox in 1935 and stayed until released at the close of the 1938 season.

After being hired and released by Brooklyn, he joined Cleveland as a player-coach and caught a few games in 1939. He has been off the active list since.

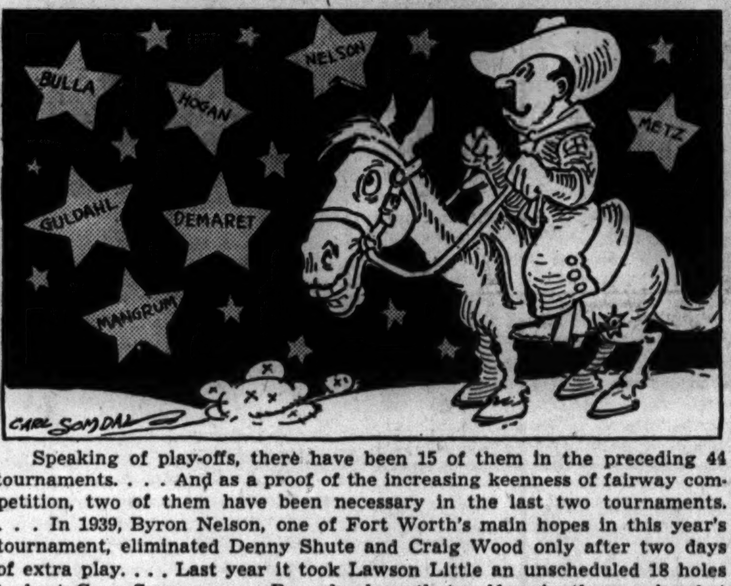
MOON MULLINS—EGG-HEAD

In the WAKE of the NEWS

BY ARCH WARD.

THE eyes of Texas [and the nation's tee-and-green faithful] today are upon the Colonial club in Fort Worth, Tex., where 169 of the land's ablest golfers will begin a three day battle for the 45th National Open Golf championship. . . . Forty-six years ago, come next October, one amateur—A. W. Smith of Toronto, Ont., and 10 professionals—assembled in Newport, R. I., for the first United States Open Golf tournament. . . . Horace Rawlins of the home club won that first tournament, a 36 hole event, with a score of 173. . . . Nowadays you can't get into the last 36 holes of the show unless you do the first 36 in about 153, the qualifying limit for last year's tournament in Cleveland. . . . Little did those 11 pioneers of 1895 realize that the Open would become a 72 hole competition that now ranks as the most valuable in the game. . . . The tournament remained strictly for pro winners until 1913, when a lanky Boston kid of 20 named Francis Ouimet gave golf its first real national impetus by beating the vaunted Harry Vardon and Ted Ray in that year's play-off.



Speaking of play-offs, there have been 15 of them in the preceding 44 tournaments. . . . And as a proof of the increasing keenness of fairway competition, two of them have been necessary in the last two tournaments. . . . In 1939, Byron Nelson, one of Fort Worth's main hopes in this year's tournament, eliminated Denny Shute and Craig Wood only after two days of extra play. . . . Last year it took Lawson Little an unscheduled 18 holes to beat Gene Sarazen. . . . Records show that golfers in the age bracket from 25 to 34 years are the most consistent Open winners. . . . Rawlins, at 19, was the youngest champion. . . . Ouimet and Sarazen were 20 when they scored. . . . Walter Hagen was 21. . . . Little will be 31 this month. . . . Yet Wood and Sarazen each were 38 when they tied for the last two championships. . . . Ted Ray was 43 when he won the 1920 title at Inverness.

Lowest round ever shot in the Open was 66. . . . That figure has been matched by Sarazen, Hagen, John Goodman, Tom Creavy, Jimmy Thomson, and Clayton Heafner. . . . Best first round was Sam Snead's 67 last year. . . . Lowest 36 hole scores are the 139s shot by Chick Evans and Snead. . . . Best score for 54 holes is 211, shared by Harry Cooper, Dick Metz, Ed Dudley, and Johnny Bulla. . . . Ralph Guldahl's 281 is the 72 hole record for the tournament, scored at Detroit in 1937.

This week's tournament marks the first time the Open ever has been played in the southwest. . . . Thanks to the efforts of Marvin Leonard of Colonial and the industry of the local committee, the biggest gate in Open history since Bobby Jones made his exit in 1930 is in prospect. . . . Texas is no longer the Lone Star state. . . . You can call it the eight star state when you count such brilliant swingers as Guldahl, Jimmy Demaret, Nelson, Ben Hogan, and Lloyd Mangrum, all of them natives. . . . The handsome Metz learned his golf in Texas and Betty Jameson, national women's champion, is another Texas product. . . . Five amateurs have won the Open title. . . . They were Bobby Jones, who took it four times; Ouimet, Jerry Travers, Chick Evans, and Goodman. . . . Willie Anderson tied Jones' record of four victories, and is the only man ever to win it three times in a row, achieving that in 1903, 1904, and 1905. . . . Among the double winners were Guldahl in 1937 and 1938; Hagen in 1914 and 1919; Sarazen in 1922 and 1932; Johnny McDermott in 1911 and 1912, and Alex Smith in 1906 and 1910.

Safari Into Yesterday.

Once more, I thought, and ere they've vanished quite,
Swept on by garish, modernistic boom,
I'd like to eat just one more restful meal
In some old-fashioned, ornate dining room;
And so I sought one out: an old hotel
Which in its day has housed the truly great,
Glamorous names of a fast-ebbing age
Had often tarried there within its gate.

So there I sat in the soft candlelight
No raucous din of "swing" or blaring band;
Just murmured overtones of easy, pleasant talk.
And ere the candles flickered and burned low,
I caught once more the spirit of the place
That once found hospice in these quiet rooms—
They were indeed, the lovely years of grace!

—Jazbo of Old Dubuque.

NATIONAL OPEN STARTS TODAY IN FORT WORTH

11 Former Champions in Field of 169.

BY CHARLES BARTLETT.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Fort Worth, Tex., June 4.—The first 18 holes of the 45th open tournament of the United States Golf association will be played tomorrow over the baffling fairway widths and corners of the Colonial club here. The second 18 will be shot on Friday, with the low 60 scorers and ties for the first 36 holes entering Saturday's final 36.

This appears to be a rudimentary announcement of the game's biggest show, but the secret of this inaugural USGA tournament in the southwest appears to lie in the word "open." As applied to the tournament, it always has meant that amateurs, professionals, and foreign entrants are eligible. But when you speak of this 1941 battle, the term "open" goes back to the original dictionary definition, implying a free style divergence of opinion on the likely 72 hole winning score.

A field of 169 players, including 11 golfers who have accounted for 13 of the championships since 1922 are entered. The swinging battalion in this first Texas national includes with it one of the best amateur fields ever to go to the first tee.

22 Chicagoans in Field.

It also includes 22 Chicagoans, largest single detail from any one town. Three of those from our town —Ralph Guldahl, Tommy Armour, and Chick Evans—have won four of the open championships — and one, Dick Metz, has been runner-up.

The former champions involved, aside from Evans, Armour, and Guldahl, include Gene Sarazen, winner in 1922 and 1932, [and O, yes, runner-up in last year's playoff at the ripe age of 38]; Johnny Farrell of 1928; Byron Nelson, national professional title holder, who won in 1939 and who is one of Fort Worth's main native son hopes; Tony Manero, who came out of the Baltusrol woods to take the title in 1936.

John Goodman, last amateur winner at North Shore in Chicago eight years ago; Armour, victor in a playoff with Harry Cooper at Oakmont in 1927; Sam Parks, the first man to escape Oakmont's horrors in 1935; Olin Dutra, the giant Californian who won at Merion in 1934, and one of the most popular ex-champions in any sport; Bill Burke of Cleveland, who won after a 72 hole playoff at Inverness 10 years ago next month. And, of course, there is Lawson Little, the defending champion.

Picard Burns Hand.

Sarazen fired a two under par 68 today, as did Leonard Dodson of Kansas City. Little had a 73, his best practice round. Henry Picard burned his hand while lighting a match on the No. 12 fairway and there was some doubt tonight whether he would be able to play. His left thumb and forefinger were scorched.

The variegation of sentiment tonight was such that it was difficult not to leave the premises for a run down to Mexico with the idea of returning Saturday night and asking such questions as "who won?" "how many hangings were there on the fifth hole?"; "what were the drowning casualties on the eighth and 13th?", and "when do they start playing off tomorrow?"

Citizens around here who suggest that 280, the 72 hole par for the 35—35—70 Colonial course, will be broken get looks suggesting they must be daffy. Mr. Sarazen figures that the winner's range will run from 286 to 290. The record low score of 281 was shot in 1937 by Guldahl in Detroit. Chicago district entrants:

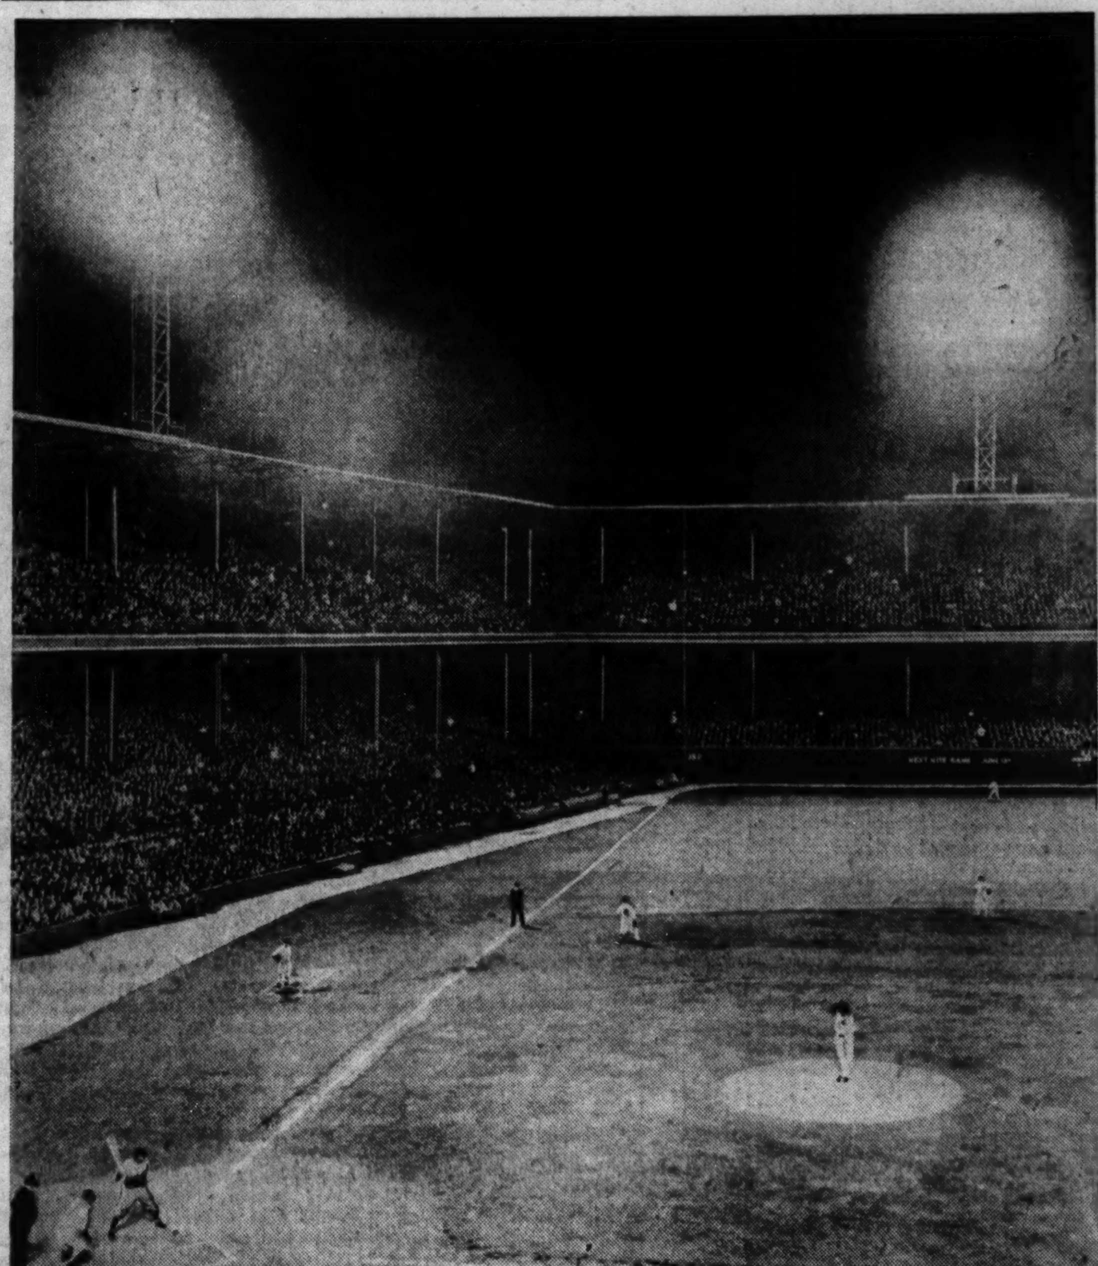
A Night Out for the White Sox—and Connie!



Comiskey park at night—as it looked when the White Sox met and defeated the Athletics yesterday, 6 to 1—in Chicago's first of seven 1941 American league games under the lights. The game attracted 32,659.

Chicago Fans Give Watch to Connie Mack

The 78 year old Connie Mack, one of the few active survivors of the American league's natal day, had a lot of fun to the plaudits of Chicago fans last night in Comiskey park. The venerable leader of the Athletics picked up a couple of new specimens for his elaborate collection of baseball trophies.

After marching from home plate to second base and back with the snappy Board of Trade post American Legion band, Mack was presented over the loud speaker system by Mayor Kelly who had been introduced by Eddie Munzel, White Sox publicity director. Mack was handed a platinum, diamond faced watch and an engraved plaque.

In a brief talk Mack paid tribute to the late Charles A. Comiskey and J. Louis Comiskey, adding afterward that Chicago fans would have reason to feel very proud of James Dykes, Sox manager, by the time the 1941 season was concluded. This remark brought Dykes on the run to shake hands with his former master, whereupon Mack sent a titter thru the crowd by exclaiming: "But because Dykes is my friend, don't think we don't try to beat him at every opportunity."

Bill Dietrich will miss his next pitching turn which would have come up tomorrow or Saturday. In the fifth inning against Washington last Monday he stopped a batted ball with his bare hand and altho he insisted it didn't hurt, the right thumb swelled up later and is still that way.

The Athletics' lineup underwent a last minute revision last night. First Baseman Dick Siebert injured his knee Sunday, the last day the Macks played, and when he tried to work out last night the joint wouldn't function without pain. Outfielder Bob Johnson went to first and Dee Miles took over Johnson's fly chasing job.

LEE THROTTLES MACK SLUGGERS WITH FIVE HITS

BY IRVING VAUGHAN.

The White Sox turned on the lights in Comiskey park last night for the first time this season and with the aid of the illumination, not to mention base hits and Thornton [Lefty] Lee, they had no trouble finding their way to victory over the Philadelphia Athletics. The Sox's attack, topped by Dario Lodigiani, an Athletic alumnus, was boisterous enough to pile up a 6 to 1 success before 32,659. The achievement boosted the Sox back within one game of first place.

For Connie Mack, the venerable leader of the Athletics, who was feted in a pregame ceremony, it wasn't exactly a happy outcome, but the Sox apparently operated on the theory that friendship is one thing and business another. They took Lester McCrabb, one of Connie's surprising rookies, apart with their bats, fielded sensationally, except in one harmless instance, and Lee's southpawing did the rest. He chocked off the enemy on five hits for his seventh victory of the season against two setbacks.

Three for Dario.

Lodigiana's reception for his former boss was overly vigorous. He couldn't be stopped until he had plunked three hits into the flood lighted arena. He began his mischievous work with a double in the second inning, later scoring on this drive with the first run of the struggle. He was slowed up on a long fly in the third, an inning in which two of the Sox skipped home. But he launched another one run foray in the sixth. In the seventh the preceding batter, Taft Wright, was purposely passed to fill the bases and Lodigiani came thru with another single to drive in two runs.

Lee's job, his ninth complete game in 10 starts, was practically sweatproof. He gave up singles in the second and third and these, except for two passes, were the extent of the Athletics' sustenance in the first five innings. In the sixth he surrendered another hit, Bob Johnson's homer. He gave up another single in the eighth and the last in the ninth. All except one of the five hits came after two were out. His performance made the 33d game in 45 starts in which the Sox's starting pitcher went the route.

Sox Get Going.

McCrabb held off the Sox in the first inning, despite a single and a walk. The secret of his success was that Kolloway, after leading off with a single, was doubled off first when McCoy made an unexpected catch of one of Appling's typical bloopers to short right. The Sox's run in the second inning was a sort of letter from pupil to master. Lodigiani let go with his double, a drive just beyond the reach of Moses. Kreevich bunted Lodigiani to third, whence Lodigiani scored on Hoag's fly to Moses.

Lee elected himself to start the rumpus that increased his advantage by two runs in the third. He dropped a single beyond the reach of McCoy and was moved to second by Kolloway's bunt. Appling tried hard enough, but Moses snared his long, low liner. Kuhel responded to the emergency by doubling against the right field wall, Lee scoring leisurely. Wright then whipped a line single over short to score Kuhel. Lodigiani spanked a fly to deep center, but S. Chapman captured it.

Johnson Busts One.

Lee's conduct was so excellent that there were no exciting incidents until Johnson poked his 11th homer of the season into the right field seats with two out in the sixth. The Sox had this run back before the inning had ended. Lodigiani opened with a single. He was forced by Kreevich, who stole second and promptly went to third when McCrabb threw wild trying to catch him napping off second. Hoag walked. Kreevich charged home while Hoag was being forced by Tresh in what would have been a double play if McCoy's throw to Johnson had been accurate.

Kolloway touched off the profitable

PATIENCE BRINGS TURF REWARD TO TRAINER WYATT

BY HOWARD BARRY.

Euall Wyatt, the good looking, soft spoken young man who has charge of Mrs. James F. Waters' horses, yesterday put a successful finish to one of the toughest jobs a trainer has to face.

Euall Wyatt.

It's hard enough to bring a good, sound horse back after a long layoff and get him home on top in his first start, even with favorable track conditions. Wyatt won yesterday at Lincoln Fields with a sprinter named Jehoover, which was making his first attempt since he had broken down last summer. Moreover, the track was so heavy and dead from the preceding day's rain that it put the horse's staying power to a severe test.

And that wasn't all. Wyatt was really on the spot because he had claimed Jehoover for $2,500 out of the Washington Park race in which he had broken down. So if he couldn't bring him back it would have looked bad for the young man's judgment in filing the claim. The rules specify that claims shall be filed and the money put up before the race and, after it is over, the horse shall be delivered to the claimant "dead or alive, sound or unsound."

No Bargain After Race.

Well, Jehoover wasn't exactly dead when he was delivered to Wyatt on that afternoon last summer at Washington Park, but he didn't seem to have much racing life left in him. He came out of that six furlong dash with bad knees, bad ankles, and a splint, which is a sore, bony growth.

Wyatt took one look at him and shipped him back to Mrs. Waters' farm near San Francisco. The firing irons and blisters were applied. Then Jehoover was turned out to loaf around the pastures thruout the late summer and autumn.

As the weeks went by, the crippled Jehoover began to improve. Presently he showed a disposition to romp and canter over those California meadows, for he was only a 3 year old and had plenty of spirit.

Pace Stepped Up.

Every morning for 40 days, an exercise boy took Jehoover out for a slow two mile gallop. Then the pace was stepped up by easy stages. First Jehoover was breezed a quarter of a mile twice a week. This was increased gradually an eighth of a mile at a time.

Spring came and Wyatt brought the Waters string of horses to Chicago. The scene of Jehoover's efforts shifted to Sportsman's Park and then to Lincoln Fields. Finally, several days ago, Wyatt sent him out to work seven-eighths of a mile, and he did it handily. The trainer took a last look at him and decided that he was ready to go.

The spot was the first race on yesterday's program—a six furlong dash for horses of the $1,500 class. Wyatt wasn't afraid of losing Jehoover with that price tag on him because the other trainers naturally would be suspicious of a horse which was coming back after breaking down. The public, however, played the horse down to 2 to 1.

Jehoover Breaks Fast.

Johnny Adams sent Jehoover out swiftly from the No. 1 post position to take the lead, but the 9 to 2 second choice, Fritz, forced a hard pace. Side by side they swung around the turn and headed into the stretch.

Here was where that heavy going might begin to tell on a horse making his first start after a long layoff. But Adams sat down and rode him steadily, and Jehoover responded. He came on boldly, drew clear before reaching midstretch, and pulled away to win by four lengths while Paul Lee was taking second place away from Fritz.

Wyatt's long job was done—and done well. Incidentally, there's a well known horseman down east who will be studying the chart of yesterday's first race at Lincoln Fields. He's quite a hand with horses himself, and it was from him that Wyatt claimed Jehoover. He'll understand what Wyatt's been going thru about that horse, because he's been there himself. His name is Hirsch Jacobs.

Sea Scouts Again to Aid Prep Regatta

BY EDWARD PRELL.

The Chicago Sea Scouts again are going to help dress up the first annual Central States Schoolboy Rowing association regatta a week from Sunday in the Lincoln Park lagoon.

They are coming back to The Tribune's annual big rowing event for the third straight year, after being popularly received by the thousands who watched the regattas in 1939 and 1940. The heavy navy cutters which they row contrast sharply with the long, sleek yellow shells, but afford just as much excitement for the spectators as they are powered thru the water by strong, young hands.

The appearance of 12 Sea Scout ships of the Chicago Boy Scout council will make for several races to intersperse in the program of high school and university eight-oared, four-oared, two-oared and single-oared events.

Will See Famous Oarsmen.

Chicago water sports enthusiasts, recognizing something good when they hear about it, still are finding it hard to believe they will get to see the nation's greatest intercollegiate oarsmen in action at the regatta. A race between university crews is something new to Chicago. The average sports fan's conception of college rowing is confined to the memory of news reel shots showing the shells racing in the Poughkeepsie regatta on the Hudson river.

They will see the University of Washington's varsity and junior crews, defending national champions, row a mile against Wisconsin's strong varsity and freshman eights. And when the excitement of these matches has died down a bit, champion schoolboy crews from several cities of the middlewest and east will keep interest at a high pitch. The program will start at 2 o'clock.

Private Sea Scout Fight.

The Sea Scout cutters Half Moon and Jolly Roger, which each won races in last year's regular regatta, not only are competing again, but are matched against each other. They are 26 foot boats. There also will be competition among the 28 foot cutters.

Three heats will be run in each division, and the winning crews will compete in the finals. Selection of the 12 cutters was announced by Commodore Hollis E. Potter, who has appointed Walter Furth, vice commodore of the Chicago Sea Scouts, to direct entire Sea Scout participation in the regatta, both afloat and ashore.

In addition to battling among themselves on the water, the Scouts will provide radio communication and messenger service. Portable ultra-high frequency radio transmitter-receiving sets will be placed at both ends of the course, at the finish line, and at other strategic points. Sea Scouts will operate this equipment under the supervision of Vice Commodore Fred Garner, radio officer of the organization.

Assistants Named.

Assisting Commodore Furth will be John R. La Rocco, Garard LaCourse, Carl Schmidt, and Chet A. Koehler. The latter is Sea Scout director of the Chicago area. Following is a list of the competing cutters:

26 FOOT CUTTERS.

28 FOOT CUTTERS.

CHICAGO OWNERS GROOM DOGS FOR COMING MATCHES

Puppy, All-Breed Events Listed for June.

BY BOB BECKER.

Chicagoland fanciers have a heavy program of dog events this month, so local breeders and exhibitors are grooming their purebreds for the first match—the Midwest Puppy Match association's annual summer meeting to be held on the Suburban club grounds, two miles west of Hinsdale, on Ogden avenue, Sunday afternoon.

All breeds under one year of age are eligible, according to Mrs. Harry J. Lowenbach, club secretary. Judges will be Harry Osborne, Chicago, in the sporting, hound and nonsporting groups; Willy Necker, Wheeling, working dogs; Mrs. Marie Stone, Milwaukee, terriers; and Mrs. F. W. Fieler, Chicago, toy breeds. Judging will begin at 2 o'clock. Owners who want to enter their pets or watch the judging may obtain further information by writing to Mrs. Lowenbach, Willow and Shermer roads, Glenview, Ill.

Retrievers Will Compete.

Three local all-breed shows will be held within an hour's drive of the loop between June 14 and 22. The Calumet Kennel club show will be held June 14 in the 113th Engineers armory, Gary. Top judging assignments in this event will be handled by Harry Osborne, Thomas M. Halpin, well known Chicago collie breeder, and A. W. Brockway, Mount Sterling, Ky. They will divide the group judging assignments and Mr. Brockway will pick the best dog in show.

On Sunday, June 15, the Hawthorne race track will be the site of the third annual Skokie Valley club all-breed show. Judging will start at 10 a. m. Sportsmen may expect to see big entries of water dogs in this show for the Chesapeake Bay Retriever club of the central states and the American Water Spaniel club have designated the classes for their breeds as their specialty show. Entries for the June 15th bench classic may be sent to A. Wilson Bow, superintendent, Atlantic hotel, Chicago.

Bulldog Matches, Too.

The third all-breed show on the Chicagoland circuit is the Lake Shore Kennel club to be held June 22 in the Hammond, Ind., Civic Center. Bulldog owners will be interested in the sanctioned puppy match for this breed to be held by the Chicago Bulldog club June 29. The event will be held at the Suburban club, Hinsdale, Mrs. Berndalyn Kewley, 6801 North Sheridan road, is the club secretary.

On June 29 Chicagoland dogs will compete in the all-breed obedience tests to be sponsored by the West Point Training club. The event will be held in the Gessner Kennels, West Higgins road. COCHRAN TO FACE LYDA IN CENTRAL COLLEGIATE MEET Quarter Mile Record May Fall in Milwaukee.

BY WILFRID SMITH.

The eight year old record for the 440 yard dash in the Central Collegiate conference track meet may be broken tomorrow night in Marquette university stadium, Milwaukee. In addition, the Big Ten champion, Roy Cochran of Indiana university, may take his first licking of the year. Cochran will face, among others, Bill Lyda of Oklahoma, whose mark of 46 6/10 seconds in the Big Six games this spring betters the present Central Collegiate record for the 440.

Lyda whipped Nebraska's Gene Littler, no small feat in itself, to take the Big Six quarter mile dash and his time is the best for the group of contestants in this event. Trials in this race, and in nine others of the 16 scheduled in the Central meet, will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 [Chicago daylight time]. The championships will start at 9 o'clock.

He's Tops Under Pressure.

Cochran cannot be counted out, of course, for he is the type of competitor who does his best under pressure. A year ago in the Big Ten indoor meet in the University of Chicago fieldhouse, Cochran broke the American record for the quarter mile with an astounding 48 2/10 seconds mark. He was unable to compete in the 1940 outdoor meet in Evanston when he pulled a muscle in the 100 yard dash. This year he took the indoor quarter mile after a challenge by Michigan's Bob Ufer, and he followed this victory with an outdoor victory in the same event in Minneapolis.

Cochran's time was only 48 6/10 seconds, but he was not pushed. In fact a team mate, Marc Jenkins, running one of his better 440 yard meets, came up to take second place away from Ed Porter of Ohio State. Last Saturday Notre Dame's Ray Roy, who certainly will place in the Central Collegiate quarter mile, forced Cochran to the limit. Roy didn't have the early speed of the Hoosier star, but he came up on even terms in the stretch. In the final sprint Cochran took the lead and won with the excellent time of 48 seconds.

Field Marks in Jeopardy.

The Central record of 47 8/10 seconds, demonstrably within the range of Lyda, was made by Wendall Davis, of Pittsburg, Kas., Teachers college in 1933. Lyda, Cochran and Roy are the big three in this race.

Records also may be broken in the shot put, discus throw, and half mile. Consummation of this forecast depends on the weather, but Archie Harris of Indiana should better his own Central Collegiate record of 163 feet 8¾ inches. He came within an inch and a half of the world mark of 174 feet 2½ inches in the Big Ten met and had a throw of 173 feet 11 inches the following Saturday in the Los Angeles coliseum games.

Campbell Kane of Indiana can break the half mile record of 1:52 made in 1938 by Pittsburgh's great runner, John Woodruff, but Kane has no serious competition and he probably will not extend himself. Moreover, he will run the mile a half hour earlier, which will dull his competitive edge.

Harris Is Threat.

The shot put record of 51 feet 3/5 inch, by Don Elser of Notre Dame, in 1934, is vulnerable, Harris is below his 1940 form, but he won the Big Ten title with a put of 50 feet and might cut loose at any time. A better bet is Jim Delaney of Notre Dame, who won the Indiana state title last Saturday from Harris, and who also took the Penn relay shot put championship. He is a consistent 51 foot performer. Ed Hahnfeldt of the United States Naval academy has a mark of 50 feet 7 inches, and Wisconsin's George Peskvan, who won the Big Ten indoor shot put title, must be given a chance for the championship, altho he probably cannot set a new record.

In addition to Lyda, Oklahoma also is sending Jack Jacobs and Orville Mathews, Sooner football stars. The latter is the Big Six sprint champion and his mark of 9 6/10 seconds, if repeated, should win the 100 yard dash tomorrow. Jacobs has thrown the javelin better than 192 feet, but this event quite likely will be won by the defending champion, Don Vosberg of Marquette who last week took the I. C. 4-A title in New York.

Boston, Mass., June 4 (AP).—Art Johnson, rookie southpaw from nearby Arlington, dropped the St. Louis Cardinals into second place in the National league today by holding them to nine hits as the Braves beat Harry Gumbert, 4 to 2. It was Gumbert's first defeat in five starts since the Cards obtained him from the Giants.

While dropping out of the first place tie with the idle Dodgers, the Cardinals were shut out until the sixth when, with two out, Enos Slaughter beat out a bunt. Rookie Frank Crespi then doubled to left and Slaughter was able to score on West's feeble throw to the plate. Crespi raced from second on the throw-in and, trying to round third, collided with Sisti. The latter was charged with interference and Crespi was called in to provide the Cards with their other run. Score:

seventh with his double into the left field corner. A pass to Appling came next. Kuhel moved them up by bunting. Mack then ordered Wright passed purposely, thinking Lodigiani merely had been lucky in his previous forays. Lodigiani promptly came thru with his third hit—a single to left—scoring Kolloway and Appling with the last runs of the night and sending Wright to third. Kreevich then delivered the double play grounder the Macks had expected from Lodigiani.

Rain Keeps Dodgers and Cubs Apart

BY EDWARD BURNS.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Brooklyn, N. Y., June 4.—It's hard to figure whether the Cubs were lucky it rained out their scheduled game with the Brooklyn Dodgers this afternoon.

If the Cubs had been able to pick up where they left off with the Dodgers in Chicago, you remember—7 to 4 on May 18; 14 to 1 on May 19 and 9 to 1 on May 20—playing today would have had tonic value in helping the lads forget their recent experiences in Philadelphia.

On the other hand, if the Cubs had played today, had been shut out and had the hidden ball trick worked on them a time or two, it might have been just too much, even to a team that is becoming pretty much accustomed to adversity.

Passeau to Pitch Tonight.

In any event the Cubs did not play today and must now wait till tomorrow night before Claude Passeau has a chance at the Dodgers. Claude hasn't won a game since the aforesaid 14 to 1 conquest of the Dodgers on May 19.

With today's rainout—the game's to be played as part of a double header on July 16—the Cubs will leave Brooklyn with no worse than an even break in the season series. If they win it will be four victories in six games for the Cubs in 1941 competition with the Dodgers. Brooklyn won here, 7 to 3, on May 2 and 4 to 3 the following day.

On form the Cubs will go into the game in a slump. They made only three runs in their last three games against Phillies—and one run a game average against tailenders isn't the kind of production needed to trim the Dodgers on their home premises, where they have won ten of their last eleven games.

Cub Outfield Is Crippled.

There's some question about the Cub outfield, what with Hank Leiber helpless at bat and suffering from a sore thumb, Bill Nicholson with a sore heel, Lou Novikoff with a black and swollen eye, caused by a batting practice foul, and Augie Galan reported still dazed after being the main fall guy in yesterday's hidden ball manipulation in Philadelphia.

Dom Dallessandro is really the only sound outfielder on the squad, even counting Charley Gilbert, obtained in the Billy Herman deal with the Dodgers. Dom wants to stay sound, for many reasons, among them being the exhibition game which the Cubs will play Friday night in Reading, his home town.

FIRE BOB ZUPPKE, WILSON, PLEA OF STATE SENATOR

Springfield, Ill., June 4 [Special].—Senator John W. Fribley [D., Pana] told the senate today that the University of Illinois should fire Coach Robert C. Zuppke, the entire coaching staff, and Athletic Director Wendell Wilson "and start out to develop some football teams which will advertise our state."

"University football teams advertise our state, and before we spend many more millions supporting the university the athletic situation should be ironed out. I would suggest that the coach, the athletic director, and all the coaching staff be fired, so that a new outfit could start developing football teams of which we can be proud and which will advertise our state."

Baseball's Men in Blue

[This is the tenth of a series on American league umpires.]

JOE RUE reported to his parents in Kentucky June 14, 1898. . . . Family migrated to Kansas City. . . . Was like the average American youth so far as baseball was concerned. . . . Went thru the usual process—amateur, etc. . . . Even had a limited whirl at college baseball. Appeared in a Western league box score in 1921. . . . Away from baseball in 1922 and also in 1923 until an unexpected call shaped his career. . . . An umpire was missing from an American association game at Kansas City and in the emergency Rue was invited to fill in. . . . Wild game developed and the fans, appreciating Rue was a novice, gave him the works. . . . Rue took it in stride and came out of the jam with his hide intact. . . . Courage under fire earned him appointment in American association for 1924 season, but he was shipped to Virginia league for experience. . . . Back in the AA in 1927 for four seasons. . . . Then to the Pacific Coast league and back to the AA until purchased by the American league in 1938. . . . Did a stretch with the United States marine corps in 1917.

LANDIS TO HOLD PARLEY TODAY ON ALL-STAR GAME

Detroit, Mich., June 4 (AP).—Details of the All-Star game to be played in Briggs stadium July 8 will be worked out here tomorrow by Baseball Commissioner K. M. Landis, William Harridge, American league president, and Ford Frick, head of the National league.

OVERMIRE AND BRONCOS BEAT IOWA NINE, 5-1

Kalamazoo, Mich., June 4 [Special].—Western Michigan scored its 21st victory in 22 starts today by defeating Iowa, 5 to 1, behind the four hit pitching of Frank Overmire. It was Overmire's eighth victory.

Iowa was held without a hit until the seventh when two singles with an error gave the Hawkeyes their run.

HUNDREDS STAND IN DOWNPOUR FOR GEHRIG FUNERAL

New York, June 4 [Special].—A little knot of his friends saw Lou Gehrig off today. The funeral rites in Christ Protestant Episcopal church, the Bronx, were private and simple. The pastor, the Rev. Gerald V. Barry, read the burial services.

"The request has been made," he said, "that there be no eulogy—because you all knew Lou."

There was no music except the beating of the rain against the stained glass windows of the tiny nave where sat Lou's baseball associates, high city officials, his associates on the city parole commission, and four of the doctors from Mayo clinic, who fought for two years to save him from the paralysis that ended his career and finally his life.

Outside in the continual rain stood the fans, loyal to the last. There were hundreds of them.

The cortège, without escort at the request of the family, made its way to the Triborough bridge and out to the Fresh Pond crematory in Middle Village, Queens.

SUMMER REVUE ON W-G-N PROVES COMEDY SUCCESS

The new W-G-N-Mutual Summertime Revue, which made its bow last evening, was intended to be a half hour of gay, light and refreshing modern melody and rhythm. It turned out to be hilariously funny, as well.

The comedy was provided by four instrumentalists from the W-G-N Dance orchestra, directed by Harold Stokes, who put on wigs, beards and long coats for a special musical presentation titled "In the Groove with Grieg." It was the strangest interpretation of Grieg ever aired from W-G-N. Pierre Andre described it for the benefit of radio listeners. Much of the program was devoted to popular songs, available to W-G-N-Mutual thru the new agreement with ASCAP.

Edna Odell sang "Does Your Heart Beat for Me?" and "Speak Your Heart." Jack Haskell, a newcomer from Northwestern university, made a hit with the favorites, "Star Dust" and "I Surrender, Dear."

The show closed with a medley of old familiar tunes with the studio audience getting a memory test on their identities. Lou Jackobson produced the show.

WARNS DEMAND FOR POWER MAY CLIMB RAPIDLY

OPM Official Says Arms Come First.

BY PHILIP HAMPSON.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Buffalo, N. Y., June 4.—The electric power industry may be asked to make even larger contributions to the preparedness program than it has already given, W. L. Batt, deputy director, production division of the Office of Production Management, told members of the Edison Electric Institute today at their annual convention here. He warned all industry that arms needs must come first, with civilian second, even if it means giving up "pleasures, comforts and some necessities."

W. L. Batt.

"We don't want to make the mistakes of England in the first nine months of the war," Batt said. "The early British efforts had all the ear marks of running a cheap war, with a good part of business being carried on as usual. To my amazement, I find that England is doing many things in a normal fashion even at present—things which I would hardly expect to be done in view of the gravity of the situation."

Bound by Arsenal Pledge.

Batt, who was president of S-K-F Industries, Inc., Philadelphia, when he took the OPM post, said that having promised Britain and China that we would be their "arsenal" we now have to make good on that pledge.

"We are certainly committed under the lend-lease act to the pooling of this country's resources and we have got to do the job. We have to regret that we have been so slow in delivering, for a day lost can never be regained."

Batt said the nation is walking close to war with a tremendously strong adversary.

"I say adversary advisedly," he continued, "because in ordinary circumstances we have done things which might have gotten us into war. Germany at the time the war started was spending half its annual income on arms. To build a war machine to match Germany's at the start of the war would have cost us 100 billion dollars. And in the meantime Germany has added greatly to its war machine."

Asserts People Are Naive.

Batt declared that the people of this country have failed to understand the gravity of the situation. They have been naive about the ability of our manufacturers to produce, believing that arms needs could be "taken care of Friday afternoons, Saturdays, and Sundays." Industry itself did not realize the size of the job, he added.

"We have been surprised by the variety of the bottlenecks. We were complacent about our supplies of raw materials, without realizing that a great deal came from half way around the world. And the country found it surprising when we are not at war that many materials were being rationed. There will be others."

Batt said that there are not nearly enough machines available to do the arms job. He urged all industry to make every idle machine available to the preparedness program and indicated that unless this is done voluntarily, the government might requisition them.

Aluminum Need Raised.

He disclosed that the government's arms program now calls for 1 billion 600 pounds of aluminum contrasted with the 400 millions at the start and the total needed may be even more. Production of the aluminum and magnesium required for the arms industry will take about 1,000,000 kilowatts of additional electric power, he said. He suggested universal daylight saving time as one way to conserve power.

POWER OUTPUT DIPS

Electric power produced by utility companies in the United States during the week ended May 31 totaled 2,898,000,000 kilowatt hours, compared with 3,011,754,000 in the preceding week and 2,477,689,000 in the same period last year, according to estimates received in Chicago yesterday from the Edison Electric institute.

The production was reported as a preliminary figure because of holiday conditions. The increase over the 1940 output was 17 per cent.

Commonwealth Edison company reported output for the week ended May 31 of 132,431,000 kilowatt hours, against 117,281,000 in the corresponding 1940 week, an increase of 12.9 per cent. The figures are adjusted to show general business conditions of the territory served by deducting sales outside of the territory to other utility companies.

Predicts 1.4 Million More Workers to Get Arms Jobs

Washington, D. C., June 4 (AP).—The department of labor estimated today that 1,408,000 additional workers would be required in certain armament industries by April, 1942. It placed labor needs at 323,900 for shipbuilding; 408,400 for aircraft; 291,000 for machine tools and ordnance, and 384,700 in other metal working industries.

14 Rail Groups Seek Millions in Pay Boosts

The nation's railroads were confronted last night by demands for pay increases for 1,150,000 organized workers. Fourteen labor organizations, composed of clerks, machinists, telegraphers and other nonoperating employés, decided to seek raises of 30 to 34 cents an hour for their 800,000 members.

Five unions embracing the operating personnel, engineers, firemen, conductors, switchmen and trainmen, voted on May 19 to request a 30 per cent wage hike for the 350,000 men they represented.

Heads of the nonoperating organizations, meeting in the Morrison hotel, stated that they had decided to request adjustments which would provide for a minimum wage of 70 cents an hour as the lowest rate to be paid in the industry and corresponding increases to provide up to $1.15 an hour for highly skilled workers.

The increases — if granted — would add many millions to the carriers' annual pay rolls. The nonoperating unionists did not compute their demands in terms of dollars. The operating brotherhoods calculated that the raises they sought would approximate 168 million dollars a year.

CALL AIRPLANE STRIKE

Inglewood, Cal., June 4 (AP).—W. P. Goodman, chairman of the CIO United Automobile Workers union at the North American Aviation corporation plant here, said tonight that 9,000 production workers would strike tomorrow [at 6 a. m. Chicago time]. He declared the strike would close the huge plant, manufacturing war planes for the United States and Great Britain, and criticized the national defense mediation board for "stalling the workers."

The rival Aeronautic Machinists' union of the AFL began mobilizing men in accordance with an announcement last week that it would replace striking CIO members with its own workers.

The CIO demands an increase from 50 cents to 75 cents an hour in beginners' pay and a general increase of 10 cents an hour.

CHARGES 'BULLDOZING'

Washington, D. C., June 4 [Special].—Charging "bulldozing tactics," O. M. Orton, president of the International Woodworkers of America [CIO], today broke off negotiations with the National Defense Mediation board over the strike of 12,000 lumber men in the Puget Sound area. They seek a wage boost to 75 cents an hour, a closed shop, and vacations with pay.

Orton accused Board Chairman Clarence A. Dykstra of "labor busting," and declared the men would stay on strike until "they obtain a decent living." Orton asserted he had come to Washington twice within two weeks at the request of Dykstra, only to be "confronted with the same edict, that we accept the board's proposal which is in no way different from those previously offered by the Weyerhaeuser Timber company."

AWAIT TERMS ON COAL

Washington, D. C., June 4 (AP).—Representatives of soft coal miners and operators are scheduled to meet tomorrow with a panel of the National Defense Mediation board to hear the board's recommendations for settlement of their wage contract dispute. The meeting had been called for today, but was postponed.

The recommendations were still in an incomplete stage today, a board official admitted. Rejection of the recommendations may open a new strike of 400,000 coal miners in the seven-state Appalachian bituminous industry, it was said. A scheduled strike of that number of men was held up by John L. Lewis, UMW chief, pending the board's report.

POSTPONE ALCOA STRIKE

Cleveland, O., June 4 (AP).—CIO union leaders scheduled postponement of a strike called for midnight at the Aluminum Company of America plants here, but declared the workers probably would walk out unless the Defense Mediation board holds a conference on the dispute tomorrow. The strike threat was certified by Labor Secretary Frances Perkins to the board today, and a hearing was set for next Monday.

A spokesman for the die casting workers' union said a 300 member policy committee had voted postponement of the walkout, but that union members were demanding the board's meeting be moved up to tomorrow.

The CIO union is asking that the present 72 cent wage minimum be boosted to 75 cents an hour, together with a general wage increase of 4½ cents an hour.

STEEL WORKERS RETURN

Detroit, Mich., June 4 (AP).—A plea from Federal Conciliator James F. Dewey that workers return to their jobs brought an end tonight to a 28 hour strike at the Great Lakes Steel corporation. Dewey assured 8,100 employés made idle by the strike, which CIO officials termed "unauthorized," that they would "get as good a contract as any other in the industry" if they went back to work.

Union demands included a 7 cent hourly wage increase, time and a half for Saturdays, double time for Sundays and holidays, and two weeks' vacation with pay.

Willkie Elected Federal Insurance Co. Director

New York, June 4 (AP).—The election of Wendell L. Willkie as a director of the Federal Insurance company was announced today. The company specializes in fire, marine and general casualty insurance.

MIDWEST FOUND WELL SUPPLIED WITH GASOLINE

Threat of Shortage Confined to East.

In the wake of warnings from Washington that the government may soon institute "gasless Sundays," assurance was given yesterday by officials of major oil companies that the middle west will have a plentiful supply of gasoline and other petroleum products.

The diversion to Great Britain of 50 tankers that have been hauling oil from the gulf coast to Atlantic ports will not curtail the flow of oil to the middle west, company spokesmen said.

They emphasized that any shortage that develops in the east will result from a bottleneck in transportation rather than a shortage of supplies. Most of the crude oil and gasoline supply for the middle west is brought in by pipe line and barge.

[The United States Maritime commission yesterday ordered an additional 60 or 70 ships prepared for transfer to British service. Details on page 1.]

Have Own Pipe Lines.

Most of the big distributing companies in this area have their own pipe lines. Standard Oil of Indiana, Sinclair and Cities Service pipe crude oil from Texas and Oklahoma to their middle western refineries. Gasoline is also piped from the southwest to the middle western distributing points by Continental Oil and Phillips Petroleum.

Refining facilities in the Chicago and St. Louis areas are ample for all needs, oil men said. A large volume of petroleum is also transported by barge on the Mississippi and Ohio rivers and the Illinois waterway.

The Illinois oil fields, near the refineries in Chicago and St. Louis, give further assurance of an ample supply of petroleum products for this part of the country, it was observed.

National Rationing a Mystery.

Oil company officials were at a loss to explain why Secretary of the Interior Harold Ickes, recently appointed administrator for the oil industry, and other government officials speak of the need for rationing oil products on a national basis.

"Our only concern," one executive said, "is that an arbitrary rationing system may be clamped down on the entire country under the guise of emergency. There would be no excuse from an economic or defense standpoint for such a step in this part of the country. Perhaps Ickes thinks it would be politically impossible to enforce rationing in the east without also applying it in other parts of the country."

Meanwhile in Washington Ickes announced that the Oil Burner institute, representing equipment manufacturers, had launched a campaign to conserve oil by increasing the efficiency of heating equipment.

Ickes repeated earlier statements that the nation should be prepared to expect less gasoline for automobiles and less fuel oil for home and commercial heating plants.

Asks Increased Use.

The secretary indicated that he would call for wider use of existing oil tanker facilities to combat the threatened shortage in the east. Ickes, after a conference with President Roosevelt, said that coördination of existing tankers might help relieve the situation. This meant, he added, having tankers travel longer distances.

Attorney General Jackson told Ickes that the department of justice "stands ready to implement your activities" as coördinator for the oil industry.

Another development yesterday was the release of a joint report by the Office of Production Management and the aeronautical board of the army and navy recommending that the oil industry expand by 25 per cent its capacity for producing 100 octane gasoline. The increase is needed, it was said, because of the prospective requirements of the United States and British air forces.

U. S. DEBT SOARS TO 48⅓ BILLIONS ON BIG BOND SALE

Washington, D. C., June 4 (AP).—The federal debt soared above 48 billion dollars today, after a jump of 1 billion 100 million dollars in the last 30 days.

About a half billion of the rise was due to sales of defense savings bonds, but the debt went to $48,393,533,938 today after the treasury recorded its 600 million dollar sales of regular types of bonds to banks last week.

Growth of the armament program which has cost $5,279,603,723 since last July 1 has caused extensive borrowing by the treasury.

Lucas Favors, Fuller Assails Rule of Prices

Leon Henderson's price fixing activities were assailed last night by a national spokesman for industry. On the same platform a spokesman for the Roosevelt administration defended Henderson's program as sound and urged that the President be given statutory power to control the price strucure.

The representative of industry was Walter D. Fuller, president of the National Association of Manufacturers and of the Curtis Publishing company. The voice of the New Deal was Senator Scott W. Lucas [D., Ill.]. They addressed 900 retailers at the dinner-meeting of the midyear convention of the National Retail Dry Goods association, in the Stevens hotel.

Hits Food Buying Activity.

Fuller assailed the administration for counteracting efforts to snuff out inflationary trends. He referred to the buying of food under the lend-lease law to aid Britain, which has caused the "American housewife to pay ten cents a pound more for butter than the Canadian housewife pays."

Fuller's proposed substitute for government price tinkering was increased production. He urged that the administration permit the nation's productive capacity be used to the fullest.

"Greater production will control inflation better than all whip-cracking from Washington," he said.

Senator Lucas announced that he approved Henderson's attempt to prevent repetition of the inflation of the last war. He characterized government price regulation as a "sound piece of business."

If voluntary restraint and self-discipline by business is not successful in controling prices, Senator Lucas warned that there will "ultimately come a ceiling over all prices, above which they cannot rise, and below which they are free to fall."

Both Assail Arms Strikes.

Fuller charged that industry's performance in the preparedness effort has been impeded by "the coddling of racketeering labor leaders who are acting as if they are bigger than Uncle Sam himself."

Senator Lucas asserted that the President will take "affirmative action" against strikes.

"Let it be understood that I do not contend that certain strikes may not have been justified, but certainly the reason behind the great majority of these strikes is not justified under any fair and impartial interpretation," the senator said.

CONNELY FAVORS WAR INDUSTRIES BOARD TO SPEED UP PRODUCTION

Washington, D. C., June 4 [Special].—Establishment of a war industries board under a single production director was recommended today by Emmett F. Connely of Detroit, president of the Investment Bankers association, as part of a seven point program intended to speed up the national preparedness program.

Emmett F. Connely.

The other points:

1. Suborganization by industries and the bringing of private savings into expanding industries.

2. Encouragement of production of peacetime goods which do not conflict with the armament effort.

3. A treasury department study of the income tax problem from the double viewpoint of fund raising and holding down undesirable purchasing power.

4. As little governmental interference as possible.

5. No government spending on nondefense projects.

CHECKING GRAIN SPECULATION PUT UP TO TRADERS

A committee of the Chicago Board of Trade appointed to coöperate with the Commodity Exchange administration in holding speculation in grain futures in check, yesterday sought an answer to its problem from members of the grain board.

William H. McDonald, chairman of the committee, asked members for comments in a letter describing the situation as presented by J. M. Mehl, chief of the CEA. Mehl stated that the exchanges must hold speculation at a minimum while continuing to serve as a hedging medium and to fill the price basing needs of grain dealers. Sacrifice of commissions may be necessary, he said.

OPM Seeking Huge Boost in Steel Capacity

Washington, D. C., June 4 [Special].—The office of Production Management has asked the steel industry to make plans for expanding productive capacity of 10 million tons, it was learned today.

Secretary of Commerce Jesse H. Jones, who also is federal loan administrator, has indicated to steel men that government money will be available to finance a large part of the cost which is estimated at between 500 million and 1 billion dollars.

The OPM decision to press for additional production of steel, it was learned, was conveyed to officials of the United States Steel corporation and Bethlehem Steel corporation, which together represent more than 50 per cent of steel capacity, at secret meetings yesterday at OPM and commerce department offices.

Meet in New York Today.

Representatives of other steel companies were called to meet in New York tomorrow to make definite arrangements as to how much additional production capacity each company can add, to estimate the length of time required for the expansion, and to indicate the probable cost.

It was indicated that a definite expansion program will be worked out and announced at meetings to be held here within the next 10 days.

The additional steel capacity, it was said, is designed to meet increasing civilian demands as the national income mounts toward 100 billion dollars because of the accelerated 40 billion armament program.

Will Cut Civilian Uses.

Leon Henderson, administrator of the Office of Price Administration and Civilian Supply, who has charge of allocating steel to competing civilian needs after military requirements have been met, has approved taking from the civilian supply now whatever steel is required to expand capacity by 10,000,000 tons annually for future use.

Henderson has said that he thinks it is better to reduce the civilian supply for the moment if such an action will bring new steel capacity into being to meet future demands.

Gano Dunn, senior consultant of OPM's production division and steel expert, reported to President Roosevelt a week ago today that the steel industry's "maximum reliable capacity" as of next Dec. 31 would be 91,338,669 tons.

Call Dunn Cost Too High.

This indicated a shortage of 1,400,000 tons in 1941 and of 6,400,000 tons in 1942 for both military and civilian needs.

Dunn estimated that an increase in capacity of 10,000,000 tons would require two years, cost $1,250,000,000, and require 4,160,000 tons of steel if it included all such factors as ore mine development, railroad equipment, dock facilities, 30 lake vessels, etc.

Persons who participated in yesterday's meetings indicated, however, that the 10,000,000 ton expansion which OPM has in mind can be done more cheaply and require less steel thru enlarging existing facilities than the type of expansion which Dunn discussed in his report.

House Group Approves Loan Agency Fund Boost

Washington, D. C., June 4 (AP).—The house banking committee approved legislation today to give the Commodity Credit corporation $1,250,000,000 additional borrowing power to finance the parity price program for agricultural products, and to extend its life until June 30, 1946.

REJECT CHANGE IN TAXING OF EXCESS PROFIT

House Group Turns to Personal Levy.

Washington, D. C., June 4 (AP).—The house ways and means committee rejected the treasury's excess profits tax plan today and turned to its recommendations for increasing individual income taxes.

These recommendations, to be considered tomorrow, would add to present income taxes a system of surtaxes which would levy 11 per cent on the first dollar of taxable income. The present starting rate for income taxes is 4.4 per cent. Members said that consideration probably would be given to lowering the untaxable exemptions, now $800 for single persons and $2,000 for married persons.

Retain Option of Bases.

In rejecting the treasury's excess profits tax plan, which business men generally had opposed, the committee voted to permit corporations to continue computing excess profits taxes on the basis of previous earnings. The treasury plan called for basing the taxes on a percentage of invested capital.

The vote, kept secret officially but said by some sources to have been 20 to 4, was to retain in the proposed $3,500,000,000 tax bill "the present optional plan" of determining these taxes "with such revisions as the committee may see fit to make."

Chairman Robert L. Doughton [D., N. C.] was said to have been among those who voted against the treasury.

Cover Blow to Administration.

One Republican, who asked that his name not be used, asserted that the vote was kept secret because the Democratic committee majority did not wish to make public an overwhelming vote against a plan which John L. Sullivan, assistant treasury secretary, had said was read at the White House before its presentation.

The present "optional plan" permits corporations to count as "excess" [1] those profits exceeding 95 per cent of the average in 1936-'39 or [2] 8 per cent of their currently invested capital.

As a substitute for this system the treasury suggested a complicated formula which would have applied the excess profits tax to all corporation profits exceeding 10 per cent of their current capital.

Chicago & Southern Plane Traffic Up Over 50 Pct.

The Chicago and Southern Air Lines carried 53.5 per cent more revenue passengers during the first five months of 1941 than in the same period last year, D. D. Walker, vice president and general sales manager, reported yesterday. Revenue passenger miles for the 1941 period increased 56.1 per cent over last year. During the period 7,478,313 revenue passenger miles were flown and 18,808 revenue passengers carried by the company's planes.

STEEL SHORTAGE CURBS BUILDING OF FREIGHT CARS

5,000 Lost to Railroads, Says C. H. Buford.

Efforts of the railroads to add to their rolling stock in anticipation of still heavier freight movements this fall have been impeded by a shortage of steel, C. H. Buford, vice president of the Association of American Railroads, asserted yesterday at the annual meeting of the American Association of Railroad Superintendents in the Stevens hotel.

Five thousand freight cars have been lost to the carriers because car builders were unable to obtain the necessary steel, he asserted.

"Orders have been placed for about all the cars that commercial plants can turn out on the present production basis by the fall months of this year," Buford said.

Production Reduced.

"Recently two large car building plants joined others on a reduced production basis due to shortage of steel. One railroad car shop in this state is on a five day week basis with 120 workers idle because of the shortage of steel.

"We have had repeated assurance for several months that the railroads would get the steel they need. We have recently been told that we would actually get the material. We hope this is true and that within a short time these car plants will go to full production."

Explaining the unusually high level of car loadings, Buford said that some of the increase is the result of the coal strike which depleted stocks, and of forward buying by consumers who fear a scarcity of certain goods.

Ocean Shipping Curtailed.

"It is possible," he said, "that the present high car loadings may tend to reduce the requirements for transportation in later months."

The railroads are being required to carry an increasing movement of freight formerly water borne, Buford said. He asserted that probably all ships in intercoastal trade will be transferred to other service and that most of their work will be turned over to railroads.

Buford asserted that of the 113 freighters with 1,080,000 tons capacity at the end of 1940 in intercoastal trade, 96 ships with 936,000 tons capacity were in service April 30 and that by the end of June about 40 per cent of the remainder will be diverted to other routes.

RUMOR OF PEACE LIFTS PRICES OF GERMAN BONDS

New York, June 4 (AP).—Domestic rails and utilities and a group of foreign bonds displayed moderate rising power today. Tremendous activity developed in German government and municipal issues, which gave rise to many rumors on the floor of the stock exchange.

Some said buyers were acting on the belief a peace proposal was in the wind; others said that a sizable block of German obligations owned by American capital was being sold.

When these bonds began to appear, they said, speculators and others bought for a quick turn on the theory the peace rumors would create buying interest.

German government 5½s ended up ⅝ at 7⅜ on turnover of $465,000, par value. The stamped 7s were unchanged at 9½ and Prussia 6s were up 2 at 17.

United States governments were quiet and mostly mixed on both the stock exchange and over the counter.

Oil Shortage Forecasts Lift Mining Issues.

New York, June 4 (AP).—Stocks extended their rising movement to three sessions today, getting an upward thrust from shares of aircraft and other armament industries.

Steel stocks generally failed of their accustomed bellwether rôle, shifting trends uneasily thruout the day. Their place of action was usurped shortly before the close by a group of coal mining shares.

The Associated Press average of 60 selected stocks gained .1 of a point at 40.2. Turnover totaled 426,035 shares compared with 417,940 yesterday.

Coals Gain on Oil News.

Continued prophecies of a fuel oil shortage in the east this coming winter, due to lack of ocean tankers, resulted in the rise of coal shares, since the east may have to do more heating with anthracite than in recent years.

Issues of Consolidation Coal and Lehigh Valley Coal, both common and preferred, reached new 1941 highs.

Included in the list of gainers at the end were Boeing, Douglas, United Aircraft, Caterpillar, Bethlehem, American Telephone, Dow Chemical, du Pont and Standard Oil of Indiana.

CHICAGO LIST GAINS.

Advances again held a slight margin over losses on the Chicago Stock exchange yesterday. Transfers totaled only 15,000 shares. Commonwealth Edison led the list in turnover of 1,700 shares, closing at 25⅜, up ½. Pennsylvania railroad gained ⅛ point from the New York close during the trading from 2 to 2:30 o'clock to finish at 25⅛. Other dually listed issues were unchanged.

STEEL INDUSTRY WANTS DEFINITE PRIORITY STAND

The steel industry desires adoption of a definite policy by the federal government on what armament needs for steel should be given precedence, the magazine Iron Age said yesterday in its weekly review.

"What steel manufacturers would like to see is an authoritative statement from Washington as to which defense needs the steel industry should fill first," Iron Age said. "They hope for prompt and decisive action on mandatory priorities for steel plates and structural materials and eventually on other products."

Commodities

Concern over ocean shipping shortages yesterday reappeared as a buying stimulant in commodity futures markets. Santos coffee climbed to another new 1941 high and rubber gained sharply following several days of rapidly falling prices. Cottonseed oil, cocoa, and tin advanced more moderately. Hides, wool tops, domestic sugar and silk were lower.

Santos coffee closed 0.05 to 0.12 cent a pound higher, with the July delivery at 10.50 cents. Turnover rose to 71,500 bags with buying mainly for Brazilian accounts. Rubber futures advanced 0.25 to 0.35 cent to 21.20 cents a pound in the July position. The cash price improved 0.37 cent.

Hides dropped 0.10 to 0.16 cent a pound to 14.72 cents bid for September futures. Late selling trimmed closing gains in cottonseed oil to 0.06 to 0.08 cent a pound.

ZENITH EARNINGS HIGHER DESPITE MATERIALS PINCH

Profits Second Largest in Company's History.

The pinch being felt by the makers of semiluxury goods as the result of the preparedness effort was illustrated yesterday in the annual report of the Zenith Radio corporation, issued by Eugene F. McDonald Jr., president.

McDonald emphasized that the big problem before his company, the third largest maker of radio receivers, is obtaining materials for production, instead of the usual one of merchandising.

Reporting net profit for the fiscal year ended April 30 of $1,236,438, the second largest in the company's history, McDonald said the improvement resulted from the introduction of frequency modulation receivers, portable radios, and a foot controled automobile radio.

Equal to $2.51 a Share.

The year's profit was equal to $2.51 a share, compared with $738,083, or $1.50 a share in the 1940 fiscal year, and with the peak of $1,904,074, or $3.87 a share, in the 1937 period.

Touching on conditions since the start of the company's new fiscal year, McDonald said:

"In view of large orders placed by our distributors, it is evident there will be no difficulty in selling whatever merchandise the plants are able to produce."

McDonald reaffirmed previous statements that television has not reached the stage of commercial exploitation thru sale of receivers to the public, but added:

"There are economically sound possibilities developing for the introduction of television [possibly wired] into theaters and motion picture houses."

MONONGAHELA R. R.

A bond dealer has been trying to sell me some Monongahela railway bonds. He tells me they would make an excellent investment for some extra cash I have. What is your attitude?—K. B.

Answer: The first mortgage, series B, 3¼ per cent bonds of the Monongahela Railway company, due Feb. 1, 1966, are rated as high grade, primarily because interest and principal are guaranteed by three railroads, which own the company in equal shares.

The road's earnings have fluctuated with the swing of industrial activity, and especially with the steel operating rate in the area it serves. Fixed charges of the company were earned an average of 1.69 times in the last 10 years.

The $11,418,000 of the outstanding first mortgage bonds constitutes the entire funded debt of the railroad. The bonds were issued last February to retire a like amount of 4 per cent bonds due 1960. The new issue is secured by a first lien on the road's own 123 miles of track and upon equipment. Each mile of track supports $92,648 of bonds. The proprietor roads guaranteeing the issue are the Baltimore and Ohio, the Pennsylvania, and the Pittsburgh and Lake Erie.

The Monongahela is primarily a soft coal carrier, operating 172 miles of road from the southwest corner of Pennsylvania into Fairmont, W. Va. Altho set up as a separate company, the Monongahela in practice acts as a joint originating facility for the three parent railroads. The road competes for traffic with other soft coal carriers, highway trucks, and barges on the Monongahela river.

RECEIVER'S CERTIFICATES.

What is the security behind a receiver's certificate?—M. W.

Answer: Because the property of a company in receivership is under the jurisdiction of a court, the court-authorized obligations of the receiver incurred in managing the property are considered first liens against the assets. In effect, therefore, a receiver's certificate [issued to obtain funds to conduct the receivership] is a short term note secured by a first mortgage on all the property in the receiver's care. Thus, first mortgage obligations outstanding before the receivership have a junior lien against the property.

AUTO LOCKS.

What are the activities of Briggs & Stratton?—P. C.

Answer: Briggs & Stratton corporation, Milwaukee, is the leading maker of automobile locks and small portable gasoline engines. Recently the company has been making ammunition components.

PLANE BUILDER DECLARES FIRST DIVIDEND OF YEAR

Consolidated Will Pay $2 a Share.

Directors of the Consolidated Aircraft corporation, San Diego, Cal., which is manufacturing many military craft, yesterday declared a dividend of $2 on the common stock, the first payment on the issue this year. The company had resumed dividends with a $2 payment last December.

To strengthen the corporation's financial structure for handling the increased armament contracts, the board called a meeting of stockholders to consider an increase of authorized common stock from 1,200,000 to 2,400,000 shares. As a second step, the board voted to call outstanding convertible $3 preferred stock on 60 days' notice at its call price of $55 a share.

Backlog Increased.

The 226 million dollar contract for Consolidated B-24 bombers, awarded by the war department Tuesday, brought the corporation's backlog to approximately 684 million dollars.

Lehman corporation, New York investment trust, declared a year-end extra dividend of 15 cents in addition to the regular quarterly payment of 25 cents. The fiscal year ends June 30.

An extra dividend of 30 cents was declared by the Locke Steel Chain company, Bridgeport, Conn., together with the regular quarterly disbursement of 30 cents.

Directors of the Metropolitan Trust company have voted an initial dividend of 20 cents a share, Barnet L. Rosset, president, announced.

LIVE HOGS REGAIN PART OF TUESDAY PRICE DECLINES

Advances occurred in the markets for most classes of meat animals at the stock yards yesterday. Lighter receipts and a rise of 50 cents in wholesale prices of fresh pork stimulated buying of hogs at 5 to 15 cents higher prices early in the session, wiping out part of Tuesday's losses. The average for the day showed a rise of 10 cents, at $9.30 a hundred pounds.

Top loads of 195 to 211 pound hogs rose 15 cents to $9.60, this price being within 5 cents of the 1941 peak.

An abrupt decrease in the available supply of new crop lambs sent prices up 25 to 50 cents. The advance carried some kinds to new 1941 peaks.

A stronger undercurrent existed in the market for steers and yearlings yesterday. The $13.75 top, paid for 1,080 pound stock, stood highest since May 14.

CONSIDER BROAD CHANGES IN N. Y. EXCHANGE POLICY

New York, June 4 [Special].—Governors of the New York Stock exchange are considering sweeping administrative changes including employment of paid managers to replace administration by committees of members, it was learned today.

Other points are believed to include a reduction in the number of governors from 32 to 22, the placing of all disciplinary and policy making matters in the hands of the board of governors, and placing the administration of rules and existent policy matters with the paid staff.

COTTON

NEW JERSEY HAS NO POWER LACK FOR ARMS WORK

Officials Assert Utility Can Meet All Needs.

BY HERBERT VEDDER.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, June 4.—New Jersey—shouldering almost one-tenth of all government contracts ladled out under the preparedness program—is not facing any imminent power shortage, altho its expanding industries' electric power requirements have been and are being sharply increased, officials of the Public Service Corporation of New Jersey said today.

The company's vast steam-generated electric system, in contrast with the Tennessee Valley authority's hydro plants, so far has had no difficulty in meeting demands made on it.

Officials believe, further, that careful planning has assured their industrial, commercial, and residential users of sufficient electricity thru 1943. Further expansion for 1944 has been in the blueprint stage for several months.

Serves 3¼ Million Persons.

Public Service provides electric, gas and transportation service for practically all the larger cities and more populous areas in New Jersey. The 223 municipalities of 3¼ million population it serves with electricity extend from Camden in the south thru Jersey City and Newark to Paterson in the north.

Power sales to industry, always a major part of the company's business, have increased from 60 per cent of total 1940 sales to an estimated 65 per cent now. Big customers include New York Shipbuilding company, Bendix Aviation corporation, Brewster Aeronautical corporation, Curtiss-Wright corporation, and the latter's subsidiary, Wright Aeronautical corporation.

An example of efficiency on an emergency job was provided by Public Service last summer in building a substation to serve the new Curtiss-Wright propeller plant in a record 77 days. The company now has 82 substations.

Capacity Being Expanded.

The five generating stations of the system have a capacity of 837,700 kilowatts, an increase of 100,000 k. w. being effected last year. Another 50,000 k. w. will be added with a new turbine to be in operation this summer. Two other generators with combined capacity of 150,000 k. w. are to be in service by the fall of 1942.

These additions will give the system a capacity of 1,037,700 k. w., not including 23,000 k. w. obtained from a Pennsylvania interconnection. Studies have been made for providing capacities up to 2,000,000 k. w., in considering possible needs for many years to come.

An instantaneous peak load of 780,100 k. w., 729,100 k. w. for an hour, setting a new company record for demand, was experienced last December.

Power Production Rising.

Largely because of expanding industrial needs, 17 per cent more electricity was generated during the first 21 weeks this year than in the comparable period last year. The increase now is running to more than 20 per cent, and becoming larger.

Asserting that supplies appear ample to meet any needs now foreseen, officials point out that the increase in total demand does not mean a corresponding increase in peak load. They explain that industry is using more power hours each day, and that maximum demand at any one moment is not expected to rise as sharply as total sales.

People and Events

James Watson has been appointed vice president of the Hub, Henry C. Lytton & Sons, it was announced yesterday by Willard W. Cole, executive vice president and general manager. Watson resigned as national educational director of Montgomery Ward & Co. several months ago.

Moore, Case, Lyman & Hubbard, general agents of the John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance company, have named William A. Fowler and W. E. Kerchenfaut assistants to Robert B. Kegley, manager of the life and accident departments.

The Federal Home Loan Bank board yesterday announced the appointment of Philip Kinzer of Milwaukee as a public interest director of the Federal Home Loan Bank of Chicago.

WHEAT MARKET UPTURN CHECKED BY PROFIT SALES

Bakeries Buy Large Amounts of Flour.

Large purchases of flour by chain bakeries and the report of excessive rains in sections where harvest of the new wheat crop is getting underway lifted wheat prices more than a cent a bushel in Chicago before profit taking and hedge selling caused a decline. Oats sold at new highs. Large speculative purchases lifted the lard market 5 to 10 cents a hundred pounds.

Trade estimates placed flour purchases so far this week at close to 500,000 barrels, equivalent to almost 2¼ million bushels of wheat. The opinion was expressed that this week's business might easily reach one million barrels.

Prices Close Off Slightly.

The mills were believed buying enough grain to fill the summer flour needs of some of the bakeries. Because of persistent flour mill buying the last two days and the market reaction to farmer acceptance of marketing quotas for wheat this year, prices at the extreme yesterday were up almost 5 cents a bushel from closing prices at the end of last week. Yesterday's closing prices, however, were ⅛ to ¼ cent a bushel below the final prices of the preceding day.

Oats closed unchanged to ¼ cent a bushel higher with the September and December contracts establishing new highs during the session. Corn finished ¼ to ½ cent lower in light trading.

Hog Strength Aids Lard.

It was estimated that speculative purchases of lard early in the session aggregated two to three million pounds. The higher hog market and the favorable statistical position of the oil markets were strengthening factors.

Trading in soy bean futures increased in volume with the market dropping 1¼ to 1⅜ cents a bushel under rather heavy local selling. Rye closed unchanged to ¼ cent higher.

UTILITY MEETING OPPOSED BY SEC DELAYED MONTH

Wilmington, Del., June 4 (AP).—A federal court injunction was asked by the Securities and Exchange commission today to forestall a proposed dissolution of an intermediate holding company by the North American company, but all action was postponed until late this month.

District Judge John P. Nields set June 27 for argument on the restraining order and, with counsel for the SEC and North American in agreement, directed that a stockholders' meeting scheduled for today be delayed until June 30.

The North American company had planned to dissolve the holding company involved, the North American Light and Power company, in the face of a SEC contention that it has the right to forbid such action. Counsel for the SEC declared the dissolution at this time would hamper its work.

RAINS IMPROVE CORN PROSPECTS IN MOST STATES

Crop Is Generally Ahead of Normal Growth.

Rains thruout most of the cornbelt last week put the soil in excellent shape for a large crop this year, the weekly report of the weather bureau indicated yesterday. The bureau said that weather was favorable for growth and the season is ahead of normal in practically all areas.

Farm work in some areas has been hampered by rains and wet soil and many fields are weedy.

Conditions by States.

ILLINOIS—Corn varies from 60 per cent to all up, and much has had the first cultivation. Progress of winter wheat was mostly fair to good; heading and turning color in south. Oats mostly good to excellent.

INDIANA—Situation of most crops, including oats, tomatoes, and pastures is greatly improved. Winter wheat is making fair progress.

IOWA—Corn planting is completed but much replanting will be done in flooded areas where up to 25 per cent of the crop was destroyed.

WISCONSIN—Winter wheat and rye are heading and filling. Spring grains, meadows, pastures, and truck crops reported greatly improved.

MICHIGAN—Most truck crops reported in good condition.

6. The momentum of a moving body increases not in direct proportion to the speed, but as the square of the speed. Since 20 and 40 have a ratio of 1:2, their momentums would represent the square of these or 1:4. Thus, the auto traveling at 40 mile speed would require 160 feet in which to stop.
